FAITH CLAYTON

We were saddened by the death of Miss Faith Clayton, Dec. 17, 1993. She was a Charter Member of the Pendleton Chapter of SCGS, as well as a member of many other local state and national organizations. We will always be indebted to her for guidance, leadership and generosity in helping develop and preserve our cherished family histories. The following was printed in The Greenville News, Dec. 19, 1993:

Faith Clayton, formerly of Central, a former member of the state Industrial Commission, died Dec. 17, 1993, at Laurel Hill Nursing Center in Pickens. She was 86.

She was formerly associated with the South Carolina Employment Security Commission as a manager of the Liberty Office. She also served an eight-year term as commissioner with the South Carolina Industrial Commission. She was a graduate of Central Wesleyan College and was a former public school teacher in Mississippi and in Pickens County.

After her retirement, she took up the study of genealogy, and in 1984, she donated her extensive collection to Central Wesleyan College where it is now housed in the Faith Clayton Family Research Center. She was the oldest alumna of Central Wesleyan College.

Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Fred (Angie) Parham of Latta.

Graveside services: 3 p.m. Sunday in Sharon United Methodist Church Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Faith Clayton Family Research Center, Rickman Library, Central Wesleyan College, Central, SC 29630.

SOON TO BE PUBLISHED
The Pickens Sentinel, Historical and Genealogical Abstracts: 1872 - 1893

abstracted by
PEGGY B. RICH AND MARION A. WHITEHURST

For over a year, Rich and Whitehurst have been abstracting the ca. 1872 through 1893 entries found in The Pickens Sentinel, the major newspaper of Pickens County for almost 100 years. For those unfamiliar with the work of Mrs. Rich and Mrs. Whitehurst, they abstract far more than just births, deaths, and marriages -- they abstract the entire newspaper: articles, notices (legal and personal), ads, etc. Researchers in other parts of the U.S. have commented that The People's Journal: Pickens South Carolina, 1894-1903, Historical and Genealogical Abstracts (a previously published newspaper abstract by Rich and Whitehurst) is one of the few, truly well done, published newspaper abstracts.

Potential buyers should consider the purchase as an investment that will save hundreds, if not thousands, of dollars in time and labor. Consider your cost to (1) go the library (time after time), (2) locate microfilm, (3) thread it, (4) then read it -- all just to located one name or information about a particular subject you wish to research, (5) rewind it, and (6) re-shelve it!

The 769 pps. abstract and index of the Sentinel has been shipped to the publisher and will be printed as two volumes. Since the roughly 200 pp. every name index will be in the second volume, the two volumes will be sold only as a set. Delivery date: around 1 July 94

PREPUBLICATION PRICES: (sold only as a 2 vol. set)

FOR ORDERS RECEIVED BEFORE 1 MAY 1994:

We have learned in recent months that, some of our members have not received their publications as expected, and we are very sorry about this. However, we are not sure what the problem is or exactly what to do about it. Some have gotten destroyed in the mail, but they don't know what to do about it. I may have failed to report some memberships to the State Society, or they may have been reported but never received, or something else may have happened. We are aware of these problems and would appreciate hearing from you if you don't get your publications.

Wm. C. Whitten, Jr., Chapter Treasurer

4. SAMUEL WARREN--SC Rev. Pension No. BLWT. 1859-300.

Born 1760 d. 30 Nov 1841

Col. Samuel Warren was the son of Rev. Samuel Fenner Warren who officiated as the faithful pastor of old Eutaw Church for 31 years and died in 1789, buried in the church yard at the old Eutaw Church.

Col. Samuel Warren, his son, is buried in the same grave. He was born near the spot where his mortal remains repose, and at an early age was sent to England for his education, under the care of his uncle, John Warren, Bishop of Bangor, but when war ravaged his native state, his gallant spirit impelled him to fly to her rescue. At the age of 18, when leading his command against the British lines, he received a bullet in his leg, but supporting himself upon his sword until another struck him on the knee, and shattered the thigh bone, he fell, was taken up from the field in Savannah, his thigh was amputated, he survived and continued to perform staff duties in the army.

Served long in each branch of the Legislature, was made President of the Senate and was offered the appointment of Governor, which he declined. Late in life he removed to the district of Pendleton, and there died suddenly on the last day of December 1841 (should be November) in the 79th year of his age. He resided on the Three and Twenty Mile Creek below Pendleton Factory. He was a gentleman of considerable means and lived the life of a bachelor.

