MEETING PLACE:

The new Central/Clemson Library will be dedicated the 13th April 1997. We will be the first group meeting in this Library. Everything is handicap accessible. There is a small kitchen for our refreshments. For those that do not know where it is located: It is on the same road that you travel to reach Southern Wesleyan University. On Hwy 123 take the Central/Norris exit 93 and it will be on your right after you pass Hardees. Coming from Easley on Hwy 123 also take the Central/Norris exit.

Our March Program, presented by Dell Millar on Indian Artifacts, was excellent. For those of you who missed this meeting you really lost out on a very interesting history of Indian life. We will have Dell back again.

NEED HELP AT THE CLAYTON ROOM WITH THE PICKENS DATA PROJECT

CINDY DAVIS--Phone: 864-246-0307, a student at Southern Wesleyan University, has volunteered to help those that need it on the Computer with the Pickens Data Project. She can work with you in the mornings as she is a night student. Please give her a call and make arrangements for a time.

ANNE SHERIFF--Phone: 864-639-6387, Clayton Room Curator, will help in the evenings. Please give her a call and make arrangements for a time.

PICKENS DISTRICT SC DATA PROJECT 1997

If you have roots in Pickens District, SC and wish to contribute to the "Pickens District SC Data Project", please contact, Herman Geschwind, 1714 Clarendon Dr., Greensboro, NC 27410 E-Mail: Geschwind@aol.com or Joe Looper, 814 Roberto Dr., Newport News, VA 23601-2215 E-Mail JWLooper@aol.com. Pickens District SC Data Project Web Site Address: <http://home.aol.com/Oldp2> For corrections or additions: E-Mail: Geschwind@aol.com

The purpose of this Database is to provide a ready reference of people with roots in the Pendleton District of SC (Pickens, Anderson, Oconee) some in Greenville District, SC.

This is very much "work in progress" and not necessarily complete as too all possible family lines. To keep the database within manageable size, the intention is to list: Full name of individual, date and place born, date and place married, date and place died, where buried and occupation. Generally there will be links to ancestors and descendants and spouse ancestors and descendants. To keep the size down, we generally do not show source entries or source citations. Much of the material was contributed by fellow members and we are not in a position to validate contributions from various sources. The Database is for use of members of the Old Pendleton Chapter and NOT FOR COMMERCIAL USE.

Many thanks are extended to several fine gentlemen in their help with areas of my family research. David Youngblood, Herman Geschwind, Joseph Looper and most recently, W. (Bill) Powers on the "PORTER FAMILY." My father's entire end came from Pickens County, SC. Still researching the families of: William Berry CHILDRESS, Rev. Terry Freelin NELSON, William (Bill) WALDROP, Susan Louise LENDERMAN, Ruth Ann STEWART, and anything more on "STEPHENS and PORTER." Also an extended thanks to Dr. Charles Busha with information on Confederate ancestors in my family line.

Asa or Ace, HUDSON born ca 1836, SC m. Jane A. HASTIN/HASTINGS 15 Jan 1861.
Asa served in Co., E 2nd Cavalry Regiment, CSA. Widow Jane stated in her application for a pension in 1919, that she was born 9 Nov 1843. She died 14
Jan 1921 buried Cedar Grove Baptist Church, Laurens Co, SC. Jane stated her husband's name was John A. HUDSON and that he died 3 Dec 1889, Laurens Co.,
SC. This appears incorrect. Need parents place of birth & death date of Asa.

NOTE: by LC--Fred try finding a newspaper in Laurens 1889 to see if John Asa Hudson had an obit. Try calling the Laurens Co., Library. Also see if Jane has an obit in 1921 that might list her husband? She would have a death certificate. Also try funeral homes in Laurens.

LEE FAMILY: Study of the 1830 Census compiled by Anne Sheriff, T. Wilkinson, Lavinia Moore, Jay Young.

