O.J. Crooks, 1732 Pamela Circle, Marietta, GA 30008 Ph: 770-428-8683 E-Mail: crookssr@juno.com
I need the maiden name of Frances Jane who married Jimmy CROOKS. She was b. 1811 and d. 17 Nov 1898. Jimmy was b. 9 Dec 1809 near Seneca and d. 11 Oct 1885. They are buried in the Friendship Methodist Church cemetery near the church. I can supply his children's names if anyone is interested. My great-grandfather Elias was Jimmy's son. Elias was married to Julia KENNEDY. Her father was James M. KENNEDY married to Sarah. I also need her maiden name.

I would appreciate family group sheets on any of the CROOKS families which came from this area as I am attempting to try to computerize all of the CROOKS lines from this area. I have found a large amount of data from the cemetery records but have a hard time in correctly identifying the lineages.

WILLIAMS-LATHAM FAMILIES: Written for the Easley Progress by Ruth Latham Gilstrap Issue: 22 Sept 1929.

Isaac Williams (son of William Williams and Elizabeth Reid Williams) owned property in the Burdine Springs section along the Dacusville Road up to the Cross Road Community. He was a member of the famous Red Shirt group that campaigned for Wade Hampton in 1876.

In 1848 he married Eliza Ann Griffin the d/o Alva and Jennie Barton Griffin. They had 7 children: William H. B. 1868, Jennie m. 1871-1918, Mattie M. 1873, Arie Nioma 1876, Mary Browne 1880, A.G. 1883 d. Infant, George E. 1886-1920. A brother of Isaac, Elliot Williams built the Major Bradley house in Easley. Another brother Joseph m. Eliza William's sister.

James Robert "Jim Bob" Latham was a descendant of the Williams family. He was the s/o William Latham who died in Virginia during the Civil War and Eliza Bowen, William's first cousin.

Jim Bob Latham m. Sarah Elizabeth Davis who was the d/o a Mr Davis who was the overseer for the joint land holdings of the Latham Brothers. According to Uncle Hence (a body servant given to Isaac Williams at birth) the Davis family came to the Lathams looking for work. They did not give any information about their background. Toward the end of the Civil War according to Uncle Hence, a man came to the farm in a very handsome wagon pulled by a great horse and surrounded by guards, asking for the Davis Family. He begged Mr Davis to come with him, but Davis refused and the man quickly let. Uncle Hence who lived to be 117 always said that this visitor was Jefferson Davis.

Jim Bob and Sarah Davis raised 9 children at the family home in the Mt Carmel Community.

HAMILTON FAMILY: Written by Hugh Hamilton for Easley Progress Issue: 25 Sept 1921

Archibald Hamilton (1745-1835) was born in Scotland, married to Frances Calhoun. They emigrated to Augusta Co VA by way of Ireland and Pennsylvania. They settled there and had several children, one of whom was Major Andrew Hamilton who served in the Revolutionary War and other military engagements. Major Hamilton married Jane Magill in Augusta Co VA in 1764, they moved to Abbeville District SC and settled there and had eleven children. He died in 1835 at the age of 95 and he and his wife are buried in Long Cane Cemetery, Abbeville District, SC as are his daughter Catherine and her husband Major James Alston.

Archibald Hamilton the second son of Major Andrew Hamilton married Jeane Davis and moved to Pendleton District SC and settled in the Pickensville area. They were early members of Carmel Presbyterian Church, one of the earliest churches in the upcountry which is located about two miles southwest of Easley.

I, Linda Cheek, need some verification on this Hamilton family for my personal Data Base and the Old Pendleton Data Base needs to be corrected, as I have found a few things in this written history that could not possible be correct!

1st. The first Archibald Hamilton b. 1745 Scotland d. 1835 would have been 90 years old in 1835 m. Frances Calhoun b. Scotland.

2nd. His son Major Andrew Hamilton b. 1741 Augusta Co VA d. 1835 aged 94 in 1835 (three years difference in ages) m. Jane Magill in Augusta Co VA 1764.

The question here is? Are the dates on the 1st Archibald Hamilton wrong or was he a brother to Major Andrew Hamilton instead of being his father? Either way I don't think either of them would have been born in Scotland as Major Andrew Hamilton b. 1741 Augusta Co VA-- 3 years earlier than Archibald stated as born 1745 in Scotland?? Were they both sons of Audley Harrison and Eleanor Adams Hamilton b. County Tyrone, Northern Ireland to Augusta Co VA??