His household consisted of himself and Lydia Ann Perdreau, his ward and adopted daughter, whom he educated and reared most tenderly. This young lady married John Miller, a son of John Miller, the Englishman who was the editor and proprietor of "Millers Weekly Messenger" afterwards called the "Pendleton Messenger". Col. Warren gave all his property by will to Samuel Fenner Warren Miller, a son of the above first named John Miller. History of Old Pendleton District and Genealogy of Leading Families pg 31-33 by Col. R.W. Simpson

Col. Samuel Warren died at his residence near the village of Pendleton, SC on the 30 November in the 81st year of his age, one of our Revolutionary Worthies. He lost a leg at the attack on Savannah. He served in both branches of the Legislature and was President of the Senate. Pendleton Messenger Issue: 3 Dec 1841

Estate of Samuel Warren at Soldiers Retreat, the plantation of the late Col. Samuel Warren 30 Dec 1841 sale of negroes and personal estate. Anderson Co SC Inventories Bk 1

Let's Make the Censuses More Useful! Anderson Record, Anderson County Chapter SCGS

Mrs. Adelyn Stegall Stevenson, 170 Little John Trail, Atlanta, Ga. 30309-2622 had brought up a very useful suggestion - that the 2000 census include the Maiden Name Only of married women responding to the enumerator.

"Full names would be more desirable, rather than initials, as any one of the 26 letters of the alphabet tells no more than another. In the case of females, request that (their) full maiden name only be given, the question of (marital) status is answered in the 'now married, widowed, divorced, separated, never married' category.

Since the census is taken to tell us about ourselves, it seems a most logical beginning would be to provide space for full names of all. It appears to be rather discriminating to encourage married females to omit the name of their birth family...This change of emphasizing maiden surnames, and full names of both men and women is most important."

If you think that is a good idea, then write MRS. HARRY SCARR, ACTING DIRECTOR OF THE CENSUS BUREAU, DEPT OF COMMERCE, WASHINGTON, DC 20233, and send a carbon to your CONGRESSMAN.

SCGS WORKSHOP - COLUMBIA: Saturday, July 9th 1994 is the date for the annual workshop; see Carolina Herald for details.

11. HARMON CUMMINS--Applied for pension 25 March 1819 in Pendleton District, South Carolina, dropped under Act 1 May 1820--Applied again 11 Sept 1833. Enlisted in spring 1776 at Sharpsburg, Frederick, now Washington County Maryland within three miles of where he then lived--served in Capt. Cochran's Co. 8th Virginia Line under Col. P. Muhlenberg and marched to Shepherdstown, Fredericksburg and Williamsburg. The 8th Regiment was then sent to Carolina and he was attached to 1st Virginia Infantry commanded by Gen. Mercer and Fleming--etc. wounded in leg at Germantown where he was taken prisoner--returned home and moved to Virginia. Raised in Frederick Co Maryland. South Carolina Rev. Pension No. S21701

Among the pioneer settlers in this section were two brothers-in-law, Samuel Dean and Harmon Cummin. They had married sisters, Misses James, and the two families came from Maryland some years after the war. Mr Cummin had served as a soldier, but Mr Dean had been rejected upon the grounds of being more needed to keep the Indians in subjection. Mr Harom Cummin lived near Mountain Creek. None of his descendants are in this county now. He was captured once by the British and held on a prison ship. Once he was struck on the head with a great iron key and knocked senseless. He told many tales of the cruelty of the British to their prisoners. Before his death Mr Cummin became bed-ridden. The doctor of all that section of county then was Dr. Thompson, father of the late Dr. Richard E. Thompson. It is believed that Harmon Cummin is buried at Old Mountain Creek grave yard, but it is not certain. In the Dean section there is a spring still known as "The Cummin Spring".

13. WILLIAM MOORE--South Carolina Rev. Pension No. S21391 born North Carolina--Pvt. South Carolina Line--Applied 16 May 1833 age 71.