#1040 William LEE	Females
1 m (50-60) 1770-1780	1 f (70-80) 1750-1760 (a mother?)
1 m (15-20) 1810-1815	1 f (30-40) 1790-1800 (wife of William?)
1 m (10-15) 1815-1820	1 f (5-10) 1820-1825
1 m (5-10) 1820-1825	1 f (under 5) 1825-1830

#1899 Elisha LEE	Females
1 m (60-70) 1760-1770	1 f (60-70) 1760-1770 (Maranda?)
1 m (20-30) 1800-1810	1 f (20-30) 1800-1810
	1 f (20-30) 1800-1810

#439 Randolph LEE (Sr?)	Females
1 m. (40-50) 1780-1790	1 f (40-50) 1780-1790 (Nance Allison?)
1 m (15-20) 1810-1815 (Jr?)	1 f (20-30) 1800-1810
	1 f (15-20) 1810-1815
	1 f (10-15) 1815-1820
	1 f (5-10) 1820-1825
	2 f (u 5) 1825-1830

#1396 Ephriam LEE	Females
1 m (30-40) 1790-1800	1 f (20-30) 1800-1810
1 m (5-10) 1820-1825	1 f (5-10) 1820-1825
1 m (u 5) 1825-1830	1 f (u 5) 1825-1830

#436 John LEE	Females
1 m (20-30) 1800-1810	1 f (20-30) 1800-1810
1 m (u 5) 1825-1830	1 f (u 5) 1825-1830

The above listings were found in the 1830 census, while I was looking for the parents of my ancestor, Randolph/Randall LEE b. 1812 and 37 years old in the 1850 census of Pickens District, SC (Western Division, now Oconee Co)

There are only 5 households with Elisha LEE as the oldest male (1760-1770). The household of William LEE has the oldest female (1750-1760) Whether that female is the mother of his wife is unknown to me at this moment.

SPECULATION:...that Elisha (1760-1770) and his possible wife, Maranda___ (maybe Randolph?) is probably the father and/or grandfather of these LEES in Pickens Co., SC. Next in age are William (1770-1780) and Randolph (Sr?) at 1780-1790. Then Ephriam LEE (1790-1800) and John LEE (1800-1810).

In the 1850 Pickens Census (Western Division) I found Maranda Lee age 86 in household #107/111. Nance Lee is head of HH #623/656, while my ancestor, Randle LEE is listed as head of HH #386/385 age 37. I expect he could be the son listed as 15-20 in 1830 HH of Randolph LEE or William LEE. Either way I expect Elisha to be the possible earlier ancestors of all these LEE households. Does anyone have names to fit with children and grandchildren of Elisha, William, Randolph and Ephriam LEE? Does anyone have LEE information. Does anyone know of a LEE that married a RANDOLPH?

During the period 1778-1810 in VA there is found only one John Major who is not accounted for by VA records. This is the John Major of Henry Co., VA. Since John Perry Major, son of John Major who married Elizabeth? Rebecca or ? was born in 1775, so he says in the 1850 census of Anderson Co., SC. This would leave a period of about 3 years to account for another John Major. If another John Major existed he cannot at this time be accounted for in records of VA during 1778-1810. Prior to this period or time, say 1740-1770 there are a number of John Major men that are not accounted for in VA Records. However no records exist elsewhere of where they went that have been found to date.

4-e. (think should be 4-d.?) James Major m. Mary Ballard, Revolutionary War Soldier d. 1779\80 from wounds received in Rev. War. Data taken from probate of his will found in Charles City Co., VA records.

5-a. Ballard Major m. Ann Hillard: Ballard Major inherited most of James Major's land.

5-b. James Major to Richland Co., SC (this is based on known records of all James Major men in VA and Pearce Family of KY. Part of his family moves to TN after 1790 census of SC.)

5-c. John Major (a John and a James Major are found in Henry Co., VA.)

From 1778 to 1782\3 according to VA personal property records. Note: No other John Major is found in VA. During this time period that is not accounted for in this descendancy chart of Edward Major during this time frame) m. ? Rebecca/Elizabeth? Various people doing research on the Hendricks and Major family have tried to find proof of John Major's wife. No document has been found that gives his wife's name. Nora Field in her book Bowen, Nimmons and Fields claims John Major m. Elizabeth Epps d/o Richard Epps of Chesterfield Co., VA. Not true according to VA Archives data.