Rev. Penison of Andrew Hamilton states b. 1741 Augusta Co VA d. 17 Jan 1835 Abbeville District SC. Haven't found a pension for an Archibald Hamilton.

Also the Frances Calhoun...any connection to the John C. Calhoun family? Linda G. Cheek

DEATH OF MANSON JOLLY

The news will be received with regret by the many friends of this bold and daring Confederate soldier. We learn that a private letter has been received, stating that Manson Jolly was drowned on the 8th of July near his home in Texas. He was building a residence on the opposite side of the creek from where he lived, and had crossed over on horseback several times during the day. The stream was greatly swollen, and in attempting to cross for the third or fourth time, he was carried with his horse down the creek, and in the struggle which ensued both were drowned. Mr. Jolly had been married about one year, and leaves a young wife, the daughter of a former citizen of Anderson.

The thrilling exploits and adventures of Manson Jolly in this section of the country, immediately after the war closed, are fresh in the recollection of all. His name was a terror for a long time to the garrison of United States soldiers, especially the volunteer white and colored regiments stationed at this place. When the regular troops arrived, he removed to Texas, where he has since been leading a quiet and peaceful life.

Preston Lewis Adams (1825-1906) enlisted in Co. F, 24th S. C. Infantry Battalion in 1862 and was discharged at Murphysboro, N. C. in 1865. On 14 Sept 1870 he married Sarah Ann Prince.

James F. Griffin enlisted in Co. J 4th South Carolina Volunteers (Inf.) at Anderson, S. C., on 14 Apr 1861; discharged by order of the surgeon general 24 Sept 1861 at Richmond, Virginia.

R. Mc. Cunningham, a member of Co. F, 24th South Carolina Infantry Battalion, C.S.A., was killed in the Battle of Chickamauga, GA.

J. A. McAlister, a private in Co. F, 24th South Carolina Infantry Battalion, died of disease in the spring of 1864.

James Blanchett served in Co. I, 14th S. C. Volunteers; he attended the company's first reunion which was held 2 Sep 1896 at the home of J. B. Moseley in Lowndesville, South Carolina.

Oliver "Duck" Bolt (1847-1922) was a native of Laurens County, S.C. and a son of Asa Bolt (1808-1876) and Hannah A. Bolt. He enlisted in the Confederate States Army at the age of seventeen years in 1864.

Additional Facts About "Manse" Jolly

Compiled by Charles H. Busha

Manson Sherrill Jolly (1841-1869), the ex-Confederate soldier who has been described as an "unreconstructed rebel" and who acquired the nickname "Manse Jolly," was born on a 300-acre farm in the Lebanon community of Anderson District, S. C. He was one of the eleven offspring of Joseph Moorhead Jolly and Anna Cole (Sherrill) Jolly. On February 5, 1861, he enlisted at Pendleton, S. C., in an infantry regiment organized by William Butler. Later, during the Civil War, he served with distinction as a first sergeant in Co. F, 1st S. C. Cavalry. Six of Jolly's brothers also served in the C.S.A., and five of them were killed during the war. The sixth brother committed suicide shortly after the war. In the fall of 1866, Jolly went to Texas, where two years later he married Mildred Elizabeth "Millie" Smith (1847-1924), a daughter of John Gray "Lightning Jack" Smith (1825-1880), who was a native of Anderson District, S. C. Jolly and his wife had only one child, Ella Manson Jolly, who was born in Robertson County, Texas in 1869, shortly after her father's accidental death---which was reported in the newspaper article reprinted above.

Charles Loafer served in Co. E, 20th S. C. Volunteers, C.S.A. He attended the August 1914 reunion of the company at Neals Creek Church in Anderson County, South Carolina.

