

PENDLETON GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

September, 1985

The Pendleton Genealogical Society will meet at the Liberty Presbyterian Church on Main Street in Liberty on September 17, 1985, at 6:30 p.m. This will be the annual dinner meeting. Each member is asked to bring a covered dish to share with the others. Mrs. Julie Woodson will give a short talk on the history of the Liberty Presbyterian Church. The Church is located on Highway 93 at the corner of Main and Palmetto Streets.

At the June South Carolina Genealogical Society Board Meeting, it was brought to my attention that the local and state dues should be paid and sent to the State Office before the end of December. Would you please pay your 1986 dues before the meeting in November so Mr. Weems can send in the records before January 1, 1986. If not, you will be assessed $1.00 for paying your dues late. Thank you.

Tri County Technical College is sponsoring a course entitled Genealogy for the Beginner. This is an introduction to census, tax, church, federal, state and local records, genealogical publications and societies. Topics include: family survey, organization and note keeping, beginning original research, evaluation of evidence, and learning to use official records. Field trips are part of this "how-to" course. The classes begin September 24, 1985 on Tuesday and last until November 5, 1985. It is from 7:00 to 9:30 p.m every Tuesday. The cost is $25. Contact Tri County Technical College for further information.

The Bible Records are progressing beautifully. Several have been typed and are ready for publication. Bill Whitten and Era Davis are preparing a booklet on Nicolson History. Hopefully, both of these will be published before Christmas.

Don't forget the covered dish dinner.
Come and enjoy the fellowship.