Elizabeth Epps married a Walker and died in VA. Her story that our William Major was a Revolutionary War Soldier from Brunswick Co., VA is also untrue according to VA Archives data. Note above William Major son of Edward Major who moved to MO: Samuel Gamewell Major said in his letters, located in South Carolinana Library, that he thought that John Major's wife first name was Rebecca. If you look at David Hendricks Sr. m. Sally Major's family you will find the first daughter named Rebecca and the first son named James after David Hendricks' father. Was Rebecca, their first daughter, named after Sally Major's mother?

6-a. Sally Major m. David Hendricks Jr.

6-b. John Perry Major m. Mary Marshall

These two children, Sarah Major and John Perry Major are unrefutable descendants of John Major due to documents in Newberry Co., SC records. Other Possible John Major Children: From Patti Major Bostick's Manuscript: Pattie Major Bostick, deceased has an unpublished manuscript that summaries our possible Major family connection in a fashion that seems to fit.

6-c. Eppes Major m. Susannah Teague

6-d. Joseph Major did not marry

6-e. Barnett Major d. at 15

6-f. Jane Major m. John Swinford

6-g. Elizabeth Major m. John Underwood

The even more elusive William Major Family: William Major m. Mary\Nancy Chandler children (from Holland family history)

Elizabeth Ellis (James says b. 1790 Edgefield Co SC in the 1850 Pickens Co., SC Census) f. Mary m. William Wayman Holland (H.D. Hendricks note: At one time or another, various researchers have attributed all the above Major children listed under John Major and William Major as being fathered by John Major)

5-d. Sarah Major m. Willcox 5-e. Elizabeth Major m. Gill 5-f. Mary Dancy Major 5-g. Martha Major 5-h. Christian Major

2-c. Robert Major

2-d. Martha Major

Ballard, James and John Major are mentioned in the probate 91789-93 Charles City Co., VA Court Records of James Major's will, died 1779/80 as legatees, James and John Major show in personal property tax records of Henry Co., VA in 1778-1782\3. From this point they seem to disappear. A James Major shows in Richland Co., SC and John Major shows in Newberry Co., SC in the 1790's. They seem the only Major men who fit the above age group and time frame to be the possible sons of James Major died 1779\80. No other John Major shows in records in VA. During this time frame that are not accounted for in some other family history.

near Liberty, S.C. and came regularly on preaching Sundays. Their daughter, Mrs. Nannie Kennemore and her husband, Mr. George and their two children also lived near the Rock Quarry. They walked to church every Sunday that we had preaching, a distance of about nine miles. They were faithful members. I can't remember all of them but most are buried here in the cemetery.

Rev. Lamar left in 1916. Following him was the Rev. T.E. Martin. His family consisted of his wife and five children. They did not want to live in town, so they rented the Mullinax place on Highway Eight. He only had the two churches, Fairview and Liberty Hill, so he farmed as a second job. He liked farm life and outdoor work so well, he didn't take work any more. Instead he moved to the mountains and ran a sawmill, later moving down near Columbia, S.C.

Mr. Lamar and Mr. Martin were both great revivalist and held at least two meetings a year at both churches. The Rev. Sam Haynes from Atlanta came up and held several meetings. Dr. George Brown, Rev. N.G. Bethea, Rev. Bates and several others from the North Carolina Conference came and held meetings. We enjoyed Dr. Brown very much. He took such unusual subject for his sermons. One I remember was, The Bed Too Short, The Cover Too Narrow, Isaiah 28:20. They were all good preachers.

In 1919 the Rev. J.L. Trollinger served as pastor. At conference in 1920, Rev. C.C. Linley was assigned as pastor. He was single and made his home with Herbert and Eunice Ellison. He was a good worker and did a wonderful work with the young people. The young people's organization was known as The Christian Endeavor. At times more than one hundred people were present for the meetings.

