

SOUTH CAROLINA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
 PENDLETON CHAPTER NEWSLETTER
 November 1985

---

FIRST - An apology for not issuing this in September. Your editor became over-committed and the NEWSLETTER fell by the wayside.

The major item for my wife and I this fall was that we were Production Managers for the musical "Kiss Me Kate" in the Clemson Little Theatre. That took all of August and September.

This issue of the NEWSLETTER is quite different than usual. The special feature is a compilation of names from an account book of E. B. Benson who had a store in Pendleton for many years. Feeling that many may wish to have it as a separate document and because of its length, the news portion has been limited to this separate sheet. More newsy material can be expected in the next issue.

PROGRAM PLANS

Our next meeting will be a Workshop on Tuesday November 19, 1985 at 7:30 PM at the American Federal Bank on Hwy. 123 in Clemson.

Beginning in January, our programs will be classes on "Techniques in Basic Genealogy" conducted by Katherine Hester of Greenville. She is a well known expert on family research and we can all learn much to improve our research methods.

The end of the year is fast approaching and dues should be mailed promptly to insure continuation of the Carolina Herald and this NEWSLETTER. Please use the following form when remitting and mail to J. H. Weems.
