

SOUTH CAROLINA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
PENDLETON CHAPTER
February 1987

As usual, the February meeting of the chapter will be held at the American Federal Bank on US #123 in Clemson at 7:30 P. M. on the 3rd Tuesday in the month, February 17. We will be looking for you and hope that you can bring someone else.

The Program will be Gertrude Dodsen speaking on the descendants of Capt. JOHN MCCLAIN who fought at King's Mountain and at Ninety-Six.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT
(as amended by the editor)

It is our wish to begin incorporating certain features in the NEWSLETTER in the near future. What we have in mind are Book Reviews, Queries, and a listing of Bible Records. The success of these features will depend on members and others furnishing us with the material to publish.

In the near future the officers will meet and develop guidelines as to the format in which the material in each of these categories should be submitted and published. When this is done, we will publish these guidelines in the NEWSLETTER FOR YOUR USE. In the meantime, we have one Book Review published in the NEWSLETTER this time. As you will see, the book was published by one of our members. Also, of course, we had one Book Review in the last NEWSLETTER.

We also want to republish a Surname List which will be compiled from the surnames that you are searching. We did this once years ago from the surnames that you recorded on your original membership application, but that list needs to be updated. At an early future date we hope to have compiled these Surnames and to be able to send out the list with a future NEWSLETTER.

CENSUS RECORDS

In the last issue we begin publishing the 1850 Census records of Pickens District, S. C., just as they were recorded by the census-taker. It is our hope and expectation that this will be carried out to its completion. If you save your NEWSLETTER each time it is published, you will have the full census when the series is completed. Of course, it will be without an index, but maybe we could even do that. It is our hope that we can put it into a book, with an index, after the series is completed. We can thank Robert Dodsen for reading the census and Anne Sheriff for typing it into her computer where it will be stored for printing when complete.

Book Review

The Ancestry of Gene Ross including the Ross line and the associated lines of Bennett, Grimes, Llewelyn, Knighton, Turnbull and Kyle, by Gene Ross Kellough, privately printed Seneca, SC 1986. Soft cover, 8 1/2 x 11 pp. photocopied. Bibliography. Price is $14 postage included. Order from Mrs. Gene Ross Kellough, 600 Old Salem Rd., Seneca, SC 29678.

The first 55 pages (indexed) trace her direct ancestry and descendants beginning with William Ross whom she believes was born in Virginia and moved to Tyrrell Co., NC and, seemingly, later to Martin Co., NC. Succeeding Ross families moved to Georgia and thence to Texas where Gene was born and spent much of her life. The text is interlaced with detailed records of source material, the most important being the Ross family Bible data. Some of these records did not photocopy too well but are a delightful inclusion.

A very interesting portion (151pp. not indexed) of the book, especially for family members, is the section titled "Samplings". It is a rapid review of her life and events while growing up in Texas 1909-1937 including a host of stories about people and life styles.

Gene and her husband John Stevens Kellough lived in 20 cities in 11 states before moving to Seneca for retirement. Her daughter and family had moved to Clemson.

Gene published the genealogy of her husband in 1981.
