Dear Ms Swank,

I live in MS and subscribed to the Old Pendleton District Newsletter several years ago in hope of finding any information about my gggrandparents Jesse and Rebecca Mayfield. They both were born in 1807 in the Pendleton District. Rebecca was the daughter of Nancy and Isham Green. Nancy was the daughter of Joseph Thompson, born 1747 and died 9 Oct. 1810, and mother Mary Thompson. Joseph Died in Anderson Co. S. C.

Their children: Joseph, born 1774 S. C. married Polly Harris.

Robert Thompson born 1776 S. C. married Elinor Dalrymple in Lauren Co. S. C. died after 1850 in Carroll Co. GA.

Ransom T. Thompson born 1778 S. C., married Ann Dalrymple 23 May, 1801 S. C. , died in Carroll Co. GA

Elizabeth Thompson, born 1780 S. C.

Nancy Thompson, born abt. 1781 married Isham Green. He died May , 1808 S. C.

Nancy then married Reverend Laudewick Orr.. He died 19 May 1822-1824. In Pendleton District.

William Thompson born 1787

Zachariah Thompson born 1788 Pendleton District , Married Charity Duckworth , died in Jasper Co. MS.

Rebecca Jane Thompson born 1783 or 1793 in Anderson Co. S. C. She married John L. Hunnicut 31 Oct 1884 and died in Cleburne Co. MS

John David Thompson born 5 Feb. 1803 S. C., married Peggy Gaddis.

Mary Jane Thompson, born 5 Feb. 1803 S. C. , Married Zabud Duckworth She died 28 Feb 1883 in Covington Co. MS.

Following the death of Joseph Thompson, many of the Thompsons moved to Gwinett and Carroll Co. GA.

Nancy Thompson married Isham Green and they had the following children.

Polly or Mary Green born Jan. 1802 Pendleton, married Joseph Duckworth 1820, died Feb. 1887 in MS.

Elizabeth Green

Rebecca Green born 1807 in Pendleton, married Jesse Mayfield, died after 1880 in Smith Co. MS

Nancy Green , married Henry Gurthie, died in Calhoun Co. Ala.

Isham Green, Jr., died in Gwinett Co. Ga.

I know nothing about Jessie Mayfield's father but think his name was John Mayfield. Reverand Orr , Rebecca's step-father was an Methodist Episcopal minister. I would appreciate an information that could help me learn who Jesse's parent's were .

Your article on the Bolling Family was very interesting. I was particularly interested in the Pocahontas and John Rolfe connection as Thomas Warren was an ancestor of mine. Several years ago, I had the pleasure of touring the Rolfe- Warren but did not know it is the oldest brick house in Virginia. Only the basement is part of the original house .and at the time I visited, it was known only as the Warren Home.

Looking forward to the next OLD PENDLETON DISTRICT NEWSLETTER,

Subject: Perritt family at Lebanon Methodist Church with Bollings & Dunklins

➤ Margarette— Please check for me to see what you can uncover about a William Perritt and family in the Community of Greenville County and Lebanon Church as per the latest newsletter. His name is on the marker in front of the church put up by DAR but I have nothing else except know he was tied in with Bolling and Dunklins, etc. He is listed as a rev. war "patriot" on the marker so the DAR had to have material in the files about him in order to include him on the marker, huh? Keep up the good work. My address is jerryalex@innova.net

Thanks, Jerry Alexander

➤ I forgot to mention that William Perritt was my g-g-g grandfather, and he had sons Alfred Perritt and Burr Perritt. Alfred will be seen in the Bolling genealogy line but William and his origins is the one I am interested in if you would like to insert query in next newsletter would be fine with me. My address is Jerry Alexander, box 1233, Seneca, S.C. 29679 and E-mail is jerryalex@innova.net

