Buried: Upper Campground Church near Kingston, AR
Father: John or James Barker ? From: SC, GA, VA ?
Mother: Mary. Middle or last name "Presley" ? From: SC, GA, VA ?
Married: Mary Catherine "Molly" Inman
Married on: December 27, 1883 Location: Madison or Carroll County, AR
Two Children:
Male: Marion Francis Barker Born: November 3, 1884 in Kingston, Madison, AR
Male: Samuel Presley Barker Born: September 7, 1885 in Kingston, Madison, AR

1880 census Kings River Dist., Madison County, AR. Mary Barker (75) place of birth SC and son G. F. (23) place of birth SC (Not in the 1870 AR census). George married, had 2 children and died before the 1890 census. Madison County Court house and all records were destroyed by fire in 1901.

1850 census Pickens County, SC. James Barker (60) wife Mari Anna (42) children: William R (21), Wilson (19), Kezia R (16), James (15), Mary J (14), Andrew J (9), Lewis M (8), Sarah M (6)

1860 census Pickens County, SC. Mary Barker (55) children: Andrew (20), Lewis M (17), Sarah (14), George F. (6).

I have not been able to confirm that this is the correct Mary and George F. Barker. They are not in the 1870 census for SC or AR.

I would be happy to share information on Barker family history.

Searching for a Henry GAINES who died in 1893 and think he may have died in Rabun Co., GA. He married quite late in life to an Ella STANCELL who was from Oconee Co., SC. Ella was born 17 Sept 1870 and supposedly died in a storm 17 July 1908. She is buried with her 2nd husband, Sloan SMITH, at Chauga Baptist Church, Oconee Co., SC located on the road from Westminister, SC to Toccoa, GA.

Dear Linda,

Recently, I visited a rare book dealer in Greenville and found the following letter. Could you publish in the newsletter. Trying to locate how these Hallums are related to John Hallums of Liberty and Pickensville.

Dear Mother [Mrs. Anna Hallum]

February 21, 1817

It is with love and respect to you that I take my pen in hand to write to you to let you know how I have passed these lonesome days and nights of grief and months of woe. I seek repose in vain. I am often made to cry and say within myself, where is my kind husband, my bosom friend, my children's tender father, who so often has kissed and embraced us. He is now cold and silent in the tomb. I trust I shall meet him in heaven where I shall rest in his bosom like Lazarus in Abraham's bosom.

Dear mother you can't think how glad I would be to see you. I am very unwell at this time with a bad cold. Your little grandchildren as well. Elvira talks about you all very often. Joel is very fat and hearty. My little John has had a rising in his ear that made him very sore. I hope he got well and I think he will be the picture of his dear father for me to look at.

I had heard that sister Betsey is married. Tell her that I wish her all the happiness that this world can afford. Mother sends her love to you. Remember me to all my dear sisters and brothers and all inquiring friends. I have nothing more at present and must conclude with my sincere affection for you my dear mother until death.

Sally Hallum

John Swords enlisted in Rev War while residing in York District SC enlisted in the spring of 1777 in Chester, SC under Mr Johnson into Capt George Warleys Company of the 6th Reg of Infantry of the SC line of the Continental Army for term of 3 years and was in the Snow Campaign. He was on the Florida Expedition and in the battles at Beaufort and Stono. He was in the seige of Savannah for 9 weeks under Capt. Boyce who was slain in the battle. He assisted one of his fellow soldiers to carry off his Captain who was taken prisoner by the British and kept 2 weeks before he escaped and would have starved but for the charity of some Americans who divided their provisions with him made his way home and remained at home a while. Col. Bratton requested him to assist to turn the militia out which he did and was in the battles at Rock Mount, Hanging Rock and Eutaw Springs. He was at Laurens Ferry on Santee when the VA regiment were ordered home and passed on after peace was made. He was 2 years and 8 months in the regular service before he was taken prisoner --His father who was in the service at the same time was made a prisoner at Charleston --he reared a family by manual labor.

On 3 Sept 1819 Elijah Brown of Pendleton District stated in 1777 Gen or Col Sumpter was appointed to raise the 6th Regiment and soldiers was to assemble at the Cross X-road now a part of Chester District then York District, SC. My father Wm Browne lived in 2 miles and Major of the Regiment, this is where I became acquainted with John Swords mustered as a soldier of the Reg. enlisted by Lt John Montgomery and enrolled in Capt George Warleys Co. In 1778 he was in the Florida Expedition.