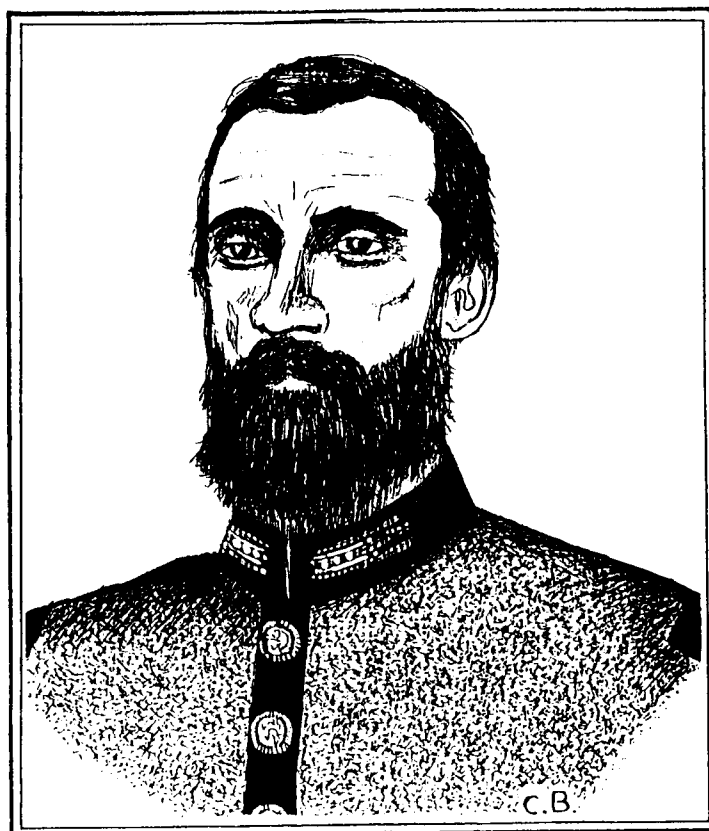

Hut Loftis was a member of Co. I, 14th S. C. Volunteers, C.S.A. He was living in September 1896.

O. B. Campbell died in a military hospital in 1864. He was a member of Co. F, 24th S. C. Volunteers (Inf.), C.S.A.

R. P. Brayram was captured by Union troops at Shipp's Gap, Georgia, and he died in a prisoner of war camp in the spring of 1865. He had served as a corporal in Co. F, 24th S. C. Volunteers, C.S.A.

Enoch Breazeale (1837-1917) was a son of Kennon Breazeale. He served in Co. B, 37th Virginia Cavalry (Bn.), in which he enlisted at Richmond, VA, on April 15, 1862. He probably had served previously in another unit.

in Swain County North Carolina. They wanted to leave their troubles behind them, now that they were married, and try to start a new life. Their friends and neighbors in the Upstate were happy for them and wished them well.

Unfortunately this was not to be. Mrs Adeline Redmond, in the 24 March 1927 PICKENS SENTINEL gave this account of what happened some few months after they were married.

".... at the time I and Mr Redmond was living a peaceable and law-abiding life, but the government was still offering a reward for him, dead or alive. About the only way you could get to our house easy was to cross the river in a boat. We kept a boat locked on our side of the river. One night Mr Redmond's cousin cut the top off the stobb where the boat was locked and slipped the chain off. I thnk it was 12 men that came across while we were asleep and they hid on the side of the mountain by our house.

"Next morning when Mr Redmond went out they shot him without warning. I think they shot him over 30 times. They thought they had killed him, but (with a tone of triumphant defiance in her voice) they couldn't do it. He got well, but a part of his lung was shot off and he never could talk loud any more. There were only two officers in the crowd that ambushed Mr Redmond, the rest were just men from town."

Mr J L Bell of Brevard N C gave a more colorful version in a letter he wrote in response to an inquiry by Mrs Cadwell of the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER. This was in October 1925 and probably came from oral tradition.

".... A large posse under command of Shelby Ray, of Yancey county, one morning before daylight, concealed themselves and about sun-up Redmond left the cabin, crossed a branch, and as he entered a cornfield a posse without warning fired, for he was an outlaw. He fell, the officers still firing.

"Shelby Ray told me himself he (Redmond) was the gamest man he ever knew, for lying wounded between 2 corn rows with nothing but the smoke of the officers' guns to guide him, he shot as long as he was able to raise his pistol. He had 56 wounds on his body."

Mr Bell continued, "Redmond was carried to Asheville where he lingered a long time between life and death. Almost before he recovered he was tried in federal court (not for killing Duckworth but other violations, was never tried in either state or federal court for it. I suppose Duckworth had no warrant.) He was convicted and sentenced to penitentiary at Albany, N Y."

Redmond spent almost three years in Albany. Governor Hampton and President Hayes eventually pardoned him before their term expired in 1892. He spent one day in the state prison before being released.

MURDER TRIAL

The murder trial against Kane and Durham, the one's who killed Amos Ladd was still being postponed and moved during this time. A mid-April 1881 issue of GREENVILLE NEWS had this article.

"ONE OF THE VICTIMS.--Poor old Mrs. Ladd...was in the city a few days ago, expecting to be called upon as a witness in the trial of her son's murders at the court now in session here. The trial, however, having been removed to another circuit, the feeble old lady will have to travel to Charleston. Solicitor Cothran, with his usual large heartedness, saw that she was comfortably provided for while here."