A Prayer for Genealogists

Lord, help me dig into the past
And sift the sands of time
That I may find the roots that made
That made this family of mine.
Lord, help me trace the ancient roads
On which my fathers trod
and led them through so many lands
to find our present sod.
Lord, help me find an ancient book
Or dusty manuscript
That's safely hidden now away
In some forgotten cryop.
Lord, let it bridge the gap that haunts
My soul when I can't find
The missing link between some names

OUR ANCESTORS

If you could see your ancestors
All standing in a row
Would you be proud of them or not
Or don't you really know?
Some strange discoveries are made
In climbing the family trees,
And some of them you know, do not particularly please.
If you could see your ancestors
All standing in a row,
There might be some of them perhaps
You wouldn't care to know.
But there's another question, which Requires a different view.

If you could meet your ancestors
Would they be proud of you.

WILLIAM BOLLING and AMELIA RANDOLPH
1731 - 1776 1739 - 1780 m. 1755

William Bolling, our 4th great grandfather, was born in Goochland County, Virginia on April 5, 1731, where his parents, John Bolling, Jr. and Elizabeth Blair Bolling were living on Bolling family lands, before taking over "Cobbs". William married Amelia Randolph on January 1, 1755 at "Curles Neck Plantation", Henrico County, the family home of the Randolphs on the James River. Amelia was William's first cousin once removed, her father Richard Randolph, Jr. being his first cousin. William was fifth generation and Amelia the sixth generation in descent from Pocahontas and John Rolfe.

William and Amelia lived in Henry County, in southern Virginia (formerly Pittsylvania and Lunenburg Counties) on land given them by her father, Richard, Jr. They also owned land in the same area from William's father.

By this time in history the colonists were moving south and west through the verdant forests, clearing land for cultivation. Traveling was difficult. Roads were practically non-existent -- Indian trails and paths were widened for carts and horses. I have included an article by Landon C. Bell telling about "William Bollings Path" - the description gives a good idea of the wilderness at this time.

The more civilized and populated areas along the James that William had known in his youth must have been a contrast to the area near the village of Martinsville where he raised his three sons, John, Archibald and Samuel (our 3rd great grandfather), and daughters, Amelia, Matoaka, Elizabeth and Anne.

One source of information says that William "joined the troopers as a sargeant and was with George Washington on the frontier during the French and Indian Wars in 1757". About eighteen years later, though about 45 years old, William with his three sons took the oath of allegiance to the American cause against George III, and enlisted with the Henry County militia. It is recorded in Martinsville records that Col. William Bolling died in service in 1776. It would be interesting to know the circumstances of his death since it was so early in the war. Apparently the militias of the various states were called upon to defend their areas, and to back up the Continental army. I have included copies that mention William and his sons from the deeds and records of Henry County.

William and Amelia died intestate, as far as I can tell. Notes say she died at her home in Henry County September 5, 1780 and was buried there. This was about the time that some of the Bollings decided to go south to South Carolina.

SAMUEL BOLLING and ABIGAIL CHOICE
1758 - 1808 1759 - 1832 m. 1777

Samuel Bolling, our great great great grandfather spent his youth in southern Virginia. His name appears as a witness in a probate proceeding in Pittsylvania County (became Henry Co. in 1776) on July 23, 1772. He wasn't quite fourteen years old at that time! He next appears in the records on Wednesday 27th of September 1775 where he was nominated as an Ensign in the Pittsylvania Co. militia at age seventeen. His future brother-in-law, Tully Choice was made a lieutenant. His father William and his two brothers, John and Archbald had also enlisted. A list of persons renouncing allegiance to Great Britain and swearing allegiance to the Commonwealth of Virginia in 1777 included John and Archibald Bolling and Tully Choice, Sr. and his two sons, Tully, Jr. and William Choice.

Samuel Bolling at age 19 married Abigail Choice on November 3, 1777. She was the daughter of Tully Choice, Sr. and Mary Duff Choice. A copy of Tully Choice's will from the Henry County records is dated November 2, 1777, the same day as the wedding of Samuel and his "beloved Abi". I suppose he had witnesses handy at the wedding and he thought "being weak of body" he had better make his will and provide for the care of his five younger children.

