QUERIES

Ph: 502-838-6861 E-Mail: madams@apex.net

My second great grandfather, John BOYD, married Jane MONTGOMERY in Newberry Co., SC in 1827.
William BOYD signed as Security for the marriage. The affidavit was found in the Robert MONTGOMERY box in Newberry. Her uncle was appointed guardian after the death of her father Thomas MONTGOMERY. Her mother was Ann SPENCE, the daughter of Andrew SPENCE and Mary CALDWELL. The Robert MONTGOMERY family (his wife was Esther SPENCE sister to ANN) left SC and went to TN as well as Ann Spence MONTGOMERY and John and Jane Montgomery BOYD. The BOYDS went on to Western KY where he had land grants. Who were the parents of this John BOYD? He was born 1807 in KY according to all census records. Their first child, William Spence BOYD was born in SC. John and Jane BOYD are buried at Beech Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Graves Co. KY. I would share any research on this family for any information as to his parentage.

I am searching for the dates that Andrew SPENCE and his family came to SC from Ireland. What port, what ship and information about the family would be appreciated. He is supposed to have come about 1772 from Ahoghol, Ireland but I have no proof. I was in Ahoghol, Antrim Co., Ireland recently and found SPENCE still living in Ahoghol and they are Presbyterian. I was not able to get to church records at the time. Did they have to take an oath of allegiance somewhere at that time in SC? If so where?

I am researching John COX m. Sarah d. 1825. He lived on a 300 acre Plantation located where the Savannah River is joined by Generostee Creek. The Mills Atlas plat of the Pendleton District, SC surveyed in 1820 shows "Coxes Mill" at that location. I am interested in contacting anyone researching John COX.

Seeking info on Harrison BLASSINGAME who was age 70 in 1850 Anderson District, SC Census living in household of Thomas BLASSINGAME. Has been assumed it is his brother, but recent evidence on Thomas' siblings, etc. shows nothing about a Harrison.

Seeking to establish fact that Mary Obedience BLASSINGAME, daughter of Robert Easley BLASSINGAME and 1st wife Nancy BOWEN was married to Samuel Andrew BARR son of Leroy and Matilda Ann JONES BARR. Mary Obedience had brother, Robert Easley BLASSINGAME Jr who married Mary Elizabeth BARR also d/o Leroy and Matilda JONES BARR.

Who is Mary BLASSINGAME b. 1832 Pickens SC in the 1860 census with presumed daughter Martha BLASSINGAME b. Pickens, SC 1856 living in the household of Samuel BAR. It is believed she was widow of Samuel BLASSINGAME or Thomas BLASSINGAME both of whom died ca 1856 of typhoid fever. These two men were also sons of Robert Easley BLASSINGAME and Nancy BOWEN.

Died at his residence in Mount Ida, Montgomery County, AR on the 14th September last, Dr. John Blasingame ROBINSON, in the 28th year of his age. Dr. ROBINSON was the eldest son of Dr John ROBINSON, of Pendleton District, SC: long and favorably known as one of the most able and skillful physicians of his age. He acquired his profession in the State of SC and some few years ago, removed to Arkansas, where he married the daughter of Dr. A.B. CLINGMAN and at the time of his death, was engaged in an active and lucrative business. He was an open-jearted, generous, high minded young man, and bid fair to become an ornament to his profession, and a most useful citizen. A wise Provicence has, however, removed him from the scene of his labor and usefulness, and thus left many friends in the State of his adoption to mourn his loss.

Searching for birthdate of Dr John Blasingame Robinson. Does anyone out there have the Robinson Family Bible? Family record was quoted when Eliza ROBINSON nee Blassingame applied for an 1812 widow's pension.

I am looking for info about Alexander McKINNEY, believed to have been married to Ellena BARR. Ellena b. 12 Dec 1809. In one of the newsletters was listed the will of Susannah McMAHAN w/o Peter. In her will she refers to Alexander McKINNEY'S son Robert Phelix/Felix. Also Alex had two other sons, Samuel Van and James Oliver McKINNEY. I found an Alexander McKINNEY on the 1850 Anderson Census, with his three sons, and a Martha M. McKINNEY about 23. I don't know if this is a daughter of if he remarried, or if this is even the Alex I am looking for?

