Death of Carter Clayton Porter
Born 24 Dec 1827
Died 2 Jun 1920

Carter Clayton Porter died last Wednesday morning, June 2, 1920, at 7:25 o'clock, at the home of his son, James T. Porter, of Forest Park, GA. His death was the result of old age. Mr. Porter was born in Old Pickens District, SC, December 24, 1827, being 92 years, 5 months and 8 days old. He was a son of the late James Porter who died at 100 years of age, less four days. He is buried at the cemetery of the First Westminster Baptist Church.

Mr. Porter lived at Old Pickens District, near the head of Twelve Mile river, until 1872, when he moved with his family to Oconee county, near Westminster, on Colonel's Fork creek. He was married to Miss Malinda Robertson, of Old Pickens, on August 1, 1858, to whom five children were born. One child died in infancy. The union was of 58 years duration, until his wife preceded him to the grave about four years ago.

He lived in Oconee until about four years ago, when he moved with his son to Forest Park, GA. He was well and favorably known to many of the citizens of Pickens and Oconee counties.

Mr. Porter served in the Confederate army in the Civil war for four years and six months. He was a member of Gen. Boureguard's and Capt. Bloodsaw's Battery, Western army, and served in every battle engaged in by this battery and fought Sherman's army from Vicksburg, Mississippi, and on through Georgia. He was captured at Salisbury, NC, on April 13, 1865, and carried to Camp Chase, Ohio, and put in prison. He was released on June 28, 1865. He came to Cartersville, GA, by train and walked there to Old Pickens, arriving July 5, 1865. He fired the last cannon shot in the War Between the States. Mr. Porter went through the war without a wound of any kind.

Mr. Porter was a member of the Methodist church, having joined the church at Old Pickens at the age of twelve years. He lived the life of a Christian and strictly observed the rules of his church. He was conscientious and was of the old Methodist type. He and his father were what is known as "shouting Methodists," but they felt the religion of Jesus Christ and lived it every day of their lives. Mr. Porter always made friends instead of enemies and has many acquaintances in Pickens, Oconee and Georgia can testify to this fact. He had lived the life of a good man, and in old age his "lamp went out," He was called from labor to refreshments to "that house eternal in the heavens" to "that house eternal in the Heavens" by Lord, who giveth all good and perfect gifts."

Mr. Porter was buried at Jones' Chapel, Forest Park, GA on Thursday afternoon, by the side of his wife, with impressive and solemn burial ceremonies of the Masonic order, by Forest Park Lodge No. 809, according to his request.

The deceased is survived by the following children:

Jas. T. Porter, Forest Park, GA;

Mrs. John W. Brock, of Central;

W.C. Porter, El Paso, Texas,

and Dr. F.S. Porter, of Greer, to whom the sympathy of many friends and acquaintances is extended. He "fought a good fight" and is now enjoying the "fruits" of his labor. W.

Mrs. Malinda Porter
Died at Forest Park, GA last Wednesday – Was Well Known in Oconee
Born 3 Aug 1931
Died 26 Sep 1916

Mrs. Malinda T. Porter, wife of Mr. C.C. Porter, who fell and broke her hip on the evening of June 26th, died at the home of her son, Mr. Jas. T. Porter, of Forest Park, GA, last Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Porter fell and sustained injuries in her hip while in her room Monday night and her condition was considered grave from the first. She never regained consciousness. All of the children were at her bedside when the end came except the second son, W.C. Porter, who resides at El Paso, Texas. He could not come on account of the serious illness of his son. The announcement of the death of this estimable lady was received with much sadness by her friends and acquaintances in and around Westminster, where she had spent most of her long and useful life.

Mrs. Porter was in her 86th year, having been born August 8, 1830. Her maiden name was Robertson and she was reared in Pickens county. She and Mr. Porter had been married upwards of 55 years. In 1872 they settled on Colonel's Fork Creek, the plantation now owned by T.N. Carter. Some fifteen years ago the family moved into the Taber section, where they resided until last December, Mr. and Mrs. Porter having moved to Forest Park with their son.