On September 6, 1780 Samuel and Abi sold 207 acres of land on Snow Creek in Henry County for 150 pounds sterling. This was land deeded to them earlier by Tully Choice, Sr. Note that Samuel's mother Amelia died the day before this deed was recorded, September 5, 1780.

With several small children the Bollings joined relatives and friends, Choices and Tarrants in particular, and headed for South Carolina and a new life. The upper counties of South Carolina were settled mostly by Virginians. The period after the Revolutionary War saw a great southern and western move by the colonists. In the years 1784, 1785 and 1786 Samuel took up land grants from the State of South Carolina in the 96th District later Laurens and Greenville counties. The old Indian Boundry line became the border between the two counties. The Indians were gradually pushed back and into the mountains. Copies of the grants, surveys and descriptions are included herein. He had two tracts of 250 and 132 acres on Rayborns Creek (several different spellings) below the Indian Boundry line one of these bordered on the west with land of Tully Choice, Jr, his brother-in-law. He had two other tracts, 410 acres on the waters of Horse Creek of the Reedy River and 282 acres on the Reedy River, making a total of 1,024 acres all in the same general area, paid for in pounds sterling. Samuel became a prosperous farmer.

Margarette Boyter Swank

The Randolph family of Virginia married into the Bolling family , also of Tidewater area of Virginia, as has been reported in the last two months and the lineage going back to John Rolfe and his wife, Pocahontas. These people traced back are my gr.....grandparents. If there is information that you would like, please contact me at my home address. Past reporting has made several mistakes and DAR has discredited some of it due to the errors. I have gone back to several sources and several connecting family lines. Henry Cook made a severe error in reporting on the Elizabeth Gaines – Benjamin Johnson line. He showed Thomas Gaines and Margaret Bush as the gr-grandparents of Lucinda Bolling. This was incorrect. Tully Bolling, a brother of Lucinda, married Caroline, daughter of Thomas Gaines and Margaret Bush. They are buried in lower Greenville County at the Fork Shoals Baptist Church. They are entombed in a crypt and her sister is also buried a few feet from her with her husband in another crypt. I visited the graveyard with Janet and Fred Crump.

Elizabeth Gaines, daughter of Rev. Henry Gaines, and Ann George Gaines, married in 1784, Benjamin Johnson, in Mt. Pony, at the F. T. Baptist Church, by the pastor, Rev William Mason, on the 19th of June 1784.

Their children were listed as:1- Catherine Johnson, born 1786. Married 1st, Lewis P. Featherstone, 1803, in Abbeville, S. C. Lewis died and Catherine remarried William A. Gaines, a cousin., son of Francis and Elizabeth Lewis Gaines. Francis was brother to Catherine's mother, Elizabeth Gaines.

2nd child of Elizabeth and Ben was. Henry Gaines Johnson, named for Rev. Henry Gaines, Elizabeth's father. Henry G. Johnson married his cousin, Mary Pendleton Gaines, daughter of Thomas Gaines and Margaret Bush Gaines. Thomas was brother to Rev Henry Gaines and they had all moved from North Carolina together.

3rd child of Elizabeth and Ben was James Gaines Johnson, born 11 May 1788, in North Carolina. He married Lucinda Bolling, daughter of Samuel Bolling and Abigail Choice. This is verified by the Lebanon Methodist Church records and they are my 4th great-grandparents. They had 12 children, list on next page. They are buried at old Gaines Chapel at Ware Shoals, S. C.

4th child of Elizabeth and Ben was Mary Johnson, born 1797, who married Charles Kay, who was a grgrandmother of Col. Franklin Spearman, who gave me the first proof of this information.

