Thank you to everyone that helped with the Reunion of Upcountry Families. Without your help this event would not be possible, for it provides all us the opportunity to share and obtain information about our various families of interest. Look forward to seeing everyone at our next meeting.

March Presentation:

The Easley Area Museum initially began as an idea, but it became a reality when it was organized in January 2015. The scope of the museum is to promote "the collection, preservation, educational interpretation and display of artifacts, documents, and events...representative of the Easley area." In essence, the first exhibit of the museum is where it will be located. It will be in the Historic Martin House on Pendleton Street in Easley; this house has been in Bobby Martin's family for several generations. Currently what remains is ensuring that the house meets ADA compliance and "identifying projects for exhibit and display." Lynda Colón mentioned that she is working on photo display containing images of the people and places in Easley. After the presentation Bobby and Lynda were asked various questions pertaining to the museum as well as genealogy. For updates be sure to visit the museum's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/easleyareamuseum/>.

Anne Sheriff expressed a thank you for all participating in the Reunion of Upcountry Families March 10-12, 2016. Approximately 35-50 people enjoyed the fellowship and sharing of stories in the Eastatoe Valley on Friday, reminiscing at the Nimmons, Anderson, Ellenburg, Barton Cemetery, and seeing the McKinney Chapel and Old Pickens Church. Some of the members of the Old Pendleton District Chapter carried lunch which was enjoyed by all.

Also Friday evening, there were 56 attended the dinner at Collins Ole Towne followed by Dennis Chastain sharing Part 2 of Early Trails and Roads of the Upcountry accompanied with a PowerPoint presentation of the trail from Pickens to Pumpkintown.

Saturday there were 165 plus in attendance viewing Family Tables and enjoying the seminars at SWU. There are Sassafras Mountain shirts still available for sale in the amount of $10 each. On the back of the shirts there are family names of the area listed.

Barbara Clark announced that she would appreciate members sending in more articles and genealogical charts on their family to include in the newsletter.

The outing for May will be held at the Pickens County Museum of Art and History located at 307 Johnson Street in Pickens, SC. Three dates were available, May 12, 19, or 26. The chapter voted for May 12. A place to eat will be discussed at the April meeting.

Lynda Colon and Bob Martin shared information about the upcoming Easley Area Museum which is opening, hopefully this fall, in the historic Martin House located at 201 S. Pendleton Street in downtown Easley. They are seeking artifacts and photographs of the city's past to showcase a timeline from a frontier outpost in Pickensville to the city of Easley which is now the largest city in Pickens County. They desire help with grants that may be available, fundraising, and volunteerism. The Museum will offer different levels of membership but you do not have to be a member to visit the Museum

The refreshments were provided by Ellen Neal, Anne Sheriff and Barbara Clark.

There were 15 in attendance.

Cherokee Research

As with all research for the DAR, SAR, UDC, CSA, you need to locate official documents for the first three generations:

Date of Birth: Birth Certificate, Death Certificate
Date of Death: Death Certificate
Marriage Date: Marriage License

For the next generations use the same as above plus other records including census records to prove relationships and dates.

Eastern Cherokee Lineage. (Source: Linda Woodward Geiger, 2005 NGS Conference)

1. Did your ancestor reside in North Carolina, Tennessee, or Georgia between 1893-1906?
2. Is one of your direct ancestors on the 1924 Baker Roll?
3. Locate proof of your blood quantum. Is it 1/16 or better?
4. Are any of your ancestors accepted on the Guion Miller Roll?
5. Check the Miller Roll to the Drennen, Chapman, or other census rolls for the Cherokees.
6. Look in state and county records for Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, or North Carolina.
Eastern Bank of Cherokee Indians: (www.cherokee.org/Services/TribalCitizenship/GenealogyInformation.aspx) for further information.

Oklahoma Cherokee Lineage. (Source: Linda Woodward Geiger, 2005 NGS Conference)

1. Did your ancestor live in Oklahoma between 1893-1906?
2. Do you have an ancestor on the Dawes Roll?
3. Check the enrollment packet for each of your relatives—not just grandparents. You need to locate a direct relative.
Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma (<http://www.cherokee.org/AboutTheNation/FrequentlyAskedQuestions.aspx>) for further information.

Native Americans are able to find a wealth of information on their ancestors. Particularly those who were listed on the Guion Miller rolls. There are many resources for Cherokee genealogy, but the Cherokee Nation does not provide genealogy services. A private researcher, libraries and other organizations may be of some help to you. Here is a list of rolls that may list your Cherokee ancestors: (Source: Website for Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma)

Rolls Before and During Removal

Reservation Rolls 1817

Cherokees who chose to accept a plot of land on the Cherokee reservation (in the Eastern homeland).

Emigration Rolls 1817-1835

Cherokee who chose to "emigrate" to Indian Territory west of the Mississippi River in present day Oklahoma and Arkansas (prior to the Trail of Tears.)

Henderson Roll 1835

Cherokees who were to be removed to Indian Territory on what would later be called the Trail of Tears.

Mullay Roll 1848

Cherokees who remained in North Carolina after removal.

Post Removal Rolls

Siler Roll 1851 - Eastern

Eastern Cherokee entitled to per capita payment.

Old Settler Roll 1851 - Western

Recorded those Cherokee (still living) who emigrated to Indian Territory prior to removal.

Chapman Roll 1852 - Eastern

Eastern Cherokee who actually received payment from the government (reference to Siler Roll).

Drennen Roll 1852 - Western

Recorded those Cherokee who came to Indian Territory in 1839 on the Trail of Tears.

Swetland Roll 1869 - Eastern

Recorded those Cherokees, and their descendants who were listed on the Mully Roll as residing in North Carolina.

Hester Roll 1883 - Eastern

Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians provides a great deal of detail about those listed.

Churchill Roll 1908 - Eastern

Additional roll of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians which also includes those rejected from the Eastern Band.

Guion Miller Roll 1909 - Eastern and Western

For Cherokees (east and west) excluding the "Old Settlers."

Baker Roll 1924 - Eastern

The final roll of the Eastern Band of the Cherokee in anticipation of allotment. The land was not allotted and the reservation still exists. This roll is the basis for tribal membership in the Eastern Band.

The Dawes Rolls 1898-1914 - Western

The final roll of the western Cherokee. Allotment of Cherokee land to Cherokee individuals was based on this roll. Direct descendency from someone on this roll is required for tribal citizenship in the Cherokee Nation today.