Among the earliest settlers who came to this section were three brothers, Irish, who had lived for a time in Virginia. They were Eliab, Samuel and William Moore. They built rude cabin homes in the wilderness, that of Samuel was very near what is now High Shoals. Back in Ireland Samuel Moore left a dearly loved friend named Smith who with his wife and two children started on the long journey but while at sea Mr Smith died and was buried beneath the waves. His wife continued the journey with her children and after many trials they reached the home of her husband's friend, where they were warmly welcomed. They made their home with Samuel Moore and waited on his wife Mrs Moore who was almost an invalid. Mrs Smith rode over seventy miles of Tory infested country during the Revolutionary War to take Col. Moore clothes and food. After the war the Moores built Mrs Smith and her children a home near their own and Mrs Smith's descendents still live in the county. # FEDERAL CENSUS

Our First Census

As directed by the Constitution as a means obtain information on the actual number of inhabitants living in our early county, The First Census Act was signed by President Washington on March 1, 1790.

The results of our first official Federal census were sent directly to President Washington and later turned over to the Secretary of State. The National Archives is responsible for administering these records and other basic records of the legislative, judicial, and executive branches of our Government.

First State Census of the United States, 1790

The following are the original census enumerations for 1790. Schedules for some counties are missing. No schedules are known to exist for Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, New Jersey, Tennessee, and Virginia; apparently they were destroyed during the British attack on Washington during the War of 1812. The 1790 schedules for Virginia which appear on microfilm were reconstructed from State enumerations.

Original 1790 Census Schedules: 1. Connecticut, 2. Maine, 3. Maryland, 4. Massachusetts, 5. New Hampshire, 6. New York, 7. North Carolina, 8. Pennsylvania, 9. Rhode Island, 10. South Carolina, and 11. Vermont.

Genealogical Importance

Although no Federal records were created specifically to fulfill the needs of genealogists, the federal census is considered to be the most important and richest source of information for genealogical research. Federal population and census schedules contain a wealth of information for the Campbell genealogists, historians, and researchers interested in topics such as westward expansion, the status of free and slave labor, regional and local history, and immigration.

Often the census also contains evidence for providing citizenship which may be the first step in determining from which county our earlier ancestors came.

The Campbell family historian is very fortunate that a hand our written surname is very free flowing, clear, and very easy to locate in micro filmed copies of early censuses.

Availability

The National Archives has microfilm copies of the original population schedules for 1790 - 1920 and are available for sale by the National Archives. Many area historic depositories and libraries have copies of census enumerations and population schedules.

Census Information

As a rule, the information gathered in each successive census is progressively more detailed. The schedules for 1790 - 1840 show the names of enumerated heads of household only while other members of the household were simply tallied by age group, sex, and race.

All following enumerations list each individual by name, except for the slave schedules of 1850 and 1860 which show the name of the owner and the number of his slaves by age group and sex. The census of 1850 was the first to record each person's age, occupation if over age 15, and place of birth.

If the parent of a person enumerated in the census of 1870 was of foreign birth, that fact was indicated. The 1880 census added the relationship of each individual to the head of the household.

Mortality Schedules

Beginning in 1850 and through 1880, mortality schedules were taken by census enumerators. If a person died during the twelve-month period which preceded the taking of each of the census, the schedules show the name, the month and cause of death, and state, territory, or county of birth.

Missing Schedules

Most of the 1890 population schedules were destroyed by fire. Fragments do exist for the counties of the following states: Alabama, Illinois, New Jersey, North Carolina, Texas, Georgia, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, and District of Columbia.

Special Censuses

The National Archives also has the 1890 special schedules of Union veterans and widows of veterans for Washington, DC, about half of Kentucky, and for states in alphabetical order from Louisiana through Wyoming.

The schedules give the name and post office address of each living veteran and of each veteran's widow (along with the name of her deceased husband) and information about the service of each veteran named.

Genealogy Made Easy - Lyn Neil - Pickens County Library System gave the following to members present at the Oct. meeting.

WHERE TO FIND FAMILY NAMES

SOME BASIC INFORMATION

PICKENS COUNTY became a separate county in 1868. To research family names prior to 1868, check the Pendleton District records/histories such as History of Old Pendleton District (975.725 Simpson).

Unfortunately, there is very little available in printed records since Pickens County became a county in 1868.

Birth and Death Records were not required by the State of South Carolina until 1915.

Marriage Records from July 11, 1911, are located in the Pickens County Administration Building, Pickens, South Carolina.

(The only earlier birth, death, and marriage records are from newspaper and church notices, Classification number 929.3)

Wills from 1828 are located in the Pickens County Administration Building, Pickens, S. C.
