About Our Chapter

The Old Pendleton District Chapter of the South Carolina Genealogical Society is a nonprofit, 12-36-2120(40), educational organization designed to unite those interested in the Pickens and Oconee Counties, South Carolina history and family genealogy; to encourage the preservation of documents and records; to promote educational programs; and to publish local records, history and family genealogy. The Chapter's primary goal is to assist others in their search for their ancestors and origins of birthplace.

The Chapter meets every month, except July, August and December. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of the month from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Central-Clemson Library.

The Chapter's genealogical and historical archives are housed at the Clayton Family History Center, located in the lower level of the Rickman Memorial Library on Southern Wesleyan University campus in Central, SC. This collection contains about 3,500 books and files on family histories, state and county sources, military histories, cemetery records, immigration and passenger lists. For more information send email to claytonroom@swu.edu.

The public is welcome to visit the Clayton Center anytime the Library is open. Normal operating hours are 7:45 a.m. to 11 p.m., Monday through Thursday, 7:45 to 5 p.m. on Friday, 1 to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 6 to 10 p.m. Sunday. Hours vary during summer, for holidays and during breaks in the school year. For more information call 864-644-5074, send email to library@swu.edu, or check their website at <http://www.swu.edu/academics/library/>

President's Message:

Greetings to all! Thank you to everyone that was able to attend our last meeting. We will be having our annual gathering at Trinity Wesleyan Church; please be sure to bring a dish.

I just want to take some time to reflect upon this year. It has been a period in which we enjoyed many interesting and thought provoking presentations. Also it has been a year in which we have lost several members. However, they shall not be forgotten. As this year draws to a close let us take time to reflect on the blessings we have received, and how we can use these blessings to help others.

Until next year have a Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year

Quientell Walker

The Pendleton Messenger Newspaper
Printed at Pendleton, SC for Anderson, Oconee, Pickens Area

January 1835

Married on Tuesday evening last by the Rev. Mr. Carlisle, Mr. George Graham of Newberry District, to Mrs. Martha Skelton, of Anderson District.

Died on the 28th inst., at his residence in Anderson, after a protracted illness, which he bore with Christian courage and a humble reliance upon his Savior, Mr. Daniel R. Towers, in the 36th year of his age, leaving behind him a beloved wife and six children, together with a numerous connections to mourn his absence. It is due to the deceased in this biographical sketch, to say, that he was a true patriot, frugal and economical in the culinary transactions of life; a faithful and benevolent husband; a kind father, a good neighbor, and recently a pious member of the Presbyterian Church;

The Rev. Mr. Fuller will preach the first Sunday in February at Harmony Meeting House, Anderson District.

There will be offered at Abbeville Court House on Sale Day, in March next, 50 or 20 Prime Field Hands, to be hired out for the balance of the year. Apply to Col. Noble. 7 Nov 1835.

Those indebted to the subscriber are again requested to make payments; his notes and account will be left in the hands of Thomas R. Cherry until the first of February; after which time, the remaining unsettled, will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. Edwin Reese. 7 Jan 1835.

Notice from J.H. Dendy, Ordinary, Pickens District. 7 Jan 1835.

Robert Wilson, Applicant versus Andrew Wilson, Daniel Wilson and Cunningham Wilson, Defendants. The defendants reside out-of-state. Ordered they appear for sale or division of the real estate of William Wilson, late of Pickens District, deceased, on or before the first Monday of April or their consent to the same will be entered on record.

J.S. Lorton, requesting payments of debts.

What's a Gazetteer?

Genealogy, as we all know, is all about names and place names are a very important part of our research. We want to know where exactly our ancestors lived. Locating a place can be difficult though, because place names change through the years, just as personal names do. Librarians, of course, have a tool to handle this problem.

A gazetteer is a geographical dictionary. It contains a list of place names, usually in alphabetical order, and gives a location for that place. Many gazetteers also provide further information. Gazetteers have existed since ancient times. The word "gazetteer" first appeared in the English language in 1693. Since genealogists are interested in places that existed years ago, places that may no longer exist, or that may have a different name, we look for both older gazetteers and current ones that provide historical information. A gazetteer can be a printed book or an online file; some titles are available in both formats.

Here are some suggested titles.

North Carolina

The North Carolina Gazetteer, 2nd ed. (Univ. of North Carolina Press, 2010) A dictionary of Tar Heel places and their history. [Call #: R917.56 Pow N. C.] This information has also been loaded into NCPedia, <http://ncpedia.org/>, and can be searched there.