26 Oct 1847 John Swords (his son) made application a resident of Anderson District SC and son of John and Eleanor Swords dec'd, aged 52 states his father and mothers family records that they were married 24 April 1782 and lived together until his death 28 Sept 1834 and his mother remained a widow until her death 3 May 1841 as appears from the family records. LEWIS REDMOND by Jerry Hughes

ONCE UPON A TIME IN PICKENS COUNTY / HUGHES

misinformed or it wilfully perverts the truth. Mr Lanford's version of the Neal affair, published in the GREENVILLE NEWS, is to my personal knowledge the true one. The SENTINEL's reply proves nothing except the writer's malice.... The story concerning Mr McKinney is equally false and as this gentleman has already declared the statements untrue in the presence of reliable witnesses I will only mention this fact."

He continued by stating that the deputy collectors selected by Brayton were specially instructed to perform their duties with as much leniency as possible. He also stated that "every consideration was shown the prisoners" even allowing them to ride while the deputies walked. Commissioner Ladd was selected so as not to interfere with the work of the regular commissioners and provide persons to obtain a release 'on the ground' if proper bond could be given.

He considered that the troubles began with the fact that Pickens and Oconee counties had not been "molested by revenue officials" for the preceding two years. (His choice of words). And that when he did, he interfered with what a majority of the mountaineers considered a legitimate business, then a howl was raised. "The action of the SENTINEL did much to increase the dissatisfaction. It obstructed the work of the revenue officials by publishing their movements and its openly expressed support encouraged violations of revenue laws."

He closed the letter with his example of what the common folk of Pickens County thought of revenue officers. "Nothing will probably illustrate the feeling against revenue officers plainer than the reply of a boy, about five years old, who was seated in front of a school house when the revenue force recently passed through Pickens. When asked which he deemed worse, a revenue officer or a horse thief, he promptly responded, 'A revenue officer.'

The KEOWEE COURIER presented Mr McKinney a copy of Hoffman's letter, as it appeared in the NEWS and COURIER, for the purpose of obtaining his response to be published in the same issue. McKinney responded in part, "Fearing that Mr Hoffman's memory is short, [he again describes the events of his arrest, without warrant, and the twenty mile journey to Walhalla.] Commissioner Ladd provided the 'on ground' release in Walhalla the next day so as to 'lessen their hardships'".

The KEOWEE COURIER also offered its commentary on the revenue matters. "We do not know that revenue officials have grossly oppressed our citizens or violated the law by transcending their authority, but we have heard this from good citizens both here and in Pickens. Whether those reports be literally true or not, all must feel that the United States has men holding these offices who should not be permitted to fill them, and that there must be some cause for so much complaint."

By the first of May 1878 the complaints brought action by Judge T J Mackey. He appointed a committee of three Grand Jurors to take testimony in regard to outrages committed by revenue officials. They held their first meeting on 4 May. "All parties in possession of any information concerning outrages committed by said officials are requested to come forward and give their testimony."

REDMOND RUMORS

Also in the 2 May 1878 issue of PICKENS SENTINEL is a report about Redmond's activities. "It is rumored that the revenue officials run up with Redmond one day last week and that Redmond refused to surrender and attempting to make his escape, the officers opened fire upon him. Redmond returned the fire still retreating. The skin on the back of one of the officer's neck was cut by a ball from Redmond's gun. One Mr Fisher, a citizen, who was with the officers (whether as a prisoner or acting in another capacity is not known) had his arm broken by a ball from the same gun. Mr Fisher's horse was shot from under him. We have not heard the particulars of the shooting, nor do we know whether there is any truth in the statement. We have been told this, however, and publish it for what it is worth."

This probably is the only public account of a battle between Redmond and the revenue officers. And, as noted, it was then only rumored to have happened.

How the rumors flew and how printed reports were taken as gospel was best typified by the announcement of Sheriff Mauldin's latest newborn son. Leland O Mauldin was born about the last week of May 1878. In the social column of the PICKENS SENTINEL 30 May issue was this play on words. "Redmond (redman, as in a pink newborn) is now in jail and if any one desires to see him they can do so by calling on the sheriff who is quite proud of this new acquisition to his list of boarders and takes great pride in showing him."