Rev. George Reynolds served as pastor in 1922. He lived in High Point, N.C. and came back and forth on the train. He owned his own home and had two daughters in school there, so he did not want to move.

Rev. G.C. Baker was sent to us in 1923. He had a second wife, two children by the first wife and two by the second. They resided in Greer. We at Fairview never saw his family. It was believed that they were in dire financial circumstances and in need of clothes to wear to church. Mrs. Ola Jones (Aunt Ola) went over to see them and found the report to be true. The Ladies Aid Society raised funds, bought material and made Mrs. Baker and the two girls two complete outfits and bought pants and shirts for the two boys. The Liberty Hill people bought shoes for the entire family and sweaters for the two boys, before they departed for conference.

At the conference of 1924, the Rev. E.G. Lowdermilk and his wife came and stayed with us until January of 1926, when he resigned to become Superintendent of the Methodist Children's Home in High Point, N.C.

In February the Rev. R.G. Koons came down for a try-out. He was not a member of the conference. Some of the members liked him and some did not. His family consisted of his wife and three children and they too resided in Greer. Rev. Koons was a great musician. He played a harp, beat a drum with his foot, and picked a guitar all at the same time. Mrs. Koons took sick and was very ill for several weeks and died in August of 1927. She was brought to Fairview for burial. After her death Rev. Koons carried his children to the Children's Home in High Point, N.C. Later he married a young girl and when the conference turned him down they came back to Easley to live. His wife left him and he took his children and went to Tennessee.

The next pastor was a single man, the Rev. H.G. Crutchfield. Mr. Crutchfield did a lot of visiting, walking every place he went. While he was with us Clarence Watson, the little son of Marshall and Pearl Watson, passed away. He conducted and sang at his funeral. Mr. Crutchfield's health was not very good while he was here so he did not take work the next year, instead he entered a T.B. Sanitorium and lived only a short time afterwards.

At the conference of 1928 the Rev. G.B. Ferree was assigned as our pastor. He, his wife and five children lived in Easley and served Fairview and Liberty Hill. While Mr. Ferree was our pastor there were several families of the Methodist Protestant faith living in Greenville. During this time they had a minister from Concord, N.C. to come and hold a tent meeting and organize a church in Greenville. The meeting was a success. Seventy five members were added. They planned to take over the Bunting property and build a church on the corner of Washington and Lloyd Streets. Mr. W.T. (Bill) Watson went over and obtained a court order to stop the procedure of taking over the property. Our delegate to conference in 1929 was Mr. League Davis from the Liberty Hill Church. Ruth (Mrs. J. Lee Poole) was the delegate from Greenville. I also went to conference and to visit Bertha who was in college at High Point. The conference was held in Greensboro, N.C. As we were going to conference Mr. Davis asked me about the petition being sent to conference from Fairview. I had not seen or heard about a petition, neither had my father. The next day at conference Dr. Taylor, President of the Conference, sent for me and showed me the petition. The petition stated that they would not support the church in anyway if they recognized the church in Greenville. He asked me if I knew the men who signed it. I told him that I did and that they would do what they said. I was very disappointed in them. Mr. Ferree was planning to return to our work. I went and talked with him and advised him not to return. I was very busy for the next few days as they would send preachers to talk with me about the work.

A Mr. Russell, who had come into conference from the Presbyterian Church agreed to take the work. He was to preach at Liberty Hill one Sunday and one Sunday night, at Fairview on the first and third Sundays. Liberty Hill gave the Greenville Church one Sunday and one Sunday night and they would also have prayer meeting on Wednesday night. Mr. Russell came and lived in Greenville, but came over every first and third Sunday to preach and every Wednesday to visit. He was one of the best preachers and most consecrated men I ever knew but he received no cooperation at Fairview.

Rev. M.C. Henderson was sent to be our pastor in 1930. He also lived in Greenville and stayed until the conference of 1932. He was followed by Rev. J.L. Love who came and stayed one year. He and his family resided in Easley.