I know one of the BARR girls married an Alex McKINNEY, and the youngest one, Bernice BARR m. Robert McKINNEY. I don't know if these two men are related. Also I have always thought that Susannah McMAHAN was the d/o Alexander OLIVER. I am not sure of this, but the name appears on his will, page 69 Pendleton District and Anderson Co Wills, Estate etc. I am hoping some one knows about these families and can enlighten me. Also I have wondered who this Perry McKINNET is mentioned in Susannah's will as "Friend." I have an obit on Alonzo Perry McKINNEY'S wife, but I am still in the dark as to who they are. Any information would be greatly appreciated.

I am trying to locate some living descendents of Walker Alonzo SMITH b. 7 June 1878 d. 12 Feb 1919. Walker was married to Mossie STEGALL b. 13 Sept 1879 d. 27 Feb 1968. This couple is buried in Rock Springs Church Cemetery, Easley, Pickens Co., SC. Their children were: Cleo SMITH b. 1905 m. COOPER, Harold SMITH b. 1907, Velma SMITH b. 1910, Franklin? Grayson SMITH, Kermit SMITH, Bruce SMITH and Pauline "Polly" SMITH. I found the family on the 1910 census, but I could not find the widow and children on the 1920 census anywhere. I would appreciate any information.

Seeking info on John MASTERS b. 1818 married Nancy Rebecca McJUNKIN b. 1838. They produced a daughter, Martha MASTERS (1879-1967) who married Gideon Archeleas LYNCH (1874-1969). Gideon came from Little Eastatoe community and Nancy Rebecca probably from around the Table Rock area of Pickens Co., SC. I am interest in learning about these MASTERS and McJUNKIN families.

Silas Abram Clayton MARTIN, AKA. (1875-1939) of Oconee or Pickens Co., SC married Elizabeth Ida WINCHESTER (1875-1967) of Pickens Co., SC. Martin's father was William Waddell "Billy" MARTIN (1829-1896) who may have moved into the Seneca area from Anderson or Abbeville Counties of SC. Sarah Elizabeth MILLS (1830-1910) was the wife of Mr Billy. Silas Clayton MARTIN ran a grocery store on "Ram Cat Alley" in Seneca for a number of years in the early 1900's. My research has halted at this point.

In reply to my article on Benjamin HOLDER in the May Newsletter:

My grandad Thompson's DC indicated his mother's name was Sallie Dillard. From the records of Secona Baptist Church, near Pickens, SC I have learned that Ben HOLDER had been dismissed by the church in 1844, when he was nineteen. An elderly great grandson said this was for getting some young woman in the family way. Now on page three is a Bible record of some DILLARD family. There is listed a Sarah DILLARD born in 1844 or 1845, which caught my attention. Benjamin HOLDER did not marry the mother of his child born out of wedlock. Instead he later married Malinda FERGUSON and their first born was named Sallie. I have concluded this was not the mother of Harry THOMPSON. Can anyone help on this family.

DEAR LINDA CHEEK

DEAR LINDA.

I WAS PLEASED TO READ TWO THINGS IN JANUARY 1998 ISSUE. ONPAGE ABOUT NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH. THAT IS MY LEWIS FENDLEY WHO WAS PASTOR IN 1841; HE ALSO HELPED START CONEROSS BAPTIST CHURCH. I HAVE HIS OBITUARY FROM A PAPER IN THE OCONEE AREA LISTING HIS DEATH AS JUNE 3 ,1851 BUT NO MENTION WHERE H IS GRAVE IS LOCATED.

