EASLEY'S CEMETERIES: By C.T. Martin:

When the town was first incorporated there was an old family burying ground known as the Mansell grave yard. It is located on the old Pumpkintown road, just north of the colored cemetery, on land that was set apart for the purpose by one Joshua Mansell, who owned and resided on a tract of one hundred or more acres now embraced in wards four and five of the city.

At the time of the incorporation of the town this was the only burial ground in the town. The remains of the first citizens who died in the town were carried to the country church yards or family burying grounds in the vicinity. Some were carried to George's Creek, others to the Oates grave yard near old Pickensville, others to Carmel. One of the first deaths to occur in the city was Mrs Hendricks, wife of Mr Moses Hendricks, a merchant of the town. Mrs Hendricks died during the summer of 1875, and her remains were interred in the John Arial family burial ground two miles west of the city on the Pickens Road, as were also the remains of her husband a year later, August 1876.

They were the parents of Mr George Hendricks, now a well-known and successful farmer who resides four miles north of the city. George was only two or three years of age at the time of his mother's death.

The first person buried in the Methodist cemetery (Mt Olivet) was Miss Mary Jane Folder, the 17 year old daughter of Mr and Mrs A.M. Folger. Her death occurred on the 8 October 1879. A few days after Miss Folger's burial the remains of a child of Mr and Mrs J.B. Clyde's were exhumed from the Zion cemetery and reinterred near the grave of Miss Folger. A few days later the body of Mrs Thomas Watson a member of the Mt Olivet M.E. Church was also interred nearby, and on the 27th of Decemeber 1879, the body of Mr Tobert Cook, a young Englishman, who came to South Carolina from London a few years before, and settled on a part of Mr R.O. Williams' farm a few miles south of here, was interred here.

Mr Cook who had married a daughter of Lemeul G. Hamilton and was managing a cotton ginning plant, which was run by water, while engaged in repairing the water wheel, fell and died from the injury received. These four graves stood in a row not more than fifty feet south of the M.E. Church for several months before others were added.

By the year 1900 the plot between the church and the rail road had been covered with graves, and the subject of securing a lot for the town cemetery was being agitated. Mr W.A. Mauldin was one of the first persons in the town to take an interest in the proposition and he brought the matter to the attention of the town council. It resulted in the council purchasing a tract of five or six acres of land just west of and adjoining the M.E. Church property from the heirs of the late Luke I. Arial and having it cut into lots which were sold to citizens as needed for burial purposes.

The first plot was sold to Mt W.A. Mauldin in 1901 and the body of his wife, Mrs Sarah Martin Mauldin, was interred there in February 28th, 1902.

A coincidence, however, is the fact that the body of the first person buried in the new cemetery which had been given the name "West View" was that of a young lady, Miss Kate Hudgens. She was a daughter of Capt. And Mrs A.W. Hudgens. Like Miss Janie Folger, she was a beautiful young girl just blossoming into maidenhood. She died on the 26 September 1901.

Since that time many of the citizens of Easley and surrounding territory have found their last resting place in this beautiful lot and it will not be long until it too will be filled with graves. Already two additions of space have been added thereto. Many beautiful and costly monuments adorn the various plots, telling in many instances only the time of birth and death of the deceased.

There are also the graves of a number of Confederate veterans in both cemeteries. They have been marked with marble slabs placed there by the WM (William Mauldin) Easley Chapter U.D.C.'s and once each year their graves are covered with flowers by the members of the organization. Easley Progress 24 Nov 1927.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH CON'T

Traveled a great distance to worship.

It is unknown when slaves began to be accepted as members but by 1835 there were at least 12 "Colored female" members and 6 "Colored male" members. With 16 "White male" members and 21 "White female" members. The total membership September, 1835 was 55. At times the number of colored membership almost equaled the white membership. Some of those colored people were very devout which helps us to understand that the gospel is for all races. Glasgo, who belonged to Joseph Gresham, was baptized upon a profession of faith in 1835 with his master. His name remained on the church roll as late as the 1870's.

It is not unusual to find a church with a period of prosperity then something cause an unrestful period. It has already been noted that there was unrest during the period following 1815. It is unknown as to how long the period of unrest lasted but must have cleared up somewhat by 1830. An incident happened in 1835 that caused trouble: The case had been before the church prior to July 25, 1835 but the record begins by recording the outcome of the matter. Brother Hiram Wooten and the pastor, a Brother Chastain, had had some difficulty. Brother Wooten was guilty of other matters and gave the church and Rev. Chastain "Satisfaction." The church expressed their confidence for the pastor by a standing ovation. The church must have reserved some of their feelings because in October they voted that in case Bro. Chastain didn't want to serve another year they would choose Bro. James R. Smith." This they did in January, 1836.

During those days churches would have "arms of the church", called today "Missions". New Hope had an arm at Pickens Courthouse. It is unknown as to when it began but was withdrawn in 1835 after a lengthy discussion. On Saturday, September 2.

