About Our Chapter

The Old Pendleton District Chapter of the South Carolina Genealogical Society is a nonprofit, 12-36-2120(40), educational organization designed to unite those interested in the Pickens and Oconee Counties, South Carolina history and family genealogy; to encourage the preservation of documents and records; to promote educational programs; and to publish local records, history and family genealogy. The Chapter's primary goal is to assist others in their search for their ancestors and origins of birthplace.

The Chapter meets every month, except July, August and December. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of the month from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Central-Clemson Library.

The Chapter's genealogical and historical archives are housed at the Clayton Family History Center, located in the lower level of the Rickman Library on Southern Wesleyan University campus in Central, SC. This collection contains about 3,500 books and files on family histories, state and county sources, military histories, cemetery records, immigration and passenger lists. For more information send email to claytonroom@swu.edu.

The public is welcome to visit the Clayton Center whenever the Library is open. Normal operating hours are Monday-Thursday from 8 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. Friday hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Closed Saturday and Sunday. Hours vary during summer, for holidays and during breaks in the school year. For more information call 864-644-5074, send email to claytonroom@swu.edu, or check their website at swu.edu/academics/library.

More Cobb Cotton Mill Superintendents from The Old Pendleton District, SC

This line of Cobb Superintendents belongs to our Old Pendleton District Member, Carolyne Cobb James Rudd. A remarkable event happened in Carolyne's life when she purchased and restored the Chicopee Mill Supt. House in Walhalla, SC. She was informed by a Cobb relative that the home she purchased belonged to a Cobb Superintendent, a Cobb from her line of Cobbs, Melvin Darrell Cobb and his wife's name was Carolyn Cobb.

The Chicopee Mill Supt. House

Located in the Chicopee Mill Area of Walhalla, this block of homes belonged to the Superintendent and Mill Overseers. Today they are well kept by their present owners.

Chicopee Mill Supt. House at 302 South Spring Street.

Carolyne Rudd's grandfather, James Henry Cobb, an overseer in the mill, raised his family in the house located on Lot #1, Catherine Street. (1930 Census, Walhalla City, Wagener Township, Oconee County, SC).

From the SC Department of Archives and History: Chicopee Mill Supervisor's House-Description: Irregular plan, 1 story; gable/jerkinhead roof; 1 interior chimney; weatherboard ext., portico with columns; jerkinhead dormer on façade; projecting jerkinhead gable to left of entrance; entrance angled; another dormer set on side front gable; triple 4/1 windows.

The Mill History:

1895- Walhalla Cotton Mills was formed and a charter obtained in 1895 with a capital stock of $75,000.

(Charter Book A, Page 37.) The Board of Directors were: John D. Verner, President and Treasurer; D. P. Robins, Secretary; C. W. Pitchford, S. P. Dendy, William J. Stribling, J.J. Norton, and W. A. Strother.

1895-Victor Monagan Company. The Walhalla Cotton Mills sold out to the Victor Monagan Company. (Deed Book 5H, page 179), filed declaration July 30, 1895.

1899 The Mill was built and completed by the Victor-Monaghan Mills

1945 The Chicopee Manufacturing Corporation, which is a division of Johnson and Johnson of Massachusetts, purchased the Victor Monagan Company.

The present corporate setup of the Chicopee plant in Walhalla is as follows: (1960)

Melvin Darrell Cobb, Plant manager
C. D. Cox, Assistant Superintendent
L. J. Chastain, Office Manager and Purchasing Agent
T. W. Jenkins, Head of Standards and Quality Control
W. A. Lee, General Foreman of Carding,

J. S. Butts, General Foreman of Spinning
H. E. White, General Foreman of Weaving
M. V. Reeves, General Foreman of Cloth Room
R. M. McCall, Master Mechanic

Melvin Darrell Cobb was the last Superintendent of the Chicopee Mill.

Through the concerted efforts of Wiechiner and Wanner, the Oconee County Fruit Growers and Distilling Company was organized to aid grape growers, and Wanner became known as the little old winemaker of Walhalla. Around this time, there were two jug factories in operation on the branch near the present site of the Chicopee, later Avondale Mill. Before these mills, the Walhalla Cotton Manufacturing Company was organized, the street on the mill village bearing the names of those engaged in this enterprise. The mill was later sold to Victor Monaghan Company and later became Chicopee and then Avondale Mill.

The Chicopee Company, is one of the oldest textile mills in the US, located in Chicopee Falls, Massachusetts, originally born in 1823. In 1916, it started the supply of nonwoven bandages due to booming wartime demand for sterile dressings. Johnson & Johnson acquired Chicopee during WW I to increase its manufacturing capacity. Today, Chicopee North America specializes in roll goods, and finished, packaged wipes for Foodservice, Industrial, Health Care and general-purpose applications.
