INFORMATION PAGE

Just a note to let all of you know that I am going to try to have the Newsletters ready by meeting nights, for the following month. (Example: The Feb Newsletter will be ready at the January Meeting). There will be about two NL's that I cannot do this way, such as Sept, and Jan. I believe that I can save the Chapter some expense on postage by issuing these NL's in person to the members that attend the Meetings. The remaining NL's will be mailed after the meeting.

I am still working on the Old Pendleton Genealogies and Un-Marked Graves book. I would also like to add Bible Records to this. It will be winter before I can get this completed, so if you have not sent in you Family History, try to get this in now. Once I start indexing I cannot except anymore material. The deadline is 31 December, 2000. I will except ready for printing pages, (typed) 1-4 pages per family, more if this is the only one you submitt. No lineage charts. Names and all info available on people that are buried in un-marked graves in Pendleton District, SC and surrounding counties.

I am interested in Jane "Jenny" BARTON b. 1816 married Alvah GRIFFIN. My gggrandmother was Martha Jenny GRIFFIN, daughter of this couple.

I have not been successful in proving Jane's father, whom I believe is Bailey Anderson BARTON, son of Benjamin. I have esen her name laisted as his second daughter (after Dorcas), but other BARTON research does not mention her at all. If anyone can help I will compensate for any time and/or copy cost involved.

Does anyone have information on William ALLEN, John SHEARLY/SHIRLEY, Obadiah PINKSTON and Samuel REDDING. I believe that I have found a Hall Co GA record of possible intermarriages for these families or their brothers or children or related? Source 1800 Census of Pendleton District, SC a special publication of the National Genealogical Society #26, Washington D.C. 1963 compiled by William C. Stewart, reprinted 1979 pg 115.

One Moses PINSON (1762 Orange Co NC d. 1853 Cass Co GA) married Margaret HENRY (b. 1770 PA) and had know children named: Allen, Redding, John and Elisha Pinson. I expect that PINKSTON is a form of PINSON in this case. Also the sister of Moses PINSON married one Thomas SHURLEY, which spelling would be SHIRLEY, I think these names are in Pendleton District, SC.

Now to Pendleton/ Greenville Census or a geography question: I started out looking for one David PINSON b. 1772 age about 28 in the 1800 SC census. I was told that he was living and his houshold is listed in the Greenville SC census for that year. I just naturally though that in 1800 Greenville was part of Pendleton for census purposes. Was Pendleton ever part of Greenville?

Does anyone have access to the Greenville 1800 and 1810 census to find David PINSON'S household as I need the number of children and ages in his household for that year. He was in Pickens District SC in 1820 age 45+ with wife and a few younger children. I need the births of his older children listed in the 1800 census.

ANSWER FROM LINDA: Folks I hope I am telling this correctly and if not please be sure to correct me.

Pendleton District, SC was formed in 1784 and from my findings it was once included in Ninety-Six District and Abbeville District, SC. Some people will argue this. I have determined this from a deed of one of my ancestors (McAlister) who's land was early in Ninety-Six and Abbeville District and the same land is now in Pickens Co., SC. (Example: one of my gggg-grandfathers lived in NC in six different counties and never moved, the counties changed).

Pendeleton and Greenville Districts have never been connected except for a few years 1798-1804 when they shared the same Judicial Court, located at Pickensville in Pickens District, SC about 1 mile south of Easley, SC. This Judicial Court District was called: Washington District. Anne McCuen of Greenville, SC compiled a book of the Washington District Records that were found in the attic of the Greenville Co. Courthouse. I had the opportunity to go through these records.

NOTE: Think you might find the SHIRLEY family in lower Anderson Co, SC and around Turkey Creek, Abbeville Co SC (depending on which side of the creek you are standing on).

DON'T FORGET: to check out the SCGenWeb which will enable you to get to each county in SC for research.

BIT'S and PIECE'S

1835: MILITIA COURT MARTIALLED FOR PICKENSVILLE REBELLION by J.D. Wyatt

In Pickens and Anderson Districts John C. Calhoun had many zealous followers; but across the Saluda around Greenville he numbered more enemies than friends. In every election during the Nullification stir Greenville voted against States-Rights.

This article accounts an incident which is not only interesting locally, but also valuable for the light it sheds on the early period of the struggle between (Benjamin F.) Perry and the State-rights faction.

Up until the Civil War the State Militia was well organized and was the means of administration of the local government. There were only three distinct officers, the clerk, the sheriff and the ordinary. The local military companies supervised the roads and bridges had charge of elections and at their regular musters discussed the politics of the neighborhood.

In Pendleton and Greenville Districts there were some fifteen or twenty muster grounds. Of all of these Pickensville was the most important. We find records of m usters there from 1800 down to the close of the Civil war. In 1835 it was the muster ground of the 5th regiment, in 1845 of the 4th and in 1857 of the 17th.

In 1835 the Nullification issue was becoming quieter, but there was still talk of fight in the air. Greenville felt that she was being imposed on by the larger States-rights district of Pendleton. In September the annual encampment of officers was scheduled to be held at Pickensville. All through the summer threats were heard of a rebellion of the Greenville Officers. Many of them had openly stated that they intended to disobey the call to the encampment. They alleged that the States rights men of Pickens and Anderson were attempting to mobilize an army for an independent South Carolina.