THE SECOND THING ON PAGE 4 OF THE MARRIAGES YOU HAVE TWO OF LEWIS 'S SONS- THE TWINS- BUT THEIR WIVES NAMES ARE WRONG. WM VIRGIL (MY GREAT-GRANDFATHER) MARRIED MARY ELIVIRA MAHALA LUCINDA SMITH. HER MOTHER NAMED HER FOR HER 4 SISTERS. I HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO PROVE HER PARENTS. I BOUGHT YOUR BOOK ON THE SMITH FAMILY, BUT AM PROBABLY OVERLOOKING SOMETHING. WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR HELP IN EITHER OF THESE PROBLEMS.

JOHN LEWIS FENDLEY MARRIED CALONA- CALONAY COBB. THIS I HAVE PROVEN ON CENSUS AND NUMEROUS DEEDS.

I ALSO CANNOT FIND VERIFICATION OF RICHARD G. FENDLEY, LEWIS 'S SON AS TO WHEN HE DIED. HE WAS ON THE 1860 CENSUS- THEN NOT ON THE 1870. HANNAH L. DICKSON WHO WAS HIS WIFE IS BURIED BY HER BROTHER MARSHALL AND SOMEOTHERS OF HER FAMILY, SO WONDER IF HE WAS KILLED IN THE CIVIL WAR- I HAVE NOT FOUND HIS RECORD. WOULD LIKE ANY INFO ON HIM ALSO.

I ENJOY YOUR NEW LETTER TREMENDOUSLY AND WILL BE ENCLOSING MY CHECK FOR ANOTHER YEAR. IF ANY OF THESE QUESTIONS ARE KNOWN WOULD BE SO GLAD TO HEAR FROM YOU OR OTHERS.

AGAIN , THANKS A LOT- KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK, AND IF ANY OF YOUR BOOKS HAVE WHAT I NEED , WILL BE GLAD TO BUY THEM. I HAVE THE TWO OCONEE CEMETERY SURVEYS, VOL 1 AND VOL. 2. AS I SAID I HAVE YOUR BOOK ON THE SMITH FAMILY.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH-

From Kevin Adams--314 Poplar St., Seneca, S.C. 29678

In the early 1800's a Mr. Adams married a woman named Mary. I do not know the Adams man's first name, or Mary's maiden name. They had 4 sons whose names in order of birth are, John M. Adams, Jasper Newton Adams, Thomas Jefferson Adams, and Richard L. Adams. John was the oldest, but I do not know when he was born or died. Jasper was born June 15, 1831 and died May 2, 1908. Thomas was born Aug. 10, 1833 and died November 1913. Richard was the youngest, but I don't know when he was born or died. After the four sons were born, Mr. Adams must have died and his wife, Mary, took the four sons and was traveling through Oconee near the Chauga River where she came on a Bachelor by the name of Mr. William Barton. She eventually married him, but had no children by him.

Mr. Barton left his land to her and her four Adams sons when he died in 1863. The land was near the Chauga River and Ioxaway Creek area outside of Westminister on what is now N. Jenkins Bridge Rd. John M. Adams and many of his descendants remained in this area. Jasper lived here for a while and then moved to Coffee Rd. outside Westminister where he raised a large family. Thomas Jefferson moved to the Unity Church Area and many of his descendants are buried at Unity Baptist. Richard eventually left the area and went somewhere out West. Jasper, Thomas, and Richard all three fought in the Civil War for the South. Jasper and thomas were both injured. Many of the Adams are Baptist.

It is from Jasper Newton Adams which I descend. Jasper had many descendants, but for now I will stick to my straight descension only. Jasper had a son William B. Adams known as "Uncle Billy" or "Billy" Adams. William B. Adams had a son Clifton Freeman Adams who moved from Westminister to Seneca. Clifton Freeman Adams had a son Clay William Adams. Clay William Adams had a son Michael William Adams. Michael William Adams had a son Kevin Clay Adams which is me.

