About Our Chapter

The Old Pendleton District Chapter of the South Carolina Genealogical Society is a nonprofit, 12-36-2120(40), educational organization designed to unite those interested in the Pickens and Oconee Counties, South Carolina history and family genealogy; to encourage the preservation of documents and records; to promote educational programs; and to publish local records, history and family genealogy. The Chapter's genealogical and historical archives are housed at the Clayton Family History Center, located in the lower level of the Rickman Memorial Library on Southern Wesleyan University campus in Central, SC. This collection contains about 3,500 books and files on family histories, state and county sources, military histories, cemetery records, immigration and passenger lists. President's Message:

Greetings to all! I wish to extend a welcome to all our visitors and members. Mrs. Martha Parris delivered a delightful presentation entitled "Historic Old Pickens" at our last meeting. I have not been to Old Pickens Presbyterian, but after hearing Mrs. Parris insightful presentation, it has now been added to list of places to visit. Our next speaker will be Mr. Jerry Alexander, and topic of his presentation is "The Cherokees."

Although I was unable to attend the Gathering of Appalachian Life I did hear several wonderful things about the event; I sincerely hope that some of you could attend.

- Mildred Brewer introduced speaker Martha Parris who spoke about “Historic Old Pickens.” The church is the only remaining building left from the historic town. The building was a church and meeting house. The Church is on the National Register of Historic Places. The newly opened Kiosk on the property now houses a map of the village.
- In 1860 there were six merchants and about 100 people Pickens District was divided into Pickens County and Oconee County on January 29, 1868. The Hagood-Mauldin House from Old Pickens was moved to the new Pickens Court House and the Alexander-Hill House was moved to High Falls Park.
- In the 1960s Duke Energy purchased the land. It was later donated to the Historical Foundation. In 2004, the Historical Foundation began working on the building. There is a crack in the wall from the 1886 Charleston earthquake.

Need Information on the 2nd South Carolina Cavalry

Tom Perry of the Laurel Hill Publishing Company sent an e-mail to the Old Pendleton Genealogical Society requesting help in his new publication about the 2nd SC Cavalry.

Broadfoot Publishing plans to publish a regimental history of the 2nd South Cavalry, who fought in the Army of Northern Virginia under J. E. B. Stuart and Wade Hampton among others.

He will be in the area in late March 2017 on a research trip and looking for local published or not published resources such as letters or local histories. He is also searching for photos of the men who served in this regiment or any other information that might be helpful to the book.

If you know of any local libraries, museums or people, who might be able to assist in this project, he would greatly appreciate it.

Pickens County 150 Project Celebration on May 20, 2017

The Pickens County Confederate Sesquicentennial [150] Project began the fall of 2011. Its goal was to identify Confederate soldier's tombstones in Pickens County and if they did not have an iron cross, the Committee or a donor would purchase an iron cross and place it on the gravesite before Confederate Memorial Day (150 years after Gettysburg) on 2015. The group did not finish in 2015 but have set May 20, 2017 as their final goal. Other objectives included a publication and a website.

Many of the soldiers could not be identified by the committee. Research included men who were born between the years 1805 and 1849. Many cemeteries have people buried between those years but could not be identified due to lack of information of their service. The committee is still researching and hopes to locate provable service to the Confederate cause.

Part of the Confederate Memorial Service held at the Hagood-Mauldin House on May 20, 2017 at Pickens, SC will be devoted to celebrating the culmination of the project.