Colonel D Wyatt Aiken had just begun his speeches in Congress about the conduct of the revenue officials, their abuse inflicted upon the citizens of his district. He had undoubtedly been keeping up with the news as reported in the local papers and his 1 June speech included the following comments.

".... Sir, the local newspapers received but yesterday tell me that an outlaw from an adjoining commonwealth...is confined in one of the jails there and put on exhibition, as Barnum would exhibit the hairy man, by one of these revenue officials as a curiosity because they accuse him of having violated the revenue laws time and again."

Other papers may have reprinted this social item from the SENTINEL as a genuiue news account with the heading of "Nortorious Outlaw Redmond Caputred!", and it was these local papers he referred to. If he had seen the SENTINEL he probably would have recognized the item for what it was intended to be.

William Thomas Griffin (1823-1905) served in Co. F, 1st S. C. Cavalry. He was wounded in Virginia during the war. He was a brother of Anderson Griffin, who also served in the Confederate Army. This soldier's wife was Martha Craig Griffin (1826-1891).

Robert Grogan was a resident of Hurricane Township in Pickens Dist. He served in Co. B, 2nd South Carolina Rifles (Moore's Regt.), C.S.A.

Richard L. (or E.) Grubbs was a 2nd lieutenant in Co. B, 2nd South Car. Rifles (Moore's Regt.). C.S.A. He died of disease during the war.

Richard Williamson Grubbs enlisted in the Fort Hill Guards, which became Co. K, 4th S. C. Infantry (Vol.) He also served in Co. D, 2nd S. C. Rifles, and he died 20 Sep 1862. He was buried at Warrenton, VA, at the Confederate Memorial there.

Phillip Gruber (1829-1864) was a member of the German settlement at Walhalla, SC. He was born in Bruhl Grand Dukedom Baden, Germany. He was killed at Spotsylvania Court House, Virginia, during the war. He served in Co. K, 12th S. C. Inf.

Gustavus A. Gumtau (b. 1827) was born in Pratzwat, Bradenburg, Prussia (Germany), and he was a member of the German settlement at Walhalla, S. C. He applied for U. S. citizenship on 23 May 1857. He served in Co. K, 12th S. C. Infantry, C.S.A., and was listed on his unit's muster roll as lost during the Civil War.

Jordan Gwinn (b. ca 1836) was a son of James Gwinn (b. ca 1812) and Susan Burdine Gwinn (b. ca 1820). He served in Co. B, 2nd S. C. Rifles (Moore's Regt.) and died in a military hospital during the war.

Waddy Thompson Grubbs (1841-1923) enlisted in Co. K, 4th South Car. Infantry (Volunteers). His wife was Nancy King Grubbs (1848-1923). This soldier lost a limb during the war as a result of a battle wound. He was buried at Beaverdam Baptist Church in Oconee County, S. C.

Robert Hackett enlisted in the Fort Hill Guards at Pendleton, S. C., on 2 Jun 1861, and was discharged on 7 Nov 1861, because of "rheumatismus."

Edwin McDuffie Hall served in Co. K, 4th South Carolina Infantry (Vol.), C.S.A. He was hospitalized about August 1861.

John H. Hagood (1839-1921) was a son of Benjamin Hagood (1788-1865) and Adaline Ambler Hagood (1808-1877). His wife was Elizabeth Goodwin Hagood (b. ca 1843-1891). He first served in Co. H, 4th South Carolina Infantry (Volunteers) and rose to the rank of 3rd corporal. He was reduced to the rank of private because of ill health. He also served in Co. K, Hampton Legion.

Jesse Martin Hall (1843-1934) was only sixteen years of age when he enlisted in Co. C, 1st South Car. Rifles (Orr's Regt.). He was wounded during the war, and he married Kizzie Moore (1849-1936). He was buried at Welcome Baptist Church in Oconee County, S. C.

John S. Hall (1841-1883) was twenty years of age when he enlisted in Co. C, 1st S. C. Rifles (Orr's). He was buried at Bethel Presbyterian Church in Oconee County.