5th child of Elizabeth and Ben was Lemuel Johnson, according to the tombston at Reidville, S. C. , Sharon Methodist Church. Cemetery. He married Mary Polly Leonard , daughter of Jonas Leonard, who gave the property to build the Church. Both are buried there.

6th child was Walter Gabriel Johnson, born 1806 .

7th child was Mark M Johnson, born 1808.

There is a great possibility that Elizabeth was Benjamin's 2nd wife.. . He died in 1814 and is buried at Gaines Chapel at Ware Shoals. According to the present property owners, his property connected to Rev. Henry Gaines property in the Mt Gallagher Community, as it is known today. There is now a road out to the Cemetery but the church burned from a lightening strike in the 1920's. There was a road there when the church was built, but later property owners Closed it after the church burned, until recently. Elizabeth is buried there, also.

Listing of James Gaines Johnson and Lucinda Bolling 's Children—all 12

1 Matilda Ann Johnson- born 13 Feb 1811- married a cousin , John Boswell, Jr, and they are my 3rd gr-grandparents. His father was John Boswell, Sr, who married Elizabeth Williams Mallin, a widow. John Boswell, Sr,' s father was James Lemuel Boswell and his mother was Susan Bolling, daughter of John Bolling, Jr and Elizabeth Blair. Linda Cheek and Melanie Edwards are also grandchildren of these people.

2 Mary Elizabeth Johnson

#3 Abigail Anne Johnson

4 Henry A. Johnson

5 Nancy M Johnsom

6 Samuel Valentine Johnson

#7 Benjamin C. Johnson.....James C. Johnson's 3rd greatgrandfather

8 James Johnson, Jr

#9 Thornbury B. Johnson -Named for Lucinda's brother who died unmarried

#10 Lucinda Johnson

#11 Tully Johnson

12 Sarah Johnson

James Gaines Johnson signed a loan agreement when he let John Boswell have money for a crop in Spartanburg county. This is where we find his middle name and initial.

James Johnson married the 2nd time to Julia Ann Mattison, and they had three children.

1 Mary Amanda Johnson

2 Harriett Louisa Johnson

3 Gabriel Walter Johnson

James Johnson, Lucinda Bolling Johnson and Julia Ann Mattison Johnson are all buried at Gaines Chapel. Some of these people do not have tombstones that can be read due to time and the rocks used and turned over by the cattle that was let into this pasture. The records come from burial notices and newspaper accounts of the deaths. James Johnson sold his property at Abner Creek in Spartanburg county and moved back to Ware Shoals, after he sold the farm to David Quarles. Record of sale in Spartanburg Records.

Matilda Johnson and John Boswell, Jr. had Thomas A. Boswell, (Melanie's grandfather) Mary Ann Boswell, (My grgrgrandmother,) . as a second wife married Riley Alonzo Rankin Christopher....They had 11 children (1 set of twins). She died and he married Julia Lark, .They had 5 children. The Riggins family at Central are grandchildren from this marriage. Mary Ann Boswell was the 2nd wife of Riley Christopher. She was the mother of Newton Anderson Christopher, longtime auditor of Pickens County, James Albert, John Vandiver, (My greatgrandfather), Anna (Who married John Sheppard, Jr.), Mary Elizabeth, who died as a baby, Robert, who died before 21 years old, Elbert and Madison, the Twins, Elias , Riley, Jr and William.....

