OCTOBER 1990

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

We are approaching the end of another calendar year. I want to elect officers at the October meeting.

At the November meeting, we will have as our guest speaker Mr. Ronald A. Bremer of Salt Lake City who has had forty years experience as a genealogist and is a former Research Specialist for the Family History Library in Salt Lake City. He is the author of two books and a contributor to numerous genealogical magazines. He has personally visited the major genealogical record centers in every state and province in North America. He is a popular and sought after speaker.

In order to secure Mr. Bremer, it was necessary to alter the date of our November meeting but you will be reminded of that in the November newsletter.

BOOK REVIEW

"The Bailey A. Barton Muster Roll Book of Pickens District, South Carolina", a facsimile of the original with introduction by Frederick C. Holder, Oconee Co., Historical Society, 1990. 18 pp. + 21 pp. introduction, 8 1/2 x 12, offset, soft cover, indexed. Cost $4.00 including postage. Order from Frederick C. Holder, P. O. Box 444, Pickens, SC 29671.

The introduction explains the structure of the militia which was established in 1792 as a quasi military way to protect the new nation and maintain order. Credit is given to Miss Jean Martin Flynn for permission to use selected material from her forthcoming book "The Militia in Antebellum South Carolina" and "A History of Second Baptist Church and the Pickens Area."

OH, HOW I WISH HE'D HAD A MIDDLE NAME

If you are having trouble keeping your John Smiths and Jane Browns straight and wish they had a middle name - the following excerpts from an article which appeared in a "HARPERS" Magazine around 1900 might help explain why they did not have middle names.

"Middle names were once illegal. The old English law was definite as to the naming of children and, according to (Sir Edward) COKE'S law commentary, 'a man cannot have two names of baptism'; and on bills of sale, 'that purchaser be named by the name of his baptism and his surname.' Royal personages were ALWAYS allowed to have more than one given name, but as late as 1600, it was said there were only FOUR PERSONS in all England who had two given names. In 1620, when the Mayflower sailed for America, not a man or woman aboard had a middle name.

"Even one hundred and fifty years ago, double names were uncommon.....and the law was dodged at times by compounding names, such as ANNANARIE. As much as they dared, beginning in the 1700's parents evaded the 'one name' law. But even one hundred years ago, custom was against the middle name. Only three of the signers of the Declaration of Independence had middle names; the first five Presidents of the United STATES had only one name each.

GEORGE WASHINGTON JOHN ADAMS THOMAS JEFFERSON
JAMES MADISON JAMES MONROE

Before ULYSSES GRANT, Eighteenth President, there had been only three "doublenamed" Chief Executives.