Jasper had a large fram outside Westminister on which he is buried. William B. Adams farmed outside Westminister. Clifton Freeman Adams owned and ran the Seneca Marble and Granite Works, Adams-Smith Chevrolet of Seneca, and King's Cleaners of Seneca. He owned five large frams around the county and various rental properties in Seneca. He had his own gospel radio show called the "Adams' Hour" on the Seneca radio staion in the '50's. Clifton Freeman was also Mayor of Seneca at one time. Clay William Adams started Oconee Tire Co. in Seneca and then sold it and started Oconee Concrete Co. in Seneca. Many of Clifton's sons and grandsons became successful businessmen in Seneca.

I have volumes more information on the descendants of John M. Adams, Jasper Newton Adams, and Thomas Jefferson Adams. I know little on Richard L. Adams. I can snswer any specific question and intent to print some type of book within the next ten years. What no one seems to know is who the Adams father of John, Jasper, Thomas, and Richard was nor where he and his family lived before he died (if he died) and Mary came to Oconee. It is also unknown where Mary Adams Barton and William Barton are buried. I have asked nearly 200 people about this and have spent countless hours in libraries and cemeteries all to no end. There are many stories about where Mary Barton was traveling from and to. However, none seem to match. It is possible that some Adams already in Oconee were relatives of her husband. I do not know any definite Adams history back past Mary Adams Barton. I hope that you will place the story of Mr. Adams, Mary Adams Barton, Willim Barton, John Jasper, Thomas and Richard in your newsletter and that we can get a response. Please contact me if you find any fact or story at all.

Thank you, Kevin Adams.

Don't Let ZIP Zap You

Whenever you are exchanging computer files with your genealogy correspondent, chances are good that the file that you receive, be it on-line or as a diskette, will be in a compressed format, known as a ZIP file. The tipoff is that these files all have the file name extension .ZIP. Let us examine what this is all about and how to deal with ZIPs.

The idea behind a compressed format is very much the way we deal with liquids such as orange juice, milk, coffee or eggs. Common to these is that they contain better than 90% water. When transportation is scarce or expensive, a good way to ship these products is to extract the water and ship the solids which will weigh a lot less and take up a lot less space. At the destination, just add water and stir and now again we have milk or orange juice, etc., almost as good as the original. The same also applies to computer files, both program and data files. Instead of water they contain repetitive and redundant bit patterns which can be extracted and later added back to make the files fully functional again.

In the case of computer files, the compaction and extraction process makes use of mathematical formulas which were discovered by three mathematicians in Israel several decades ago. Being pure scientists and not very business-minded, they failed to take out a patent for their discovery. If they could have charged royalties every time files are compressed and de-compressed, they probably could be as wealthy as Bill Gates. Such is life!

Much as it is much more economical to ship milk or egg powder or instant coffee, much can be gained by compressing files prior to uploading them electronically or mailing them with diskettes. Here is an example: The Old Pendleton Database as a GEDCOM file at present takes up roughly 31,000,000 bytes. Since a diskette will hold around 1,500 bytes, this means to mail the file to someone would take roughly 20 diskettes. Quite a package and some hefty postage. The same file compressed into ZIP format will be slightly more than 5,000,000 bytes or only four diskettes. In our example, 25,000,000 bytes are repetitive and redundant bit patterns or the equivalent of water. Put another way to download a 31,000,000 byte file requires roughly 180 minutes, the same file in ZIP format only 30. I think these examples demonstrate the value of shipping compressed files. Is there a downside to the ZIP format? Absolutely not. The compression and decompression process makes heavy use of error checking bytes to assure that whatever was extracted will be added back to prevent data loss. If a ZIP file uncompresses, you can be sure that you have 100% of the original data back. [There is always a possibility that a file can be damaged in transit, be it electronically or in the mail but that has nothing to do with the compression/decompression process.]

Before a ZIP file can be used, it must be decompressed, so how do we do that? A very popular program is PKUNZIP.EXE. It is a very small, 28K program that has been around for a number of years and is a shareware program. It can be found on the Internet in a number of places when you search for it. Once downloaded, install it in the same directory where most of your program files are located. Good candidates are C:\DOS or C:\Windows [either way, this is to ensure that Pkunzip will be in the 'path' and readily accessible.]