Francis M. Hall (1840-1862) served in Co. E, 1st S. C. Rifles (Orr's). He was wounded at the Second Battle of Bull Run at Manassas, VA, and died at Winchester, VA, 13 Sep 1862. He was a son of Zachariah Hall, Sr. and Ruth Jenkins Hall of the Tugaloo Valley in what is today Oconee Co. He was probably buried in Virginia.

Frank G. Mauldin Was Pickens County's First West Point Graduate

By Charles H. Busha, Ph.D.

The United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, was founded in 1802. It was originally an engineering school but gradually evolved into a national military academy similar to those in Europe. Sylvanus Thayer (1785-1872), an early superintendent at West Point, became known as the "father of the Military Academy." He was a member of the institution's class of 1808. Thayer also served as an engineer during the War of 1812. Between 1817 and 1833, he completely re-organized the Military Academy and breathed new life into it. Moreover, John C. Calhoun (1782-1850), the noted statesman from South Carolina, played an important role in strengthening the U. S. Military Academy between 1817 and 1825. During those years, Calhoun was Secretary of War in the administration of President James Monroe (1758-1831).

The academy's corps of cadets is maintained by appointments made by several sources, particularly by elected national officials. The first person from Pickens County, S. C., to have received an appointment to West Point was Frank Gratin Mauldin. He was born August 16, 1864. In 1890 he was graduated with honors at West Point. By the time the First World War began, Mauldin was serving in the grade of colonel in the U. S. Army, and he was soon promoted to brigadier general. Frank Gratin Mauldin died January 25, 1940, and was buried in Sunrise Cemetery in Pickens, S. C. He was a son of Joab Mauldin (1839-1897), a Confederate veteran, and Deborah Reed (Hollingsworth) Mauldin (1840-1911). Joab was a son of Milton "Major" Mauldin (1817-1860) and Sarah (O'Dell) Mauldin (1821-1905). Joab's wife was a daughter of James Ivy Hollingsworth (1811-1859) and Cynthia (Clayton) Hollingsworth (1812-1884). At least two of Joab's brothers also served as Confederate soldiers, and they were Elbert Mauldin (1841-1862), who was a member of Company E, 2nd S. C. Rifles and who died of disease in Virginia during the Civil War; and Elias Earle Mauldin (1848-1925), who was only sixteen years of age when he entered Company D, 1st S. C. State Troops. When Pickens and Oconee counties were created out of the old Pickens District in 1868, Joab Mauldin became Pickens County's first sheriff, and he remained its chief law enforcement officer until 1872. Then, from 1876 until 1884 he served again as sheriff of the county.

While Joab Mauldin's son, Frank, was still a cadet at West Point, a second Pickens County native entered the cadet corps there. He was Andrew Erwin Williams, who was born July 11, 1869, at Salubrity (Liberty) and was a son of William Stanton "Bill" Williams (1811-1880)---a merchant, farmer and postmaster of Salubrity Post Office---and his second wife, South Carolina (Feaster) Williams. The cadet's paternal grandparents were Jeremiah Williams, Jr. (1787-1855) and Charity Elizabeth (Stanton) Williams (1796-1873), both of whom were buried in the old Williams Family Cemetery, situated on Five Forks Road at Liberty. Andrew Erwin Williams was a half-brother of Thomas Herbert "Hub" Williams (1844-1890), a Confederate veteran whose mother, Harriett (Worthington) Williams (1817-1847), was Bill Williams' first wife who died when Hub was three years old.

In 1889, the year of his appointment to the U. S. Military Academy, Andrew Erwin Williams, formerly of Pickens County, was living in Milam County, Texas, where his father had moved at an advanced age with his second wife and family. After his father's death in 1880, the young son made his home with the older and prosperous half-brother, Hub Williams, who had served as a second lieutenant in Company I, Palmetto Sharp Shooters, C.S.A. In the fall of 1866, Hub Williams had gone to Texas with his close friend Manson Sherrill Jolly (b. ca 1840 - d. 1869)---better known today as Manse Jolly---the legendary ex-Confederate soldier and "unreconstructed rebel." Manse Jolly was a native of the Lebanon community of Anderson District, S. C. He and several close friends, including Hub Williams, fled from South Carolina while being pursued by Federal officials who were investigating hostile actions taken against occupation troops stationed in the Upstate shortly after the Civil War had ended.