Simon and Thomas married the Moore sisters from Duncan, and both were in the Civil War. John died, after going to Alabama with Simon, and there was Amanda, RoseEllen, Louisa , Margaret Elizabeth, (Linda Cheek's grandmother)and James, who was a builder. He built the old City Hall at Easley. John Boswell, Jr had a buggy wreck at Williams Creek at Duncan (Vernonsville, then) and died from a broken neck. He had been to pay his property taxes at Reidville and in the dark the buggy got off the road at the Creek and turned over. We think he is buried in the old cemetery at Abner Creek. Matilda was a member there. She is buried at George's Creek with Margaret and Bennett Smith, the daughter and son-in-law, She joined the 1st Baptist at Easley, according to the records. The son Thomas and his wife, Frances Moore, are buried at Zoar Methodist Church at Greer, S. C. Simone and Jane his wife, moved to Alabama and John went with them. All died there. James's wife remarried and they moved to Georgia. Rosa Ellen married a Penland and is buried in North Carolina. Louisa married a Pickens and they were in Swannanoa, N. C. Rose Ellen's daughter is the source of several of the written records out of North Carolina, including the death notice with Matilda's name and place of Birth., as well as John Boswell, Jr. North Carolina Death Certificate for Rose Ellen. There was Corner's inquest on the death of John Boswell, Jr. in Spartanburg County.

John Boswell, Sr had with Elizabeth, a son William, a daughter, Elizabeth , a son Alexander, and John Boswell, Jr. John Jr was the 2nd son, Alexander the last. Elizabeth Boswell's marriage was a public ceremony at the Cross Road near Green Pond and is duly recorded in the records of Spartanburg County. William Boswell had property bought for him by his father before he was old enough to buy it himself, at Hobbysville, near Woodruff, S.C., and is duly recorded in the Spartanburg Records. Somewhere along the way the name was changed in spelling to BASWELL, although in the 1845 records in Spartanburg, it was Boswell, by the court of Equity, and Earle Bomar, Justice. Originally it was Boswell, in Scotland. In Georgia it was changed again to BRASWELL, so if you choose to do research, remember all the different ways it has been spelled. John and Matilda both wrote their names. When she signed her dowry when they sold and bought more property in 1845, she signed Matilda A Boswell. This is where we get the additional initial in her name.

The Boswell family was out of Person County in North Carolina and should you do Research on the Johnsons, the Boswells, the Bollings, the Griggs, the Featherstones, the Wingoos, the Seays, the Gaines, the Fosters, the Greens, the Dills, the Rogers, the Pearsons, all these people came out of Virginia together and settled along with others, the upstate. The Sheppards came out of Virginia, with the Smiths, the Vaughans, and you guessed it, the Yeargins. Records of early settlers give out all these names. They married and intermarried, and had large families.

We find a lot of these early relatives in Amelia County, and as part of the Lewis family, the Carters, the Lees, the Jeffersons, the Blands, (Elizabeth Blair Bolling was the Third wife of Richard Bland. His first wife was Anne Poythress) , as well as the Stewarts.

I get teased about being "KIN" to everyone. I keep saying, "I can prove it, can you?" After 61 years of researching, thanks to a teacher in high school that was "KIN" to me too, but I did not know it then. Sarah Ellison Pitts, older sister to Dr. Elizabeth Ellison. She had a way of making sure you did it correctly and documented each piece of research. I was taught well and the family became important, I wanted to know who I came from, where they came from, what they did for a living. AND who they were kin to, also, as they were part of my genes, also. Each generation adds a couple or three names to the mix, and it keeps going.... Your Editor.....

Larkin Gambrell Clardy was born September 16, 1841. He was a son of Joab Mauldin Clardy (22 Sept 1814 - 3 Sept 1882) and Mary Pollie (Gambrell) Clardy (6 May 1821 - 27 July 1892).

This Confederate soldier was a private in Co. D, 18th South Carolina Infantry, C.S.A., and he died of disease July 1, 1864, during the American Civil War. He was buried in Hollywood Cemetery in Richmond, Virginia.

James Daniel Clardy, who was Larkin's brother, also served in Company D, 18th South Carolina Infantry, C.S.A. The brother was born February 20, 1843, and he died April 5, 1863, during the war. He was buried in the Clardy family cemetery at Pelzer on the Saluda River and near the line between Greenville and Anderson counties in South Carolina.

Major McRunnels was a private in Co. H, 2nd South Carolina Rifles. He was wounded at Richmond, Virginia, but survived the war.