PKUNZIP is a DOS-level product and does not have the pretty and userfriendly interface of Windows. The "help file" for PKUNZIP can be invoked by typing PKUNZIP /?. To decompress a file let us assume that the file is stored in a directory called C:\TEMP and the file is called COUSINS.ZIP. The commands at the C:\ prompt then will be as follows: PKUNZIP C:\TEMP\COUSINS.ZIP. Now press Enter and in a few seconds you will have COUSINS.GED or whatever was lurking behind COUSINS.ZIP decompressed in the C:\TEMP directory. The ZIP file also will still be there and once you are satisfied that the GED works properly, the ZIP file can be deleted.

To create a ZIP file takes a program called PKZIP.EXE. What was commented above also applied to PKZIP. The command line to compress COUSINS.GED would be: PKZIP C:\TEMP\COUSINS.ZIP COUSINS.GED.

Both PKUNZIP and PKZIP can do many more things as the "help file" will show. Here is an example of one of these options: Assume we want to zip the Old Pendleton Database onto diskettes for mailing. Remember that even as a compressed file the GED is much larger than a diskette will hold. PKZIP allows for "disk spanning" which means the file will occupy as many diskettes as it will take without "Disk Full" error. The command line in this case is: PKZIP -& A:\OPD.ZIP OPD.GED. The "minus ampersand" is what is known as a command line switch and there are many both for PKZIP and PKUNZIP.

For those who would rather not fool with the DOS prompt and command line switches, a Windows program [shareware] called WinZIP will hide all the arcanae behind a familiar Windows interface. WinZIP will install into the File Manager or Explorer. Highlight a ZIP file and double click and WinZIP will kick in with a host of menu items to handle decompressing [extracting]. Compressing a file using WinZIP is just about as easy.

could send one of the boys for them. I told him I hadn't come for any foolishness and would have them or his hide.

"He asked for a chair and started off to get one, but I ordered him to stand where he was. He then asked me for a dry pair of socks and I let him send and get them. I then told him I wanted my money. He asked how much it was. I said, 'You know how much you stole from me, go and get it.' He said, 'I have a check on the bank for $100, you can have that, it is all the money I have and you can take my horses. I said, 'I don't want your horses I want my own and I won't have your check. You took my money away from me, pay it back and I will go.

He offered to send Mrs Barton to Easley to get the money, and I said all right. He then said I could go to his stable and take his horses. I replied that I was no horse thief and did not propose to go near his stable; he could go and bring them and give them to me in the presence of those witnesses if he desired to pay me for what he took from me wrongfully. He took two negroes with him, and I told them not to touch the horses. He brought them out and all who saw them said that neither was as good as mine, but it was the last chance, so I took them. He called a man who lived near him to witness that he gave up the horses freely, as I had told him that I wouldn't take them on any other terms.

"I told him he had to pay Amos also six dollars he had taken from him the night of our capture and he said he had no money to pay him with. Mrs Barton said there was some loose silver in the house and she went to get it and counted out five dollars and gave it to Amos. He had lost his wages in my service, so I paid him the remaining dollar afterwards out of my pocket.

"Barton then brought out a jug of whiskey and offered to treat the crowd. Both Mr and Mrs Barton drank a little to show that it was all right and one or two of the boys drank with them. I could not drink his whiskey after all that had passed between us, but I had some of my own and the rest of the boys drank it with me.

"Mrs Barton then went on to Easley Station with us and she and I talked together all the way. She is a good woman and I was never so sorry for any one in my life as I was for her. She said they were broken up completely and had nothing to live on or to work with. When we got to Easley she had the check cashed and gave me one hundred dollars. I had been thinking of what she told me on the road so I told her never mind about the eighty-six dollars; she might have that. It was not the money that I had cared for, I only didn't want to be robbed and abused.

"A crowd had collected at the station by this time and she was afraid to go home by herself. I sent one of my friends to keep her company and told her to keep the horse to help make bread for her and her children. She did not want to take it as she said I would come back on her husband for it. I told her that I would not but that I didn't want to hear of him on any more raids. She was satisfied and went off.