From the conference of 1934 Rev. Robert Short was sent to us. He and his family also lived in Easley. On July 6, 1934 he performed the marriage ceremony of my daughter Helen to Knox B. Lamar of Burlington, N.C. Mr. Short stayed until the conference of 1935.

While he was here the Greenville property was sold and the money divided between the Liberty Hill Church and Fairview. At this time Mrs. Emily Hendrix Jameson gave the church a house and some land for a parsonage. The house was located on Highway Eight, where Mrs. Ruby Hunt now lives. The money from the sale of the Greenville property was used to remodel the house and our next pastor, the Rev. R.L. Vickery lived there. He was the father of the Rev. T.H. Vickery and the Rev. Robert Vickery, who became members of the South Carolina Conference.

While Mr. Vickery was our pastor six Sunday School rooms were added to the church. They were built with donations of labor and material. Mr. Dan Foster served as foreman.

Dr. T.M. Johnson came in 1936. He was the last pastor we had from the North Carolina Conference. His wife was deceased and his three children of age so he didn't need the parsonage. It was rented. The parsonage was made to the church as long as it was used as a parsonage, then it was to go to Mrs. Ethel Nalley (Mrs. T.B.). After it was rented it burned. There was no insurance, so the church lost the land and the money it received from the Greenville property.

In the meantime unification came into being and was voted upon. The church was somewhat divided again. Though Fairview voted almost unanimously against it, it passed and went into effect in 1940. Dr. Johnson stayed on and served Fairview and Liberty Hill until the conference of 1941.

Dr. Johnson made his home, while he was here, with Mr. and Mrs. T.B. Nalley and family. He did a wonderful work while he was here. He was never idle. He set the water oaks and kept them watered, which now shade the front of the church. He visited not only his members but the poor and unchurched as well. He was always at Sunday School for the devotional and taught a Sunday School class most every Sunday. In his honor one of our present classes bears his name. He married Bertha and Alvin Maw on June 19, 1938. He was very good to my father, Robert F. Wyatt during his illness and last days on earth and when he passed away conducted his funeral on September 27, 1939.

Our connection with the Liberty Hill Church lasted one hundred and eight years and connected several families in the two churches. J. Lee Poole married Ruth Wyatt on April 18, 1906. Albert Foster married Ernestine Compton, June 5, 1917. Henry Nalley married Edith McClimons, July 7, 1918. Arthur Nalley, their son, married Esther Compton, June 17, 1940.

The year 1941 was a very trying one for us. It was so confusing trying to get accustomed to the change brought about by unification. Everything was different. In the Methodist Protestant Church we stood for communion. There was no official board. We had trustees to take care of the buildings and stewards to take care of the finances. The stewards each had a list of members which they visited at least four times a year. Among those serving so faithfully in this capacity were J. Wilmer Smith, Marshall Watson, J. Newton Henderson and my father. When his health began to fail I was elected in his place. Mrs. T.J. Watson (Ruth) was also elected about the same time. I had an unusually long route to cover. I went to Liberty on to Pickens, through the Cedar Rock section of the county to Dacusville and back to Easley and generally collected $12.50 a trip. The ones who came regularly to church turned their contributions over to the chairman of the Board of Stewards, he in turn, turned it over to the pastor on salary. All elections were held in church conference and all church members over eighteen years of age were allowed to vote. Most of the members were farmers and all other assessments were paid in the fall of the year.

We were placed on the North Easley Charge in 1941-42 and the Rev. T.D. George was our pastor. The Charge consisted of the Glenwood Mill, Antioch and Dacusville churches. Our services were cut to one service a month and we didn't see much of the preacher who lived at Glenwood. Some of our oldest and most faithful members were still upset over unification.

In 1943 the Rev. T.D. Moore served this charge. He resided in Easley. Soon after getting settled in he had a very serious heart attack and was not able to preach. We had substitutes for the rest of the year.

We were taken off the North Easley Charge in 1944 and placed with Liberty. Our pastor was the Rev. W.W. Pendleton. He was with us only a few months, then resigned and went into service. He was a young man with a wife and two small children. In service he served as a chaplain in the army and was stationed in California. He lived only a few months after going into service.