For example, a search for Woodlawn produces this among other references:

"Mount Holly, town in E Gaston County. Post office est. as Huntersville in 1800, named for Rev. Humphrey Hunter, postmaster. Name changed to Woodlawn in 1846. Inc. 1879 as Mount Holly, named for the town in New Jersey where fine yarns were manufactured. Produces textiles and hosiery. Alt. 621.

See also Nims."

North Carolina, Her Counties, Her Townships, and Her Towns. (Indianapolis, Ind.: The Researchers, 1981.) [975.6 N NCC] This small book is notable for giving the names (and a very small map) of the townships in each county.

United States and World

United States Board on Geographic Names, <http://geonames.usgs.gov/>. The "Domestic Names" file includes historic names and includes names of landmarks such as cemeteries, parks, churches, etc. It includes a foreign names section.

The Columbia Lippincott gazetteer of the world. Edited by Leon E. Seltzer with the geographical research staff of Columbia University Press and with the cooperation of the American Geographical Society. With 1961 supplement. (Columbia University Press [1962]) x, 2148, 22 p. [Call #: R910.3 C – at Reference Desk] One of the most comprehensive gazetteers.

Examples of Other Gazetteers

A genealogical gazetteer of England: an alphabetical dictionary of places, with their location, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, population, and the date of the earliest entry in the registers of every ancient parish in England / Frank Smith. (Baltimore, Genealogical Pub. Co., 1968) [Call #: 914.2 Smi NCC]

A gazetteer of Virginia and West Virginia / by Henry Gannett. (Clearfield Co., 1994, c1904.) Two volumes in one. Reprint of the 1904 editions of the author's A gazetteer of Virginia, and A gazetteer of West Virginia, published by U.S. Govt. Print. Off., Washington. [Call #: 975.4003 Gan NCC]

General alphabetical index to the townlands and towns, parishes and baronies of Ireland: based on the census of Ireland for the year 1851. Dublin: Printed by Alexander Thom, 1861, reprinted by Genealogical Publishing Co., Baltimore, Maryland, multiple dates. This can be searched online at <https://www.johngrenham.com/places/>. Anyone doing Irish research needs to be able to locate the exact place their family came from – townland, parish, etc.

What Place Do You Need?

Use the Family Search Wiki to find information on gazetteers for specific places.

Some examples:

- a) An extensive article on German place names, both in and out of Germany, http://familysearch.org/learn/wiki/en/Germany_Gazetteers .
- b) Virginia gazetteers, https://familysearch.org/wiki/en/Virginia_Gazetteers.
- c) South Carolina gazetteers, https://familysearch.org/wiki/en/South_Carolina_Gazetteers.
- d) Tennessee gazetteers, https://familysearch.org/wiki/en/Tennessee_Gazetteers.

In a library catalog, do a keyword search on “gazetteer” and the name of the place you are interested in. Another useful subject term is “Names Geographical” which can also be used in a keyword search combined with a place name.

Abundance of Children

Pickens is a great District in some respects. We remember to have heard our friend, Major Whitfield, state, one day in the Legislature, encircled by a gallery of beautiful women, that it was not uncommon to see a constituent of his the mother of twenty children!

. . . Whilst attending Pickens Court, the other day, we met our friend, Captain Steele, who had been a gallant midshipman in the war of 1812 with Great Britain and who served heroically in one of the hardest fought naval engagements during the war. He is now a resident of Pickens District. Some years ago he informed us that he had twelve children. We enquired of him "how the wife and twelve children did?" He reply was, that he had added five more to that number, and that now he had seventeen, all the sons and daughters of one mother! The youngest is still nursing! The oldest is just setting out for Kansas.

. . . Fifteen or twenty years ago we remember to have heard our old friend, Daniel Durham, of Pickens District, defend himself in Court, before Judge Gantt, in propria persone. In the course of his argument, he stated to the Court that he had nineteen children at home, all dependent, in some measure, on him for support! His Honor, the Judge, charged the Jury to acquit him and let him go home to his children and started that it was the best speech he had heard at the Bar during the Circuit.

We could mention a half dozen instances known to us in Pickens, where a mother has fifteen and twenty children. But Greenville, in the person of John Bates, Sr., can beat all this. He has commenced, as our friend P.E. Duncan once said in a stump speech, his third dozen of children. One mother bore him twenty four, and all living, she then died, and the old man took himself a second wife, who had, some years ago, given birth to three more. How many since, we know not.