Lucius Soule McSwain (1846-1896) was a native of Union County, S. C., and served in Co. C, 6th South Carolina Cavalry. He married Felicia Sanford (1855-1954). This soldier died on 5 Oct 1896. He was buried in Mt. View Cemetery in Seneca (Oconee Co.), South Carolina.

John McSwearington served in the CSA, and his name was included on the 1899 list of Civil War pensioners in Pickens County, S. C.

Allen (or Alden) D. McWhorter was a son of John McWhorter (b. ca 1819) and Harriet McWhorter (b. ca 1826). This family resided on a 116-acre farm situated about one mile north of Pickensville (now Easley), S. C. This soldier served in Co. C, 4th South Carolina Cavalry; he survived the Civil War. (Note: On 10 Aug 1871, Allen McWhorter married Nancy Harrison in the western division of Pickens District (now Oconee County), S. C. Was he the same man listed above?)

George McWhorter was born about 1836. He enlisted at Pendleton, S. C., 14 Apr 1861 and served as a private in Co. I, Palmetto Sharpshooters and was present at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, when the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia surrendered to the Union Army of the Potomac. (Was he a brother of James Baylus McWhorter and William Wesley McWhorter, both of whom also served in the CSA? Moreover, was he a son of Robert and Jane McWhorter?)

M. L. McWhorter was enrolled in the CSA in Pickens District, S. C., in January 1862 and served in Co. C, 4th South Carolina Cavalry. Although he was wounded at Cold Harbor, Virginia, McWhorter served in the Army until April 1865 when his unit surrendered to Union troops near Greensboro, N. C. After the Civil War, this veteran moved to Georgia.

Martin Monroe McWhorter was born about 1835. He enlisted in the CSA at Walhalla, S. C., 17 Dec 1861 and was a member of Co. A, 20th South Carolina Infantry. He died of typhoid fever 16 Mar 1863 on Sullivan's Island, S.C., and was buried in Magnolia Cemetery at Charleston, S. C. His wife was Malissa Caroline (McCall) McWhorter (b. ca 1854) in Rabun County, Georgia. Their offspring were Martha Jane (b. 1855), Evelyn S. (b. 1860) and Will J. (b. 1862).

W. M. (or W. F.) McWhorter served in Co. D (Gist Rifles), Hampton Legion. (No additional information available)

Robert Epps McWhorter (1833-1903) was a son of John Henry McWhorter (1801-1857) and Dorothy Gant "Dolly" (Major) McWhorter (1803-1863). On 23 Dec 1856, this soldier married Susannah Marie Douthit and later served in the CSA. The McWhorters had the following children: John Benjamin Douthit, Charles L. McWhorter, Rosa Anne McWhorter, James Gambrell McWhorter, Edward Ellis McWhorter, Minnie Lee McWhorter, and Samuel Seaborn McWhorter. This Confederate veteran was buried in Franklin County, Georgia.

William Alfred McWhorter (1843-1897) served in the CSA as a first corporal in Co. E, 2nd South Carolina Rifles (Moore's Regt.). He married Louisa (Louise) Doyle (30 Nov 1841-23 Feb 1879), who died in Georgia and was survived by her husband and nine children. This Confederate soldier was a son of John Henry McWhorter (1801-1857) and Dorothy Grant "Dolly" (Major) McWhorter (1803-1863). He was also a brother of James Alva McWhorter and Robert Epps McWhorter, both of whom also fought in the Civil War. One of William Alfred McWhorter's sons was J. Lee McWhorter, a successful Atlanta merchant and an agent for Knoxville City Mills.

William D. McWhorter served as a private in Co. A, 1st S. C. Rifles. He was a hospital steward.