The case was moved to Columbia in December 1881 before being postponed again till April 1882 in Charleston. The prosecution could not get their witnesses to Columbia.

The 6 April 1882 PICKENS SENTINEL issue noted travelers passing through town. "Mrs Adeline Redmond, wife of Lewis R Redmond, and her mother and brother, Mrs Ladd and S M Ladd, passed through this place last Thursday evening on their way to Charleston as witnesses in the case against Hugh P Kane, et al, for the killing of Amos Ladd in a revenue raid three or four years ago. The case will be tried, we suppose, this week, but it will be a mere farce, as the whole machinery of the Court will be used to secure their acquittal."

The trial finally took place about 10 April. Mrs Adeline Redmond provided her testimony which was supported by Mrs Milly Ladd and Salathiel Ladd.

The defence witnesses included Internal Revenue Collector T M Brayton who "that owing to frequent acts of lawlessness in the Rocky Bottom section, which were supposed to have been committed by Redmond and Amos Ladd and others of his band, the revenue force had been increased."

W F Gary testified about his part in Redmond's capture and escape in January of 1877.

William Durham testified, "When he entered the garden around the house he heard a gun fire in the house, and soon after he saw Ladd rushing out of the house towards him with a gun. He challenged him and told him to drop the gun. On his refusal he fired two shots in rapid succession and the man fell. Ladd had his gun raised in both hands, and he was obliged to fire in self-defence."

Hugh P Kane testified, "On approaching the door Salathiel Ladd rushed out. Amos Ladd stepped immediately to the north door, gun in hand, and was called upon by him 'to surrender.' Ladd raised his gun and attempted to shoot, but the gun missed fire then he fired and Ladd fell forward from the steps to the ground."

Judge Bond charged the jury, after defining murder and malice aforethought, with "... and (the defendants) were present at the homicide in the discharge of their duty, which was to arrest those there who had been engaged in violating the internal revenue law, and that from the peculiar perilous character of the place and the armed resistance theretofore made to the officers in the discharge of their duty in that particular place the officers were

OLD PENDLETON DISTRICT CHAPTER WORKSHOP

Herman Geschwind and Joe Looper are planning a workshop for the September picnic, held annually at the Keowee/Toxaway Park in the community building (old church on right). The park is located just off Hwy 11 toward Oconee Co. You will see the signs. Park is open 9am-9pm.

You are cordially invited to attend the Old Pendleton District Chapter Annual Picnic and Genealogy Workshop.

DATE: Saturday 23 September 2000.

LOCATION: The Keowee/Toxaway State Park off Highway 11

TIME: We propose to start at Noon and keep going until the park closes at 9pm.

Rather than have a formal program for the Workshop, we will be very flexible and be guided by your interests and wishes.

Past President, Joe Looper, will supply at least two computers where we can demonstrate popular genealogy programs such as Family Origins For Windows, Personal Ancestral File (PAF 4.4), Brothers Keeper and Family Tree Maker.

We propose to have round table discussions on subjects such as:

1. Now that I have a copy of the Old Pendleton Database, what can I do with it?
2. GEDCOM, GEDCOM, what is this all about and does my Tree Maker have it?
3. Data Entry into Genealogy Programs, is there such a thing as Style?
4. Some good places to go on the internet for genealogy data.
5. Pros and Cons of various genealogy programs. What can we look at and purchase.

We will also have books and CD ROMS for you to look at and purchase.

Also we would like to ask MEMBERS to bring a copy of their GEDCOMS to be added to the Old Pendleton District Database. This would really help to get your family listed.

Joe will bring extra 1.44 disks to give members copies of data, they may want, including copies of the Database.

If you plan to stay overnight, names of Motel's can be supplied. At this time, Catering is being discussed. So it is important to reserve your place. More later on this.

NOTICE ORR DESCENDANTS

Descendents of Thomas and Sarah Orr, residents of the Powdersville and Slabtown area from 1804 until their deaths in 1865 and 1866 - it is time to gather - on Memorial Day, Monday 29th May, 2000 at the Powdersville Volunteer Fire Department, located about 1 mile south of Highway 153 on Highway 81 (Old Anderson Road). The "reunion" will begin anytime after 9:30 am and last until we're talked out. Bring photos, stories, tall tales, data and cameras. Plenty of parking space, and room indoors for 50 to 100 people, ice and snacks available. We are expecting ORR cousins from several different states and of course a good representation from Upstate South Carolina. Anyone interested in the genealogy of the ORR and connecting families is invited and welcome. For futher information, you may call Paul or Erlean Orr at 864-269-3688.