In this dissension Perry saw an opportunity to strike a blow at Calhoun and Thompson, who was at the time in command of the regiment. Accordingly a meeting of the Greenville officers was held in the office of B.F. Perry and there it was agreed that all Greenville Officers would disregard the summons to the brigade encampment.

The encampment was held at the appointed time. The Greenville officers did not show up.

COURT MARTIAL: The court martial was held at Pickensville September 4th by the order of Brigadier General Thompson. On the court he appointed Cols. Garvin, Hammond, McKinney, Norris and Hamilton. Col. Brockman the first Greenville officer to be tried was found guilty of wilful disobedience and sentenced to pay a fine of $60.00 and to surrender his commission. Col. R.P. Goodlett, Col. McNeely and Major Smith were also found guilty and received similar sentences. It came out at the trial that the plot had been hatched in Perry's office.

He was a native of Massachusetts, but for more than half a century past a resident of South Carolina. He heard the first guns fired in the cause of Independence at Concord on the 19th April 1775. At the age of 16 he volunteered his services. In 1784 he came to Charleston SC and to Greenville, SC. Some years afterwards purchased a farm on Tugaloo and removed there and spent the remainder of his days in seclusion. Greenville Mountaineer Issue: 23 Dec 1842 . EVE OF 1860 WAR: Pickens District, SC, Easley Progress 17 May 1922

In 1860 the majority was overwhelming for States-rights, secession and even war. One of the first companies organized for state aervice was the Little River Rangers. And Dacusville had become foremost among the patriots. At a meeting of the citizens on 15 Dec 1860 a flag was raised with the inscription "Secession" and a palmetto tree, a military compamy was organized and the vote was unanimous for secession.

Just before the secession of South Carolina there was a meeting at Pickensville advocating war measures. Rev. J.C. Furman of Furman University was one of the ardent speakers in favor of immediate action. Among other speakers who were convassing the district for Secession was James L. Orr, later governor of the state, commander of Orr's regiment and Ambassador to Russia.

I have been unable to find no record of a dissenting voice in this campaign and movement for Secession.

After the war was over three appeared in the Keowee Courier an "I told you so" letter from a leading citizen of Pickensville. In that letter he admitted, of course with frankness as the Yankees were then in power, that he had persuaded young men from entering the State and and Confederate service.

Of course there were grumblers and traitors, but there was certainly no outspoken opposition to the action of the state in the Secession Convention. The Walhalla Germans were first among the defenders of the honor of their state. And even Ben Perry of Greenville threw his lot with his state.

Descendants of Ratliff BOONE

I believe that the Ratliff Boone b. 1755 Surry Co NC was a son of Ratliff Boone b. 1715 Isle of Wight Co VA d. July 1787 Surry Co NC m. Ruth. I also think that the latter Ratliff Boone was the son of Joseph Boone b. 1692 Isle of Wight Co VA d. Feb 1728 leaving a will in Bertie Co. NC. Joseph Boone married Elizabeth Kilbyeley. This Joseph Boone, I think, is a son of Thomas Boone from England to Isle of Wight Co VA m. Elizabeth Radcliff. Does anyone have this line?

A Ratliff Boon is named in the will of Josrph Boon Bertie Co NC dated 19 Feb 1728.

Elisha Alexander's son Thomas Alexander m.5 July 1840 (Pendleton Messenger) Mary Boon d/o Nathan Boon. Many researchers are listing this Mary Boon as Mary Baker that married 1st William Murphree and 2nd Thomas S. Alexander. This Mary Boon did not marry 1st Wm Murphree and 2nd Thomas S. THOMAS S. ALEXANDER son of Daniel D. Alexander and Mary "Polly" (?Murphree)
Daniel D. Alexander is most likely a brother to Elisha M. And Elijah A. Alexander.

(I could really open up a can of worms by saying I believe that Mary "Polly" Murphree was a d/o Daniel and Sarah Haynes Murphree of NC. There is no proof for this statement)

E. P. McCravy

Edwin Parker McCravy, who died at the age of 68, was one of Pickens County's most widely known citizens.

He was born in Abbeville on October 6, 1873, one of 14 children of James McCravy and Kitty Stark McCravy. In 1878 the family moved to Laurens County and later to Easley.

He served for eight years on the constabulary force of Governor Ben Tillman, went into business in Easley in 1906 and was elected mayor in 1907. During his term street paving, sewerage and other improvement programs were carried out.

In 1910 Mr. McCravy was elected to the state legislature from Pickens County and in 1912 he was re-elected, serving in his last term as chairman of the ways and means committee.

During the World War he was chairman of the Pickens County draft board.

He was elected state senator from Pickens in 1921. For many years he was the chairman of the Pickens County Democratic executive committee.

He was a director of Glenwood Cotton Mills, a director of the Bank of Easley, owned and operated the Easley Insurance Agency from 1906, and was president of McCravy and Freeman, dealing in fertilizer, cotton, ginning and related fields, organized and was for a time president of the Home Building and Loan association and was one of the section's largest farmers.

Mr. McCravy was a Mason, Pythian and Woodman of the World. He was a member of the First Baptist Church. Last year he published a book entitled "Memories," available at the Pickens County Library.

In 1907 he married Miss Elizabeth Robinson and had two children, Representative John Robinson McCravy and Mrs. Kitty Stark McCravy Willson of Easley.

In 1931 he married Mrs. Margie Duckworth McMahan. (The Easley Progress, Jan., 29, 1942)