On June 12, 1893, Andrew Erwin Williams was graduated at West Point and appointed a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army. For several months in 1895-96, Lieutenant Williams was on military leave. During that period, he made a semi-official bicycle tour of Europe and prepared a report on the practicability of the bicycle's use by European military forces. During the Spanish-American War, the lieutenant participated in the Santiago Campaign (July 1898); he also took part in action against Spanish forces at San Juan, Puerto Rico. For his service during the war, Lieutenant Williams was awarded a Silver Star Citation. He was promoted to first lieutenant in the cavalry the following year and later served a tour of duty in the Philippine Islands. In 1901 he was promoted to the rank of captain and placed in command of Troop H, Third Cavalry, with which he served for twelve years.

Captain Williams married Nelly Edwards of El Paso, Texas. The couple eventually become the parents of three daughters. In 1916 this career military officer received a promotion to major. He was also elevated to the rank of lieutenant colonel the following year. Then, as commander of the 313th Train and Military Police unit of the 87th Division at Camp Pike, Arkansas, Williams held a temporary commission as an infantry colonel (from 1917 to 1920). During the First World War, he accompanied his military unit to France for duty with American Expeditionary Forces. After the war, Williams was promoted to the permanent grade of colonel (on July 1, 1920). Later, he was commander of the General Intermediate Depot at Atlanta, Georgia. He was subsequently transferred to the field artillery. Afterwards, and until his retirement on April 16, 1928, Colonel Williams was detailed with the Organized Reserves, Fourth Corps Area. Williams and his family moved to San Antonio, Texas, after his retirement. He died November 19, 1932. The following comments about this Pickens County native were made in a letter written by General Douglas MacArthur, Chief of Staff of the United States Army: "The records show that Colonel Williams was a loyal, fearless, and conscientious officer, whose long and faithful military career extended over a period of nearly thirty-five years' active and commissioned service. His death is deeply regretted."

Dear Brother & Sister

June the 4th 1862

Its with great pleasure I embrace the present opportunity of dropping you a few lines to let you no that I am well at the present hoping when those few lines comes to hand They will find you all well and doing well I received the letter which you sent me and Brother Milton I was glad to hear from you all and to hear you was all well Milton has not got the letter yet the reason why he is at Richmond or Petersburg in the hospitle & I dont no for certain which of the places he is at yet he has not wrote to me cince he went to that hospitle where he is at now and I dont no where to send the letters to for him to get it till he write to me I dont no how he is getting along for I have not heard from him cince I saw him last he was not so but what he could go about it is the same old disease that is working on him his side and back hurts him so he cant muster nor he says he cant toat his Knapsack he has not done a days service cince came in the Service nor I dont think he ever will be any service here at all for the rest of the neighboring boys They are all well except Anderson Barton he has been very sick for some days past he has got the typhoid fever he is in the hospitle at Richmond I heard from him to day one of our men went to the city to day he said he saw a man that stayed with him last night and he told this man that I told you went to the city that he was very bad off last night and he expected that he was dead by that time but I dont no whether it is so or not William Anderson went there this morning to see about him he has not got back yet if he gets back before I close this letter I will tell you the truth of it & if he dont get back before I close you must not tell his Ma about it nor you must not tell no other person so she can get hold of it for I dont no whether it is so or not nor if it aint so I dont want you to tell it at all I wanted to get to go with William to see him but there was no chance for he had to beg pretty hard to get to go by himself I went to the hospitle at Ashland with him and waited on him till he was caried to Richmond and then I had to return to my Regt I hated to have to leave him but I had it to do a man has to do just as he commanded to do he cant do as he pleases if could to of got to stayed with him I could a waited on him a heap better than he was I (k)now and a nother thing I would to of been a heap better satisfied

I will tell you Something about where we are camped and what sort of situation we are in we are stationed on the Chickahominy River and we have got no tents only just our blankets stretched up and that is a bad makeshift shure our Regt has been marching nearly all the time for two weeks in the mud and rain it has been raining ever night for two or three nights and it has been raining here to day nearly all day it has rained some as hard a rains as generly rains for the last week (cont.)