Rev. Voight O. Taylor came and finished the year of 1944 and stayed until the conference of 1947. During his pastorate it was decided to remodel the church. The plan was to raise the church and put a basement under it for Sunday School rooms. The plan didn't work out, so it was decided to start a building fund for a new church. Rev. Taylor did a good work while he was pastor. The membership increased greatly. Among those united in marriage by Rev. Taylor were Annie Lou Pepper and Milton David Able on January 7, 1944; Fannynett Freeman and Luther Powell, June 14, 1944 and Sara Henderson and Ralph P. Barnett, June 27, 1945.

Rev. C.D. Goodwin came in 1947 and stayed only one year. Rev. J.L. Carter came in 1948, Rev. Glenn Smith came in November of 1949 and served until December 31, 1951. These pastors lived in the Liberty parsonage as we were still on the charge with Liberty.

Mr. Smith resigned at Fairview and we were placed on the North Easley Charge again and the Rev. J.L. Frazier became our pastor. It was during his pastorate that the present church building was erected. He delivered the last sermon in the old church on May 7, 1951. On May 8, 1951 the building committee composed of G.B. Nalley, B.C. Henderson, J.M. Carpenter, Willie S. Brown and Bertha Maw met with the contractors. We had in the building fund $14,583.51. The contract was let for $27,000 and the old church building to N & W Construction Company, with Mr. C.D. Wyatt as contractor and Mr. H.L. McInden of Greenville as the architect. The contractors began to remove the old church building that day.

came. They lived with the Pitts and Mrs. Porter went with them to Summerville.

Evelyn Porter was born in Pickens, South Carolina, March 9, 1859; died in Bourbon August 12, 1933; married Lewis M. Honea, Jan. 17, 1883. Lewis Honea had come to this vicinity from his birth place of Anderson, South Carolina. They settled on the old Zed Nixon place (present Jim Honea place) but Mr. Honea formed a partnership with Charley Rohrer in a prosperous general grocery and merchandise store in Bourbon, located where the present cap factory stands.

Lewis Honea was born Feb. 15 1862; died at Bourbon, Sept. 3, 1943. Mrs. Honea, in her later life spent much of her time with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Cresswell. The Cresswells lived on the old place during the teens until Jim Honea took it over. Here she passed her time enjoying her grandchildren and weaving beautiful rugs on the old hand made loom she had used for years. She was a life long member of the Forest Hill church. She did much to keep alive the old customs of the South.

Children of Lewis and Evelyn (Porter) Honea:

1. James, born October 20, 1884; (See Below)
2. Bunch, born December 18, 1885; married Joe Cresswell, son of John and Martha (Troutt) Cresswell. (See Cresswell family).
3. Nancy, married Dr. C. A. Scott of St. Louis, Missouri.
4. Grace, born 1894; d. Aug. 12, 1962; married William Roedemeier of Bourbon; they settled at Moscow Mills, Missouri.
5. Carrie, married Ray Schulze, son of William Schulze. They had one daughter: Lois Schulze, who married Leslie Cahill, a teacher of St. James, Missouri.
6. Sophie, m. Oliver Morton. He and his brother, Ira, who married Mae Adams ran the old Honea-Rohrer store after the founders sold out.

James Honea, only son of Lewis and Evelyn Honea, born October 20, 1884, was reared in Forest Hill and after spending several years working at various places and occupations. For many years he followed railroading and, for a while, was fireman out of Edwardsville, Illinois, he returned to his father's place and has made it his home until his death, Jan. 14, 1965.

He married October 25, 1922 at Rolls, Mrs. Martha Winkelmann Dittmeyer, born Sept. 22, 1889. She is the only daughter in a family of six sons of Karl August and Marie Magdalene (Klemm) Winkelmann. Mr. Winkelmann was a fine example of the later German immigration which brought so much stability to this part of Crawford County. He was born in Saxony February 27, 1851 and married there in 1872. In 1881 the family, which by then included three sons, came to New York where they lived three years. On Jan. 2, 1884 they arrived at Bourbon where they settled on their farms north of town. They were always industrious respected, and influential in this vicinity. Mr. Winkelmann died here October 17, 1920. Mrs. Windelmann, born in Niederpoeterritz, Germany, November 17, 1850, died in 1933.