William F. McWhorter (1844-1862) joined Enon Baptist Church in Pickens District 2 Aug 1860. Later, he was a member of Co. D (Gist Rifles), Hampton Legion. He was a son of James and Judy McWhorter. This man was severely wounded during the Battle of Seven Pines in Virginia on 31 May 1862. He then returned to South Carolina where he died at his home 13 Jun 1862. (One source listed the place of his death as Seven Pines, VA.).

William Wesley McWhorter (1847-1925) was born 14 Jul 1847. He served in Co. D, 1st South Carolina State Troops while he was still in his teens. He was enrolled in that unit in September 1864. He was paroled at Spartanburg, S. C., in the spring of 1865. This Confederate soldier married Savilla J. Welborn (22 Jan 1857 - 15 Jun 1938). He attended the annual Confederate Veterans Day event at Pickens, S. C., on 3 June 1915. In 1922, he was receiving a Civil War pension in Pickens County. He died 2 Nov 1925 and was buried at Enon Baptist Church near Easley, S.C.

George W. Mackey was born about 1836, a son of Martin S. Mackey (b. ca 1810) and Martha Mackey (b. ca 1815). In the spring of 1861, he enlisted in Co. D (Fort Hill Guards), 4th South Carolina Infantry (Volunteers) at Pendleton, S. C.

Charles D. Madden died of battle wounds 28 Oct 1862 at Frederick, MD, and was buried there in Mt. Olivet Cemetery (grave no. 156).

O. A. Madden (1841-1871) is believed to have been buried in an unmarked grave in Mt. Zion Cemetery, located in Central (Pickens County), S. C. (Could this man be Obed Madden, who served in Co. F, Hampton Legion?)

J. M. Madden died 1 Jul 1864 at Richmond, Virginia, where he was buried in Hollywood Cemetery (grave no. U32).

Ansel Magill was a member of Co. H, 3rd South Carolina Reserves between June 1862 and Jan 1863. His wife was Hannah Magill who received a Civil War widow's pension in the 1920s. At that time, she was a resident of Pickens township in Pickens County, S. C. She died 5 Jan 1931.

Daniel Magill enlisted in Co. K (Fort Hill Guards), 4th South Carolina Inf. (Sloan's Regt.) at Pendleton S. C., on 2 Jun 1861. He was a 5th sergeant and was promoted to 4th sergeant 22 Jul 1861. On 15 Aug 1861, he was promoted to 3rd sergeant. This soldier's name was listed on his company's muster roll of 31 Aug 1861 but not on the unit's roll of 31 Dec 1861 because he left the company when he was promoted to sergeant major.

W. P. Mahaffey served as a private in Co. K, 12th South Carolina Infantry. No additional information available.

Harrison Manley was born about 1827. He served as a member of Co. K, 1st North Carolina Cavalry. In 1901, he resided in Central township of Pickens County, S. C., and received a Civil War pension. His age was recorded as 74 years in pension records at that time.

Henry Manley was born about 1845, a son of William Manley (b. ca 1801) and Cynthia Manley (b. ca 1806) of what today is the Central township of Pickens County, S. C. He served as a private in Co. E, 2nd South Carolina Rifles (Moore's Regt.). He survived the Civil War and was present at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, when the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia surrendered to the Union Army of the Potomac. This soldier was a brother of William O. Manley and Thomas Manley, both of whom also fought in the American Civil War.

J. P. (or P. F.) Manley died of battle wounds 7 Aug 1864 at the crater at Petersburg, Virginia. His body was placed in the cemetery of Blandford Church in Virginia. He served as a private in Co. F, 22nd South Carolina Infantry.

James M. Manley was killed in action at Riddle's Shop in Virginia, on 28 Jul 1864 while serving as a private in Hampton Legion, CSA.

Martin Manley was a private in Co. E, 2nd South Carolina Rifles (Moore's Regt.). No additional information available.

Thomas J. Manley was born about 1841. He served as a private in Co. E, 2nd South Carolina Rifles (Moore's Regt.). He was a son of William Manley (b. ca 1801) and Cynthia Manley (b. ca 1806). Two of his brothers also fought in the Civil War, and they were Henry and Wm. O. Manley.

