The State of South Carolina,
Anderson DISTRICT.

I, John W. Daniels Clerk of the Court of General Sessions and Common Pleas for the District and State aforesaid, do hereby certify that William L. Bolt has exhibited to me satisfactory evidence that he is a citizen of this State, and resides within this District. That he lost his leg during the recent war in the service of the Country, and that he is entitled to the benefit of the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly, "To provide Artificial Legs to all citizens of the State who have lost their legs during the recent war," approved December 20th, 1866.

Given under my Hand and Seal of Office, the 2nd day of May 1867.

John W. Daniels
Clerk of the Court for Anderson District.

ORIGINAL.

State of South Carolina,
Anderson County.

make a fair record of the same, and within three months after such return shall transmit the original plat to the office of the surveyor general of the State for the time being, where the same shall be delivered.

[To be appointed in the same manner as surveyor general.]

- IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each and every of the said commissioners of locations shall be appointed in the same manner as the surveyor general is by law to be appointed, and shall enter into bond for the faithful discharge of his duty, together with two good and sufficient securities, in the full and just sum of ten thousand pounds sterling, payable to the treasurers of this State, and shall also, at the same time, before some magistrate, take and subscribe the following oath of office: " I, A B, do hereby solemnly swear or affirm that I will well and faithfully execute the office of commissioner of locations for the district of _____, without giving a preference to any through favor, fear, or reward, according to the best of my skill and ability. So help me God."

[Surveyor general to make plats of land surveyed, and a record of plats and grants to be kept.]

- V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the surveyor general of this State, on the return of the entry and plat of survey to his office from the office of commissioner of locations, shall make out a plat of the lands surveyed as aforesaid, and record and transmit the same, certified, to the office of the secretary of the State, who shall cause a grant to be prepared for the same, and the great seal affixed thereto, and shall, within three months thereafter, cause a fair record of all such grants to be made and kept in his said office, with alphabetical indexes; and on every third Friday in the months of January, April, July, and October, the said secretary of the State on the said days respectively, shall lay before his Excellency the Governor for the time being, all such grants by him prepared as aforesaid, who is hereby empowered and directed to sign the same, and thereupon deliver them to the said secretary of the State, to be delivered to the respective grantees, or to their order: Provided, nevertheless, that in all cases, previous to the signing of the said grants, where there shall appear to be any fraud or collusion in the progress of the said entry, warrant, and survey, the Governor or Commander-in-chief for the time being, and any five members of the Privy Council, shall have full power and authority to cause all parties to appear before them, and without delay in a summary manner decide in such as to justice and equity shall appertain.

[Surveyor general to give bond and take an oath.]

- VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said surveyor general shall enter into bond for the faithful discharge of his duty, with two good and sufficient securities, in the same sum, payable in the same manner, and shall also take and subscribe the same oath or affirmation, before the secretary of this State, in the presence of his Excellency the Governor, as is hereinbefore prescribed to be entered into and taken by the several commissioners of locations to be appointed as aforesaid, which bond and oath of affirmation shall be thenceforth recorded in the secretary's office.

[Persons applying for a warrant to take an oath.]

- XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid. That every person who shall apply for a warrant of survey shall, previous to his obtaining the same, take the following oath or affirmation, to wit: I, A B, do swear or affirm, that I have not heretofore applied for, or obtained from this or any other office in the State, under or by virtue of this Act, either in my own name, or in the name of any other person, any warrant or warrants of survey, for more than six hundred and forty acres of land. So help me God." Which said oath or affirmation shall be administered by the surveyor general, or any one of the commissioners of locations; which said oath or affirmation shall be sent to the respective commissioners of locations in their said offices, before any warrant of survey shall issue for the same.

[Laying off vacant lands on navigable streams.]

- XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That on all creeks or rivers, navigable for shipping or boats, whereon any vacant lands shall lie, the deputy surveyors shall, and they are hereby directed to, lay off the same by measuring four chain back from such river and creek for every one fronting on and bounded by the same ; and all surveys not made and regulated by this rule, and any grants which may be obtained thereupon, are hereby declared to be null and void to all intents and purposes.

[Treasury indents a legal tender for lands.]

- XIII. And be it, further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all treasury indents of money due and payable by this State to individuals, shall, and they are hereby declared to, be lawful tender at the treasury, as so much money, in payment of all moneys accruing and to become due to this State for lands hereby directed to be granted and sold; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Fees to the surveyor general, & c.]

- XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the following fees, and no other, shall be demanded or taken by the secretary of the State, surveyor general, commissioners of locations, and deputy surveyors, who shall make out a table of the same, and keep posted up in some conspicuous part of the said respective offices, who shall demand or receive any greater or other fees that is allowed by this Act, each and every such person shall be liable to an indictment for extortion, and on conviction thereof shall pay a fine of 100 pounds sterling, one-half to be paid to the prosecutor, and the other to the treasurers for the time being, for the use of this State,
Secretary of the State's fee for making out the grant, recording the same, and fixing the great seal thereto, ten shillings sterling;

(Image courtesy of Carol Murray and her "Jack Hendricks Photo Album")

Jack Hendricks

Full name: John T. Hendricks (1903-1990)

May have also used the name: Ray Henderson

He worked in about 200 movies beginning around 1931 and most of his film work was unbilled and uncredited - i.e., he was a henchman, posse member, townsman, deputy, saloon patron, etc. The above blurb is from an unidentified newspaper. Based on the mentions of his 1927 start and 39-year career, this article and photo is probably circa 1966. On the back of this clipping, there are a few words and phrases: there is mention of "Pickensville" and the name "Hugh Hamilton" with a telephone number of "859-9363" (and he appears to be some kind of real estate agent and/or property broker).