Mrs. Honea had one child from her first marriage; Frances (born November 1, 1910) who married August 3, 1931 Carl Larson of Forest Hill. He was the son of August Larson, originally from Sweden, who settled on the old Stewart and Alexander places. For the last forty years August Larson has been one of Forest Hill's most successful farmers.

Children of James and Martha (Winkelmann) Honea:

- A. James, born February 17, 1924; married Zula Ware; killed in an industrial accident in St. Louis, Aug. 6, 1962. Three children: James, David, and Debra
- B. Lewis, born March 13, 1925; married Pearl Gargus; five sons, resides at Redondo Beach, California.

THE JOHN R. STEWART FAMILY

John Rufus Stewart was born in Pickens County, South Carolina, January 26, 1849; died December 2, 1901. He was son of Robert and Isabella Stewart and a grandson of Abraham Stewart. He married Margaret ("Kitty") Lewis, born August 10, 1854; died (In Webb City, Missouri,) about 1925, who was daughter of Jim and Polly (Stewart) Lewis.

Jim Lewis was a brother to Jake Lewis, (father of James K. Lewis). Polly Stewart was a sister to Catherine Stewart, who married Jake Lewis. Thus the children of Jim and Jake Lewis were double cousins. And, to give those who like to decipher relationships something to do, they should know that John R. Stewart was also first cousins to Green Stephens; Mrs. Green Stephens was also a cousin to John R. Stewart; so, what relation are the Stewart and Stephens children?
Children of John R. and Kitty (Lewis) Stewart:

1. Lula A. born August 11, 1874; died March 10, 1902, she taught the 1899 and 1901 terms of Forest Hill School.
2. Rowland
3. Joseph
4. Cress
5. Howard

The family came to Forest Hill with Green Stephens in 1874 and settled near the Alexanders place. By this time the richer lands were already taken—but through economy, planning, and hard work they developed a pleasant home. After the death of Mr. Stewart and Lula, the family removed to Joplin where they remained.

THE B. F. SMITH and ZACH SMITH FAMILIES

Benjamin Franklin Smith was born in Greenville District, S.C. March 26, 1835; died in Reedley, California, April 9, 1907. Rebecca Frances Smith, his wife was born in Pickens District, July 28, 1839; died in Reedley, May 30, 1915. She was the eldest daughter of Rev. Harvey Kenamore and Mahinda (Miller) Kenamore. She was of English, Irish and German ancestry. Her mother died at ninety-six. There were six other children in the Kenamore family. //

"Uncle Frank," as he was familiarly known in Missouri, was the son of John and Nancy Smith. This couple were married March 10, 1820. In marked contrast to present-day American families, in 1841, their thirteenth child was born, making nine sons and four daughters. Of these there were no deaths, and no invalids until they all grew to maturity, married, and had families. John and Nancy Smith were intelligent people and brought up their large family with Christian integrity. John Smith was a planter, a school teacher, and a Baptist.

The Smith family of South Carolina are descended from five brothers who came to Bull Run, Virginia, just before the Revolutionary War. Their names were, James, Fleming, Thomas, John and Charles. They were of English descent, though their father sailed from Wales and their mother was from France. Her maiden name was Fleming. These five sons were fathers of very numerous families that spread into North Carolina and Georgia. All were Baptists of prominence and the men, usually farmers, often times represented their localities in the legislature. Many were educated at Furman University at Greenville. T.S. 221 Co. Rec.

"Nancy Foster Smith was a relative of the Cleveland family from whom later came the President. As a child of nine years, the writer remembers Grandmother's gentle quiet ways and her loving caresses, also Grandfather's jolly laugh. He loved to tease and joke as Mrs. J.K. Lewis can tell you.