"I bought 5 gallons of whiskey at Easley Station and treated the whole crowd that had collected there. It looked like a regiment, and I didn't know there were half that number of men at the station. While they were drinking, I saw Moore, one of the men who had helped to capture me, standing at a corner and some asked me to treat him too. I called to him and invited him to join us. I said, 'Hello Lieutenant, come up and drink with me.' He said he wouldn't come and I told him I would bring him and turned my horse to go after him. He said, 'All right, I will come.' I said, 'I paid my own money for this whiskey, it is not stolen, come and drink with me.' He refused again, but I made him take two drinks.

"Amos Ladd said to him. 'You were the man who tied me. Do you remember what you said when you did it?' Moore said,

'No, I don't remember.' Amos replied, 'You said to me you have got the best man hold of you you ever saw, and yet you were the first man to run!' This turned the laugh on Moore and soon after we rode off. Barton went on one raid after this; Moore never went on another."

OTHER EVENTS OF 1877

For the next thirteen months, from January 1877 to March 1878, Redmond was not directly involved in any other raids on those who tried to capture him. There were no warrants issued for him in relation to his encounter with Barton. Occasionally his name was attached to this or that event, but mostly these were just rumors. As best as can be determined, he only went about his business of buying and selling whiskey. He also developed a romantic interest in Adeline Ladd, Amos's sister.

The Ladd homestead was about a half mile north of Sunset, South Carolina along side a creek which ran into the Little Eastatœ river. It was a little valley. The parents were Thile and Millie Ladd and Thile has apparently died before 1877. Amos Ladd lived with his mother and sister and a brother, Solathiel. Some two miles north, over on the other side of Horsegap Mountain, was Eastatœ Valley and Reedy Cove [now Twin Falls]. Another two or three miles north was Rocky Bottom and Laurel Valley where they may have had a cabin or some of their relatives lived. It was in this area that Redmond spent some of his time.

But the news reporting during the rest of 1877 and the first few months of 1878 centered on the conduct of the revenue officials. It was their 'raids' on citizens without legal justification which attracted attention from other parts of the state and eventually the rest of the nation. Even the chambers of the United States Congress would hear tales of these happenings.

The Pickens Sentinel, Pickens, S.C., April 9, 1931, page six:
Perplexed Taxpayer Tells Legislators Of His Condition Maybe Yours Is Same
Many will sympathize with the feelings expressed in the following letter, which was published in the Calhoun Times: To the General Assembly: Gentlemen:
I wish to inform you that the present shattered condition of my bank account makes it impossible for me to send you my check in response to your request.
My financial condition is due to the effect of the federal laws, state laws, mother-in-laws, and outlaws that have been foisted upon an unsuspecting public. Through these various laws I have been held up, held down, sat on, walked on, flattened, squeezed and broke until I do not know what I am, where I am, or why I am. These laws compel me to pay a merchants tax, capital tax, excise tax, excess tax, corporation tax, incorporation tax, real estate tax, auto tax, light tax, water tax, cigar tax, school tax, syntax, liquor tax and carpet tax. In addition to these taxes I am requested and required to contribute to every society and organization that the inventive mind of men can invent and organize. To the society of St. John the Baptist, the Woman's Relief, Navy League, The Children's Home, The Policemen's Benefit, The Dorcas Society, The Y.M.C.A., The Gold Digger's Home, also to every hospital and charitable institution in town, the Red Cross, the Purple Cross, the Flaming Cross and the Double Cross.
The government has so governed my business that I do not know who owns it. I am suspected, expected, inspected, disrespected, examined, reexamined, informed, required, commanded and compelled until all I know is that I am supposed to provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known and unknown need, hope or desire of the Human Race, and because I refuse to donate to all and then go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away, I am ousted, cussed, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am just about ruined. The only reason that I am still clinging to life at all is to see what the hell is coming next. Very respectfully, A Suffering Taxpayer. St. Matthews, March 16, 1931.
