Our Cemetary Committee under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Timms have read 73 cemeteries in Pickens County. Of this number, about 35 are church cemeteries. Members are reminded of our pledge to give one hour per month to this project; snakes will soon be going into hiding and the weather will be cooler.

Following our September Joint Meeting, our next meeting will be on October 18 at 7:30 PM at the Home Savings and Loan in Clemson.

We are grateful for the gift to our chapter of about 10 large sticks to chalk for our Cemetary Committee. This gift comes from Mr. Robert Babb of Charleston, our State first Vice President.

The Annual Meeting of the Society will be held Saturday October 29, 1977 with headquarters at the Downtown Holiday Inn in Charleston, SC. The Charleston Chapter needs an approximate head count of people who think they might want to tour the Court House, Historical Society, Libraries, or Huguenot Society on Saturday Morning (9-12); the number who wish to attend the luncheon and business meeting; and the number who desire rooms for Friday or Saturday night at the Holiday Inn. If you hope to attend and/or stay either night, please let Charleston know by informing:

Mrs. Beverly Shuler
1531 Twilight Trail
Mt. Pleasant, SC 29464.

This will insure you receive registration material the first week in October. Holiday Inn rates are $19-single and $27-double.

This meeting is being held at the same time as the Candlelight Tours of homes conducted by the Preservation Society. If you desire tickets to either Friday or Saturday nights ($9 per night, 7-10 PM), send your name and address to the Preservation Society of Charleston, Box 521, Charleston, SC 29402.

If you plan to attend the Joint Meeting September 11 in Greenville, brochures will be available for every member describing the Annual Meeting and the Candlelight Tours. If you hope to attend you are urged to send your name and address to Mrs. Shuler and make motel arrangements by September 20.

A History of Marion County by W. W. Sellers is being reprinted by the Marion County Library (101 E. Court St., Marion, SC 29571). Pre publication price is $12. The new edition has an index.

Fort Hill Savings and Loan--Upstairs (College Ave, Clemson)

Program: Annual Business Meeting and Show and Tell others and show them what you are doing.

We now have compiled a new membership address list and a list of families being researched by our members. These lists will be distributed at our next meeting--November 15.

The Cemetary Committee has now read over 90 cemeteries primarily in Pickens County. If you want to help, please contact Mrs. Sarah Timms to avoid duplication of effort. Anyone willing to help with typing these lists please contact Mr. Riggs Goodman.

Our speaker in October was Mr. Hurley E. Badders of the Pendleton District Historical and Recreation Commission. Mr. Badders mentioned the genealogical aid his staff is rendering to people who request it. He also invited our chapter to visit the Commission's library at Hunter's Store on E. Queen Street in Pendleton to see their collection of books and microfilm materials.

About 76 persons, including two from our chapter, attended the Annual Meeting of the SCGS October 29 in Charleston. A reception was held at the Holiday Inn on Friday evening. Following registration on Saturday morning, a tour was enjoyed of the County Court House (Probate Judge's Offices and Registrar of Means of Conveyance), the
S. C. Historical Society, the Huguenot Society, and the Charleston