(continued) some of us can keep sorter dry and some dont for they cant keep dry under a little blanket stretched up we are stationd on one side of the Chickahominy and the yankys on the other side we are in a piece of wods and we can go out in the field two or three hundred yards from our camp and see the yankys out the other side they bombed a piece of woods on this side of the river yesterday they thought that some of our men was in the piece of woods they threw a good many bombs in that piece of woods we could stand and see the smoke from their canons They threw some over our heads the other eavning and our men sent som back but the yankys did no harm nor I dont no whether our men did any or not they have been fighting a good deal below Richmond I cant tell you mutch about that fight but our loss was very heavy in killed and wounded but we whiped them badly from what I can hear the fireing was in hearing of us the loss on their side was supposed to be double of ours and the prisnirs taken about six hundred You will be apt to hear of the fight in the paper if you take the paper Wm Anderson has just arrived he says Anderson is not dead but he is very low you can tell his Ma that he is very bad off but Wm Anderson thinks that there is hopes of his recovering yet which I hope he will Brother I dont no whether I will ever see you nor sister nor none of the rest of you again or not but if it is not the lords will hope we will be prepared to meet in heaven where there is no wars nor rumors of wars but I hope it is the lords will for us all to meet again on earth You must write to me as soon as you get this letter and fail not we are looking for a battle here at any hour but I am not able to say when it will come off Our troops is all around Richmond and whenever the fight dose come off it will be one of the bloodest battles that ever was fought to my opinion & I think it will last for severl days. So I must come to a close for This Time So when this you see remember me though many miles apart we be

Your affectionate brother untill death

Another Great Great Great Grandfather

by Charles Lee, Ph.D.
Old Pendleton District Chapter

CLeePhD@aol.com

Peyton Thompson Burton, my great great great grandfather, was born 21 February 1807 in Georgia to Blackman Burton and Jane Yancey (Jinsey) Saxon. Peyton was probably married to Mary (Polly) Wiles. Polly was born in 1818 in South Carolina, probably to Freeman Wiles, a native of Danville, Virginia.

Peyton and Polly had seven children. I think that all of the children were born in Pendleton District.

- 1) Martha Ann Burton was born in 1833 and was married twice, to Jesse M. Simpson and to John Cunningham.
- 2) Elizabeth J. Burton was born in 1836.
- 3) Lucinda (Lou) Haseltine Burton was born on 28 April 1840 in the Pendleton District. The story was that Lou, a red-haired beauty, was engaged to another man, but broke it off because he was hiding from the war, known as a slacker. Lou's father had found out while he was hunting. He stopped at the slacker's house and saw him eating breakfast. So later, Lou was married about 1864 to Albert Chesterfield Beaty. [Note: A.C. Beaty, my great great grandfather, was the subject of the presentation that I gave two years ago at the Old Pendleton District Chapter meeting. One year ago at the same meeting, I presented a story about A.C.'s father John Wesley Beaty, another great great great grandfather.] Lou died 28 June 1910 in Oconee County and was buried in the Bethel Presbyterian Church cemetery in Oconee County.
- 4) Sarah E. Burton was born in 1842 and was married to A. A. Freeman.
- 5) James William Thompson Burton was born in 1844. During the War Between the States a minnie ball hit him in the knee at Gaines Hill. He was noted as a cripple in the 1870 census.
- 6) Amanda C. Burton was born about 1847.
- 7) Caroline Medera Burton was born 27 January 1848 and was married twice, to William D. Scott, and on 11 January 1870 to George Middleton McKee. She lived with Mr. McKee in Walhalla. He was the executor for Peyton's will. Caroline died 17 August 1921.

Jesse Wiles, Polly's brother, age 45, was in the household in the 1850 census, and was noted as insane. Jesse does not appear in the subsequent census.

Incidentally, Peyton became a private in Capt. Andrew P. Butler's Company G, 1st Regiment of the South Carolina Volunteers of the Confederate States of America. On 16 August 1861 he joined at the age of 54! Peyton was wounded by a shot in the chest on 03 October 1862, and remained on the Muster Roll until 31 December 1864.

Peyton was also a big-time foxhunter. The story was told that Polly called for him from her sick bed "Are you going fox hunting? Are you going and let me die?" He called back "I'm going fox hunting!"

Peyton executed his handwritten will by the county clerk on 03 March 1886. He signed the instrument "P T Burton" in a shaky hand. Peyton died 06 March 1886 and is buried in Union Baptist Church cemetery near Iva. Polly died in 1894 and is buried there also.
