

FEBRUARY MEETING

The February meeting of the Chapter will be Wednesday, February 20 at 7:30 PM in the second floor meeting room of South Carolina National Bank, in Clemson, on US123 nearly across from Dockside Hardware.

Our speaker will be our own Vice President and Program Chairman, Trudy Garner. Her subject will be Photography and Genealogy. Surely we can all use photography, as a tool, more effectively than most of us do.

Please bring, to share with others, any photos that have been helpful in your research.

February 1991

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our last meeting on January 16, 1991 will be long remembered as the date that the United States and allies went to war with Iraq. This conflict, named "Operation Desert Storm" is being fought to stop the takeover of Kuwait by Iraq. Let us pray for the safe return of our men and women serving in this conflict. It is my hope that our meetings will never again be overshadowed by our country going to war.

HAROLD B. SIMPSON CONFEDERATE RESEARCH CENTER AND MUSEUM

Contributed by Steve Longcrier, P. O. Box 704, Clemson, SC 29633

This center is located on the campus of Hill College in Hillsboro, TX about 50 miles south of Dallas on I35. In addition to the museum, the library contains:

- Over 3,500 books, brochures and pamphlets on the Civil War with emphasis on Confederate military history.
- Reference books on the Civil War including "The Official Records", "Southern Historical Society Papers", "Confederate Veteran" and "Confederate Military History."
- Capsule histories of ALL (Not just Texas) 3,220 Confederate regiments, special units and Confederate ships.
- All service records of Hood's Texas Brigade, Texas newspapers published during the war, 1860 Texas census, post returns of U. S. forts in Texas (1848-61), and an information file on Texas Confederate soldiers.
- Original letters, documents, maps and photographs. Extensive file of magazine and newspaper clippings from the period.
- Subscriptions to 55 magazines in Southern & Military history.
- Publishers of numerous books on the Confederacy.

The Center also contains a large collection of World War II information, especially on Texxans.

The Center WILL conduct research in their library at a very reasonable rate. Mrs. Peggy Fox, very capable and friendly, is a full-time researcher for the library. She told me to write her first WITHOUT sending any money. Once she determines what, if any, information they can supply, She will write back with a price to mail. Her address is: Mrs. Peggy Fox, The Harold B. Simpson Confederate Research Center, P. O. Box 619, Hillsboro, TX 76645. Phone---(817) 582-2555

U. S. ARMY MILITARY HISTORY INSTITUTE
(Extracted from The Low Country Courier - January 1991)

The U. S. Army Military History Institute at Carlisle Barracks, PA has a wealth of information on the Civil War. This is a major source. The Institute cannot conduct extensive research for scholars but will gladly provide research and reference assistance. Such assistance includes bibliographic guidance, explanation of the various finding aids, reference help to on-site patrons and via correspondence, and assistance in locating material. Mailing address is U. S. Army Military History Institute, Carlisle Barracks, PA 17103-5008.

Some Southern Roper "Trees", A book of Clues. June Roper Walton, Compiler and Publisher. Printed 1991 by One Stop Printing, Smithfield, NC. Soft cover, 8 1/2 x 11, 391 pp. incl. all name index. Order from June Roper Walton, P. O. Box 748, Four Oaks, NC 27524, cost $30 incl. postage and mailing. Note:- Please mention Pendleton Chapter in your order and Mrs. Roper will contribute $2.00 to the Chapter.

The compiler published 1986 her own direct line, "KNOWN ANCESTRY OF SAMUEL CLYDE ROPER AND TYRE LEE ROPER". She had so much material left over, including coordinate families, that she assembled it into book form. Your reviewer wishes that such a book of data on his family had been available. As Mrs. Walton points out, this is useful research material but cautions those who use it that they should check the original source to confirm the data.

The data has been arranged by County and State and together with the index makes searching the data quite easy. No doubt, both of Mrs. Walton's books would be of interest to those searching the Roper line as well as the large number of coordinate families. Please direct all book orders and correspondence to Mrs. Walton at the above address.