Surviving are her aged husband, C.C. Porter, who is 89 years old; three sons,
J.T. of Forest Park;
William C. Porter, of El Paso, Texas;
Dr. F.S. Porter, of Pickens, and one daughter, Mrs. Unity V. Brock, of Central, and a number of grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Of a large family of brothers and sisters only one, Mrs. J.O. Armstrong, of near Return, is now living.

Mrs. Porter united with the Methodist church many years ago and lived an exemplary Christian life. At the time of her death her membership was at Forest Park. "Granny" Porter, as she was familiar known, had read the Bible through ten to twelve times.

Funeral services were conducted at the home in Forest Park Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock by her pastor, in the presence of many sympathizing friends. Her body was interred in the cemetery at Forest Park at the conclusion of the funeral.

Memoirs of the lower Ohio Valley: Personal and Genealogical, Volume 2 by Federal Publishing Company. p. 306

JOHN C. ANDERSON, a farmer and stock dealer, living near Omaha, Ill., is a descendant of one of the oldest families in that portion of the Lower Ohio Valley. His grandfather, Solomon Anderson, was born in South Carolina, Feb. 8, 1806, his parents being James and Polly Anderson.

On May 5, 1830, Anderson was married to Margaret Williams of Kentucky, she being at the time of her marriage but fifteen years of age, and soon afterward settled in Posey county, Ind., on the site of the village of old Springfield. There he followed the occupations of farming and shoemaking, and achieved quite a reputation as a hunter and trapper.

The children of Solomon and Margaret Anderson were William N., Urbane, Asa C, Nancy, Martha, Margaret, Mary E., John and Elias.

William N. was born Sept. 2, 1831, and died Dec. 26, 1857. He married Mary A. Rusher, daughter of Jerry Rusher, who came from North Carolina in pioneer days and settled in Posey county. This couple was the parents of John C. Anderson, the subject of this sketch, who was born in White county, Ill., Dec. 20, 1854. When he was but three weeks old his parents removed to Posey county, and there he grew to manhood on his father's farm. At the age of twenty-one years he started out for himself.

On Sept. 6, 1877, he was married to Miss Hannah Downen and in October came to Gallatin county, locating on the farm where he now lives, only thirty acres of which was at that time under cultivation. For two and a half years he lived in a log cabin, when he built a better house, and by his own industry he has cleared 125 acres of land, leaving only about twelve or thirteen acres of his farm that is not now under cultivation.

Mr. Anderson buys and ships a great deal of live stock, most of which is shipped from Omaha. He has followed this business in addition to his farming interests for about fourteen years, and has been very successful as a stock dealer. He is a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and in politics is independent, voting for the man rather than for the candidate of any particular party. He and his wife have the following children: William L., Bertha, Stella M., Julia H., Mary A., Dora and Audrey.

Report of Commissioner of Immigration. 18 May 1868. Thirty-one persons have registered and found employment in SC. Twenty persons on the way from Germany and Scandinavia, via Baltimore, and may arrive in a few days. The registries of lands now embrace 332,660 acres, in almost every district of the State, for sale at reasonable rates and on favorable conditions; and nearly 6,000 acres of good lands in salubrious sections of the State have been registered to be given as a free donation to actual settlers upon reasonable conditions of improvement. . . . The railroads from Charleston to Memphis being willing to transport immigrant passengers at one cent per mile, and their baggage at very reduced rates, would make this route to the West a more favorable one than over either New York or Baltimore. (More Details) John A. Wagener, Commissioner of Immigration. (Front Page Article)

First cotton bloom shown by Mr. M. Stokes of this District on June 29th.

Five lots sold at Pickens, location of the new Court House for an average of $90, containing ½ to 2 acres.

Mr. Morris Miller of this District reports that during a thunder storm he had five head of cattle killed by lightning, four fine milch cows.