"B.F. Smith, Zachariah, and Eliza (Mrs. James King) were three of the youngest of this numerous family. B.F. Smith served four years in McLaw's Division of the Confederate Army. He was in Col. Kershaw's Brigade, second regiment and he spent almost his entire time driving a commissary wagon up and down the Shenandoah Valley. The writer didn't know what a father was, for she was one of four small children at the time her father left. Upon his return she asked, "Why don't that man go away? He's got all the wood chopped."

"In 1870 B.F. Smith brought his family in wagons to Crawford, County. The journey west was a great adventure especially to Landrum and Barnett. Main highways led us through principal cities and towns. We crossed the Mississippi at Helena, (Arkansas) on a steam ferry. There was a mule colt in the caravan and he stood by the front team until the ferry struck the bank. Then he lunged to the shore. We made camp just outside the city of Helena and some one stole our dog. The boys sought him with many threats in mind but they never found Old Watch. The party arrived safely at Uncle Zach's on Christmas eve, having been on the way since October 10th.

"From that day on B.F. Smith was one of the leading citizens of Forest Hill. He settled on the Weissenborn place. He was prominent in school and church. He was judge of Crawford County in 1879, 1880, 1883 and 1885. At one time he taught a term at Forest Hill. He had also taught before the War in South Carolina. He was only seventeen when he taught his first term."

Seven children of B.F. and Rebecca (Kenamore) Smith:

I. "Landrum, the oldest son, born January 5, 1857, is remembered as a fine student. He finished Forest Hill and, with the Hamlins and Bartons, attended Salem Academy. From here he went to Normal School at Cape Hiraudeau. Here he married Miss. Rebecca Peyton Burford. He was the first of his family to go to California. At that time the competition between the railroads was so keen that he bought a ticket from Tipton, Missouri, to San Francisco for one dollar. He secured a school in Kingsburg, California, and then sent for his wife and baby. After this term of teaching, he took up pharmacy in Whittier. He then became an orchardist and grew oranges and lemons. He was drowned in the Shepherd River in northern California when on a trip to Crater Lake, July 5, 1928." The family remained in California. There were two children.

1. Col. Richard Landrum Smith who was an engineer and spent several years in France supervising the building of the U.S. embassy there. After retirement, he settled in Whittier, California.

2. Leonard Franklin Smith, born died in 1916.

II. "Barnett Algood Smith, born March 29, 1858, married Miss Mary Ann McBride of Leasburg. She was daughter of Isaac and Jane McBride who had come from Red Bud, Illinois. He also went to California and settled in Whittier where he raised oranges. Here they built a bungalow and here, in 1931, they celebrated their "Golden Wedding". He died January 10, 1949.

Three children of Barnett and Mary (McBride) Smith:

1. Reba, who married John Marion Randall and lives with her family at the foot of Mt. Howe. He is a descendant of General Francis Marion of Revolutionary fame.

2. Frances, born in California, has but recently retired after a long and successful teaching career. She lives at Laguna Beach. (Unmarried.)

3. Marian Barnett, born 1905, who married George Robert Harman O'Brien 1903, a grandson of Forest Hill and Leasburg's famous teacher and reformer Moses Harman.

III. "Isabel Nancy born February 5, 1866, was also educated at Forest Hill and she was hired to teach the term of 1890 but after a month of teaching she was stricken with typhoid fever and William Barton finished the term. However she taught the next year without any interruption or trouble. To use her words: 'I liked the teaching, but not the disciplining'. In 1900 she married Thomas Moffat, a music teacher from St. Louis, and they left at once for San Francisco where he was to serve as organist and song leader at the Baptist Chapel Emmanuel. After two years he left evangelistic work and settled on a fruit farm in Fresno, California. When the oldest daughter was ready for college the family moved to McMinnville, Oregon". Isabel (Smith) Moffat died April 1949. Thomas Moffat was born March 9, 1857; died May 1944. They were parents of two children:

OLD PENDLETON CHAPTER OF THE SC GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY LINAGE CHART BOOK has been printed and has been mailed out to those that placed an order. It will now be listed in the books for sale list. Thanks to all who made the printing possible. We have about 40 books left.