"Brether Gresham then submitted a statement of so much of the proceedings of the Arm Of The Church at Pickens Court House. He was informed that on the 18th. of June, 1834, Sister Lydia Hughey was received by letter; on Aug. 1., 1834 Colored Sister Sarah Curtis was received by letter; on June 21, 1835 Colored Sister Jane, belonging to Maj. Keith, by letter; others July 19, 1835: Colored Sister Mary belonging to Tarleton Lewis by experience; Aug. 16, 1835 Frances Foster by letter; Sarah Ann Clayton and Elizabeth O'Briant by experience. Also colored Jack belonging to S. Reid; Colored Hannah belonging to A. Craig; Colored Pricilla belonging to Bro. Gresham. On Sept. 6, Patsy belonging to Col. Morton; Hannah belonging to Mr. Reid, and Milley belonging to Bro. Gresham were received. All by experience were baptized in Keowee River."

There was a discussion about establishing arms of the church and belief that there was no scripture to authorize such proceedings. It was unanimously resolved that the arm at Pickens Courthouse be called in and discontinued. A committee of seven male members was appointed to go to Bro. Dawson and assure him of their prayers and hope that his labors would be rewarded by the salvation of many souls and tell him of the church action. They were authorized to open the doors of New Hope for the reception of members and dismiss any who desired. (Brother Thomas Dawson was a great preacher and missionary serving there. He had been for many years a teacher among the Indians. He had a very fruitful ministry over the years.)

The people were not satisfied with this action for in November, they voted to have a monthly conference for six months, in co-operation with Keowee Church. These meetings ended in April 1836.

September 12, 1835 there were 16 white male members: 21 white female members; 6 colored members: and 12 female colored members.

Male white: Morgan Morgan, Jeremiah Hubbard, James Cannon, William Watkins, Joseph Brewer, Ezekiel Hunnicutt, Patrick Hubbard, Henry Cobb, James S. Horton, Hiram Wooten, Mrlton Reese Hunnicutt, Martin Moss, Joseph Gresham, Lelanda Clanahan, J. R. Hunnicutt, Benjamin Segó.

Female White: Elizabeth Morgan, Mary Cannon, Ruby Swafford, Abigail Cobb, Sarah Clanshan, Elenor Hunnicutt, Jntheberry Hunnicutt, Belinda Ann Horton, Jane Smith, Aney Hunnicutt, Dicey Brewer, Susannah Mapengill, Susannah Kelley, Mourning Barton, Elizabeth Brewer, Elizabeth Bullard, Rebecca Moss, Harriett N. Clanahan, Sarah Ann Clayton, Elizabeth O'Briant, Lydia House.

Colored Males: Mose, Adam, Glasgo, Matt, Abram, George, Jack, Colored Females: Charlotte, Delilah, Jane, Vine, Hannah, Hannah, Jane, Mary, Patsy, Drilla, Milley, Binah.

Elder James R. Smith began his services at New Hope in 1836. The monthly conference was changed from the second to the fourth Lord's day and day before of each month. For a few months very little happened, but then there began to be additions to the church both by letter and by experience.

Joseph Gresham had joined the church by baptism in 1835. On September 29, 1836 he was licensed to the ministry as the sixth item of business: It was agreed to take Bro. Greshams gifts into consideration at the request of the Deacons. Bro. Gresham left the house and Bro. Welborn was appointed Clerk Pro-tem. It was then unanously agreed to liberate Bro. J. Grisham and do hereby advise him to exercise his gifts ministerially in the church and her bounds and elsewhere when legally called upon. On March 25, 1837 Elijah Collins was given the exhortation to use his gifts. These men and their ministry are discussed in another section.

Brother Brewer was elected treasurer of the church. He was the first to serve in this office.

Brother Smith served three years; much was accomplished during his ministry. Brother Thomas Dawson served as pastor for 1839.

Of Pickens District SC--being in a reasonable state of health, mind and memory and frequently calling to mind the mortality of my body I herein with my own hand set forth this as my last will and testament finally revoking and disannulling all others by me made heretofore and--

1st. Whatever land property I have or may have at my death I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth Norris to be for her use and support and the support of the family during her lifetime, but at her death the said land with its proceeds shall be the property of our little son Jesse P. Norris.

2nd. Also all money, notes and accounts that I may have I give to my wife Elizabeth with which she will pay my debts if any.

3rd. And as to all other property such as household, stock with a negro girl which my wife had at our marriage and for which I then gave her a quit claim title or written contract with a condition thereto which she holds specifying the whole matter, which I never claimed nor do claim as my right or personal property farther than the use and control of it for my support and the family according to the contents set forth in the said contract, all which I have nothing to do with or say here, but that she my wife dispose and manage it at her own discretion. Now as I believe that what is set forth in the above items to be justice and the same has been my will and plan for a number of years back. Because all the personal property and about two hundred dollars is notes and money I obtained with her my wife. The money with what I added to it about the same, we laid out for land--as such she is justly entitle to a home of her own when I am gone. In testimony of this my last will and testament I hereunto subscribe my name this 25 June eighteen hundred and fifty and fifty-six. Wit: John Ariail and Micajah