Immigration. Published by Request. Down in SC is brother Boinest who lives in Pomaria and is the President of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of SC. Boinest wrote that he wanted a "German family for his farm. At New Year, 1868, I was enabled through the help of Mr. Erbe, the Superintendent of the Intelligence office at Castel Garden, to find such a family, with seven children, honest and intelligent, but poor and needy, waiting at Wards (the great waiting depot for poor immigrants.).” The parents became members of the congregation and took Lord’s Supper where Boinest celebrated it in German. Meeting in district about German immigration, Boinest became president of group. Fifteen hundred dollars contributed. Bro. B. came to take a number of immigrants immediately. The ages are to be from $8 to $10 per month. Next year they will give land to the families to work in shares—say 100 acres. The laborer has only to procure his support and for his work receives the third part of the crop. An opportunity is given to acquire land for themselves, which can be had at present rate of from four to six dollars per acres. The traveling expenses are advanced, and will be reimbursed at the close of the year. . . . Last Saturday I stood with Bro. B. at 2 o’clock, p.m. in the steerage of the steamer Charleston. . . . There were seventeen people there to greet the “small band of immigrants”.

FORMER FAMILIES OF NUBBIN RIDGE IN OCONEE COUNTY

Part Two

By Charles H. Busha

THE KING FAMILY

John Hester King (b. ca. 1830-d. 1862) was born in North Carolina and was a son of Robert King (b. ca. 1791-d. 1880) and Lavenia (Horton) King (b. ca. 1800-d.ca. 1885). At the age of thirty-two, John Hester King was conscripted into the Confederate States Army on July 1, 1862. Then he served as a private under Capt. Wallace in Co. C and Co. B of the 2nd S.C. Infantry. This soldier was described in military records as a married farmer who was 5 feet and 10 inches tall, had fair complexion, and dark eyes/hair. Before the Civil War, he married Mary A. Chastain (1828-1909), daughter of Stephen and Mary Chastain. Private King died of pneumonia while in service on December 19, 1862. He was buried in Oakwood Cemetery in Richmond, Virginia (Section 155, Row M, Div. A). His three children were:

- (1) Robert William King (1854-1933), who married Matilda June Mason (1853-1902).
- (2) Rufus Hezekiah King (1859-1917), who married Molly (Kennedy) King (1861-1932).
- (3) Richard D. King (1862-1942), who married Lucille "Lou" or "Polly" Smith.

In 1899, Mary A. King, widow of this Confederate soldier, was a recipient of a Civil War widow's pension in Oconee County, S.C. She died on March 31, 1909, and was buried at Oakway Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Robert Canady King (b. ca. 1834-d.1862), was a native of North Carolina, but he moved to South Carolina with his parents who settled on Nubbin Ridge. He was a younger brother of John Hester King, a subject of the previous sketch and who also served in the Confederate States Army. When Robert was about thirty years of age, he enlisted in Capt. Ramsey's Co, 4th S.C. Infantry Volunteers (Sloan's Regiment). He is believed to have also served in Co. F, 1st S.C. Rifles (Orr's Regiment). This soldier was wounded during the Battle of Gaines' Mill in Virginia, during which General Robert E. Lee's troops won a victory. The engagement was one of the Seven Days' battles in the defense of Richmond, and it was a bloody struggle. About 8,750 Confederate soldiers were casualties of the battle. After the Civil War, many upstate soldiers who fought at Gaines' Mill would remember it as one of the fiercest clashes of the war. On December 13, 1862, Robert Canady King was killed in action during the First Battle of Fredericksburg in Virginia. That battle was a major engagement between a smaller

Confederate Army and the much larger Union Army of the Potomac, which was commanded by General Ambrose E. Burnside. The military clash became General Lee's most one-sided victory of the American Civil War. About 12,653 Union troops were casualties of that struggle, and the South's losses amounted to 4,201 casualties. Prior to the Civil War, Robert Canady King married Eliza Newell (21 Oct 1834-9 Sept 1903), and the couple had the following five children:

- (1) James Austin King (12 Dec 1854-19 Oct 1940), who married Martha Elmira Dodd.
- (2) William Lucas King (25 May 1858-16 Jan 1938), who married Malissa Cox.
- (3) Baylus Earl King (13 Apr 1861-4 Sept 1928), who, on December 14, 1879, married Sarah Jane Todd (3 Sept 1857-7 Apr 1948).
- (4) Roxy King, who married Irvin Pelfrey
- (5) Samuel King, who married Annie Mac York.