Robert Manley served in Co. I, 1st South Carolina Rifles (Orr's Regt.). He was listed in military records as a deserter of the Confederate States Army.

Tyre Manley died at Petersburg, VA, 5 Jun 1864. He had served as a corporal in Co. D, 22nd South Carolina Infantry, CSA.

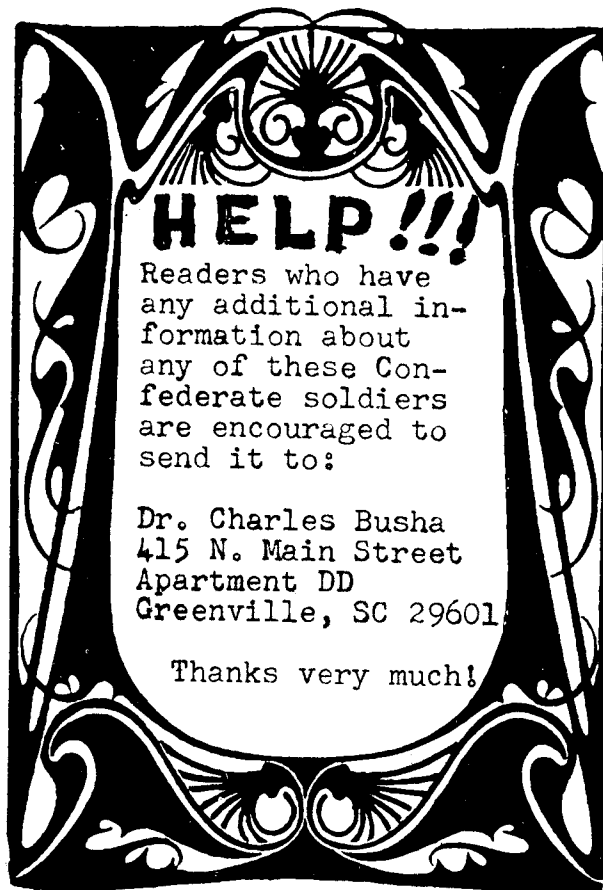

William O. Manley was a son of William and Cynthia Manley. He served as a private in Co. E, 2nd South Carolina Rifles (Moore's Regt.) and was wounded on Darby Town Road in VA. on 7 Oct 1862(?). This soldier survived the war and returned to his home in South Carolina. He died sometime in the 1870s, and his estate was administered by S. W. Clayton in December 1878. This Confederate veteran was a brother of Henry Manley and Thomas Manley, both of whom were also soldiers during the U. S. Civil War.

Aaron Mann served as a private in Co. B, 1st South Carolina State Troops between June 1862 and January 1863. He was also a member of Co. K, 3rd South Carolina Reserves during the Civil War.

Aaron A. "Daniel" Mann was born about 1824, a son of Lewis Mann of Pickens District, S. C. He served as a private in Co. I, Palmetto Sharpshooters and died of typhoid fever 1 Jul 1864 at Richmond, Virginia. (In one source, this soldier's death date is recorded as 19 Jul 1864 and at Jackson Hospital in Richmond.) This soldier's wife was Frances C. Mann (12 Mar 1826 - 8 Mar 1889). In 1888 she resided in the Gates community of Pickens County, S. C. She died the following year and was buried at Six Mile Baptist Church in Pickens County, S. C. Aaron Daniel Mann, a son of this soldier, was born in 1865 and died in 1958. He married Laura Tompkins (1868-1948). This soldier's daughter Athlencia Mann married Tully Huelet Holliday, Jr.

Alfred K. Mann was a son of Thomas Crawford Mann and a brother of Samuel H. Mann, CSA. This soldier served in Co. E, 20th South Carolina Infantry during the Civil War. No additional information available.
