About Our Chapter

The Old Pendleton District Chapter of the South Carolina Genealogical Society is a nonprofit, 12-36-2120(40), educational organization designed to unite those interested in the Pickens and Oconee Counties, South Carolina history and family genealogy; to encourage the preservation of documents and records; to promote educational programs; and to publish local records, history and family genealogy. The Chapter's primary goal is to assist others in their search for their ancestors and origins of birthplace.

The Chapter meets every month, except July, August and December. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of the month from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Central-Clemson Library.

The Chapter's genealogical and historical archives are housed at the Clayton Family History Center, located in the lower level of the Rickman Library on Southern Wesleyan University campus in Central, SC. This collection contains about 3,500 books and files on family histories, state and county sources, military histories, cemetery records, immigration and passenger lists. For more information send email to claytonroom@swu.edu.

The public is welcome to visit the Clayton Center anytime the Library is open. Normal operating hours are 7:45 a.m. to 11 p.m., Monday through Thursday, 7:45 to 5 p.m. on Friday, 1 to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 6 to 10 p.m. Sunday. ### Home of Dr. William Thomas Field and wife Eliza Jane Blassingame

Dr. William Thomas Field was born December 11, 1836 and died December 11, 1904 and was buried in the Field Family Cemetery near Dacusville, SC. He married Eliza Jane Blassingame who was born in 1842 and died in 1923. The above photograph was published in the Pickens Sentinel (unknown date) and reported that Dr. Field was born near this home in a smaller house.

When Pickens County was formed in the division of the old Pickens District in 1868, Dr. Field was one of the six commissioners named to locate a site for the new county seat-Town of Pickens.

Dr. Field, a veteran of Lee's Army, graduated from the Medical College of South Carolina in 1858 but seldom practiced. A farmer, he served the County as Senator from 1882-1890 and as a delegate to the 1895 Constitutional Convention. He died in 1904 at age 68 on 14 Dec 1904. (Biographical Directory of the Senate of the State of South Carolina 1776-1964 (Columbia, SC, 1964), 217. [Notice difference in death tombstone date.]