Another King family in the Oakway area was that of Sylverter Bleckley King (1870-1951) and his wife, F. Mae (Bearden) King (b.1877). Their children were Lesley Claude King, Edwin King, Elmo King, Alton King, Harold King and Elise King.

Keowee Courier, dated February 22, 1911 states: "Married by Hon. J. D. They had a son, Lewis Thompson Carroll - my father, born September, 1916 and died January, 1975. Their witnesses were: Kedron Heller; Ben Simpson; Rosalee Heller (Ben later married Rosalee) and Louis Heller. These Hellers were from Caroline Hannah Heller's side of the family. I have also attached a picture of the John Peter Carroll family of which we think was taken in 1903? My grandmother, Cora Jaynes Carroll is pictured with Tillman and the rest of the Carroll family. Peter Carroll Family

Death of John P. Carroll
Tugaloo Tribune, 22 Jul 1924

Mr. John Peter Carroll one of the most substantial farmers of the Oakway section, died at his home near that place, Saturday morning 19th of paralysis. The death of this good man will bring genuine sorrow to all who knew him. He had lived on the Oakway road for about thirty-eight years and all who knew him admired him for his noble traits of character and his neighborly kindness. Mr Carroll was a native of Anderson County and came to Oconee in the eighties. His wife was, before marriage, Miss Mary Hobson a daughter of the late James Hobson and sister of Mr. L.H.V. Hobson of Westminster. Surviving are his widow, five sons, Messrs. M.S., J.C., I.R., L.L., and G.N. Carroll and three daughters, Mrs Anna Gray, of Central and Misses Della and Lillie Carroll at home. He leaves one brother, Mr. Wm. T. (Thomas) Carroll of Oconee. Mr. Carroll was a model farmer of his section and always made plenty of everything grown on the farm. He will be missed in his community. The deceased had been a member of the Oakway Wesleyan Methodist Church many years. His funeral was conducted on Sunday by Rev. John Cary of Clemson College and the internment made in the Wesleyan Cemetery in the presence of many relatives and friends. Mr. D.G. Sheldon was undertaker and in charge of the burial. Mr. Carroll was in his 79th year having been born August 16, 1845. William Thomas Carroll was my gg grandfather. Vivian Carroll Parkman. cpvp@comcast.net

Owned 201 acres on Wolf Creek in the 96th District SC 1787

200 acres on Reedy River in the 96th District SC 1785 (I believe this is the same James Bruce)

Will states wife's name as Mary (no maiden name).

Children listed in will are: William, Patience, James, John, Daniel, Sarah, Rebecca, Mary, George

He is shown on the 1790 - 1810 Censuses for Pendleton.

1800 Census Book by William C. Stewart, p. 81.

"Association and several land deal connections indicate that the Bruce family in Greenville and Pendleton Districts may have been related to the William Bruce who moved from Albemarle County, VA to Surry County, NC where in 1790 he was a neighbor to a Stewart family that moved subsequently to Greenville District. Land on Saluda River in Pendleton was granted to William Bruce 4 Jan 1790 and sold by Bruce to William Laffoon 20 Mar 1793, with John Keith from Wilkes County, NC as a witness. James Bruce was living on Wolf Creek of 12-Mile River 28 Dec 1792, when land adjacent to his farm was sold by Benjamin Perry to Jonas Hill. The land was granted to Perry 4 Jun 1786. William Stewart of Greenville District bought in 1801 land on Clear Creek in Greenville from Charles Bruce; he seems to have had some connection with William Stewart of Pendleton District (not the William Stewart above) who sold 8 Mar 1796, to William Bruce, land on Carpenter's (formerly Warrior's) Creek, a fork of Saluda River. John Bruce was a witness."
